GENERAL INFORMATION

HISTORY OF BAPTIST BIBLE COLLEGE & SEMINARY

Baptist Bible Seminary (so named because the school only offered a three-year Bible degree) was established in 1932 by a group of pastors led by Dr. Richard J. Murphy. Its original purpose of preparing men and women to serve Christ as they carried out the biblical command to “go into all the world and preach the Gospel” has not changed. The founders insisted the new school be strongly biblical and that it keep high academic standards. Through the years, the school’s leaders have continued those goals. The current vision statement, “Excellence in biblical higher education for effectiveness in global Christian leadership,” indicates high regard for God’s Word as well as a commitment to excellent academics.

A three-year Bible program was in place during the early years of 1932–1947. In 1947, four-year programs in a variety of disciplines were added. A few years later, the Regents of New York State granted a temporary charter, and in 1954, they gave permission to grant the Bachelor of Theology and Bachelor of Religious Education degrees. In 1967, the Bachelor of Sacred Music degree was approved.

At that time, the school used the facilities of First Baptist Church, Johnson City, NY. As the number of students grew from the original 40, additional buildings were purchased. In the 1960s, the administrator and the board of trustees saw clearly that the school needed a new campus. When the present site in Clarks Summit, PA was purchased in 1968, this vision became a reality.

During 1968, the Association for Biblical Higher Education granted accreditation, and in early 1969, the Pennsylvania Department of Education approved the same programs and degrees offered in New York. In addition, they approved the Associate of Arts degree. In 1971, in order to accurately reflect the courses of study offered, the name of the Seminary was changed to Baptist Bible College of Pennsylvania. In 1982, BBC was authorized to grant the Bachelor of Science in Bible degree. Accreditation from the Middle States Association of Colleges & Schools (Philadelphia, PA) was given in 1984.

In September 1972, classes began at Baptist Bible Seminary. Initially offering the Master of Divinity and Master of Theology degrees, the Seminary now also offers the Master of Ministry, Doctor of Ministry, and Doctor of Philosophy in Biblical Studies degrees.

In 1989, the Pennsylvania Department of Education granted approval for the College to offer the Master of Science in Christian School Education degree. In 2010, that degree was renamed Master of Education. In 1996, the Master of Science in Counseling degree program was approved and in 2007 the Master of Arts degree was approved.

The Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Music Education, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, Bachelor of Science in Education and Bachelor of Science in Counseling degrees were added in 2012. The same year the Master of Science in Counseling Ministries degree was renamed Master of Science in Counseling.

STATEMENT OF MISSION

Founded in 1932 in Johnson City, New York, Baptist Bible College of Pennsylvania is an educational institution that embraces its Baptist heritage. With a commitment to biblical authority, BBC serves undergraduate, graduate and seminary students by preparing them for lives of significant service for the cause of Jesus Christ in a variety of ministries and careers.

As a learning community dedicated to biblical higher education, BBC strengthens the church of God and influences society by cultivating an environment that promotes academic excellence and Christlikeness. Students are challenged to pursue biblical truth and wisdom, to embrace a Christian worldview, and to develop professional competence and relational skills.

BBC aspires to be a community of individuals who love and serve God with all their heart, soul, and mind and who love their neighbor as themselves. We launch our graduates into the world as servants of God and as lifelong learners.

STATEMENT OF VALUES

Biblical Truth. We value the Scriptures as truth, the highest authority for faith and practice, the center of true learning, and the basis of our worldview.

Transformational Learning. We value the development of biblically-based critical thinking, building wisdom that transforms worldview, character, behavior, relationships, and ministry in conformity to Christ.

Spiritual Integration. We value the development of the whole person: the integration of faith and practice, mind and heart, and learning and service.

Global Orientation. We value obedience to the Great Commission; therefore we seek to serve Christ in a myriad of ways anywhere in the world.

Cultural Relevance. We value living wisely within the culture that surrounds us, establishing a redemptive presence and speaking the truth in love wherever God sends us.

Christian Leadership. We value the development of leadership skills as the natural outcome of transformational learning, so we may assist others in achieving their God-given potential.

Baptist Heritage. We value the local church, the pillar and foundation of truth, along with the rich spiritual legacy of our Baptist distinctives and history.

Pursuit of Excellence. We value continuous assessment that leads to God-honoring improvement, innovation, and creative development.

Responsible Stewardship. We value the wise investment and management of the resources that God has entrusted to us, maximizing the benefit to those we serve.

STATEMENT OF VISION

Baptist Bible College & Seminary has an overarching vision of pursuing excellence in biblical higher education for effectiveness in global Christian leadership.

The College has undergraduate programs of biblical, general, and profession studies which foster the doctrinal and ecclesiastical heritage of the school. Sound preparation for every student requires knowledge of biblical truth, professional skill training, and a strong core of courses in general studies. Strong spiritual dynamics are important and are stressed in every program of study as well as in co-curricular activities.

Since not all students are certain of careers in Christian ministry when they apply to BBC, a variety of academic programs are offered to enhance ability to function effectively in life, home, local church, community, and in professional ministry careers.

The Baptist Bible College graduate programs exist for the primary purpose of preparing men and women to be godly servant leaders for selected ministries. By using the Scriptures as the foundation and basis for all instruction, the programs seek to produce graduates who are able to serve effectively in a variety of personal and professional ministries.

Each academic program has clearly stated goals which give focus to the selection of courses, faculty, and learning models.

The Confession of Faith and Standards of Conduct provide a doctrinal and practical framework within which the educational program is carried out as they reflect the religious positions and spiritual commitment the institution seeks to serve and preserve.

CONFESSION OF FAITH

We believe in the verbal and plenary inspiration of the text of the original manuscripts of the 66 books of the Old and New Testaments, which alone constitute the inerrant Word of God. We believe the Bible supports using a grammatical, historical method of interpretation in light of the progress of revelation. Thus, we believe that the Bible is the clear, sufficient, and supreme authority for all belief, life, and ministry.

We believe in the trinity of the Godhead: one immutable and omnipotent God, omniscient in all things past, present, and future, who eternally exists in three equal Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

We believe in the deity, virgin birth, perfect humanity, sinless life, substitutionary death, bodily resurrection, and ascension of the Lord Jesus Christ. He is the only means of salvation from sin and the sole mediator between God and man.

We believe in the personality and deity of the Holy Spirit, through whose ministry believers today are regenerated, baptized into Christ and His body, indwelt, sealed, gifted, and empowered for service.

We believe that gifts of the Holy Spirit are given to build up the body of Christ. We believe that the sign gifts of the Spirit were given only for the apostolic era, providing revelation and authenticating the ministry of the apostles.

We believe that God created the universe (including mankind) in six literal, consecutive 24-hour days apart from the process of evolution. We believe that man was created in the image of God and retains that image after the fall. Therefore, we affirm the dignity of human life and affirm that all people are worth pursuing for the cause of Christ.

We believe that all human beings are totally depraved and guilty before God as a result of the fall of Adam. We commit acts of sin because we are sinners by nature.

We believe that the Triune God saves sinners by grace alone through faith in Christ alone. God secures their eternal salvation, having sovereignly elected them to be willing recipients of His grace in Christ, whose blood was shed for the remission of sins. We believe that salvation is demonstrated through good works that are part of a holy life. We believe that every Christian has the joyous responsibility of evangelizing sinners in obedience to Christ's Great Commission.

We believe that the universal Church is the body of Christ, comprised of all true believers from Pentecost until the Rapture. Jesus Christ is the sole head of the Church.

We believe that the local church is an assembly of immersed believers, led by pastors and served by deacons, independent and congregationally governed, in fellowship with other churches of like faith and order.

We believe that the local church is responsible to fulfill the Great Commission. It must observe the ordinances of believers' baptism and the Lord's Supper; foster true fellowship, prayer, and worship; edify and equip believers; and evangelize the world.

We believe that the only biblical mode of baptism is immersion; that baptism is for believers only; that it is a testimony of their identity by faith with Christ's death, burial, and resurrection; and that it is a prerequisite for local church membership. We believe that the ordinance of the Lord's Supper is solely a memorial of Christ's death, and that the body and blood of Christ are not present in the bread and cup.

We believe in the priesthood of all believers and that we have direct access to God apart from any mediator except Christ. We respect the God-given capacity of individual soul liberty through which each person will give account for living by the dictates of his own conscience. We believe in the separation of church and state, and that believers must fulfill biblical responsibilities to each.

We believe that the Bible directs us to a life of holiness, requiring separation from worldliness and ecclesiastical apostasy unto God.

We believe in the personal existence of angels as created spirit beings. God's holy angels are ministering spirits. Satan and other fallen angels can influence believers, but believers cannot be demon possessed.

We believe in the pre-tribulation rapture and bodily resurrection of the Church at Christ's imminent coming. Believers will give account for their works at the Judgment Seat of Christ, which will follow the Rapture.

We believe in the distinction between the nation of Israel and the Church, the Spirit-baptized Body of Christ. The Church is not the collection of all believers of all times.

We believe that God will fulfill the biblical covenants made with the nation of Israel. Though they are now dispersed among the nations, they will be re-gathered in the land of Israel and saved as a nation at the premillennial coming of Christ to the earth. At that time, Christ will begin his Davidic rule over the world for 1,000 years and continue to reign in the eternal state.

We believe in the bodily resurrection and judgment of unbelievers after the millennial reign of Christ. We believe in the eternal existence and punishment of all unbelievers in the lake of fire and the eternal existence and blessedness of all believers in the new heavens and earth.

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

Personal Holiness

Baptist Bible College & Seminary believes that it has a responsibility to guide students in their spiritual, moral, and intellectual development so they will be servants for Christ. While we recognize that each believer is free to follow a biblically informed conscience in personal standards of conduct, we choose to limit our freedom in some areas in order to build up others in our campus community. We desire all those associated with BBC&S to be characterized by the pursuit of godliness and biblical discernment in every area of life.

Philippians 4:8 instructs believers to be committed to whatever is “true, honorable, right, pure, lovely, and of good report.” Additional Scripture passages that speak to this issue are Psalm 1 and 101; Romans 12:1–2; 1 Corinthians 10:31; 2 Corinthians 10:4–5; and Ephesians 5:1–17. First Corinthians 8–10 directs us to evaluate whether our choices might harm a weaker brother or destroy our testimony to the unsaved. We want to foster a positive and godly community spirit on campus that assists students in preparation for effective ministry leadership. This includes a Christ-like spirit in speech, attitude, and conflict resolution.

Trustees, employees, and students choose to use media, technology, and literature in a way that is consistent with Christ-honoring discernment. We choose to avoid any activity that does not promote values consistent with biblical principles of righteousness and personal purity. For instance, we choose not to use alcoholic beverages, tobacco, or non-medicinal drugs. We refuse to be involved in occult practices. We will not be involved in gambling, worldly dancing, and immodest dress.

We affirm our commitment to these values annually in writing. Those who do not abide by the values or whose spirit is evidently unsympathetic toward the standards and ideals of the institution or who seem to be exerting any negative or harmful influence upon the school may be asked to leave.

Ecclesiastical Cooperation and Separation

The spiritual unity of all true believers in the Lord Jesus Christ is a great and blessed teaching of Scripture. All who minister for Christ quickly learn that spiritual unity is challenging to implement in the practical realities of ministry life.

The church is the pillar and foundation of truth. The very nature of the biblical word “church” (“called out assembly”) implies both sanctification and separation. We believe that God has called all genuine believers to be positively identified as His true followers of God in true holiness.

As we equip our students for effective ministry leadership, we must help them understand the great value of wisely partnering with others to fulfill the Great Commission. Attendant to that is their responsibility to help them learn to identify unwise or unbiblical associations they should avoid.

We believe that God does not direct His church to partner with organizations that deny His Word or His holy purposes. We live in the last days, so we should not be surprised to find organizations that once confessed Christ but have turned from Him (apostasy). As a school, we do not partner with such organizations or ecumenical endeavors, and we guide our students to understand the error of such partnerships.

In addition, the Scripture teaches that it is sometimes wise and necessary to choose not to partner with other believers. Those who affirm the core doctrines of Christian orthodoxy, but who deny other truths of the faith, may not be qualified to become partners in fulfilling the Great Commission. At times, we choose to limit our partnerships to ensure the opportunity to preach the whole counsel of God.

BAPTIST DISTINCTIVES

The College holds firmly to historic Baptist faith and practice and supports a fundamental view regarding the Bible in contrast to the liberal, neo-orthodox, and neo-evangelical views.

SPIRITUAL CLIMATE

Baptist Bible College strives to create a climate which promotes both learning and spiritual growth. Courses are taught by Godly professors from a biblical point of view. In addition to course instruction, all undergraduate students (residential and online) are required to be involved in Christian ministries in a local church or organization to put their knowledge into practice.

For residential students, activities outside the classroom, such as daily chapel, prayer groups, missions and Bible conferences, and personal devotions, contribute to spiritual development. Recreation and other co-curricular activities are designed to support this spiritual climate by teaching self-discipline, moral responsibility, and servant-leadership.

Online students have the benefit of interaction with students and professors from all over the globe. The diversity of students in their courses helps encourage critical thinking through their courses and allows for deep interaction on spiritual issues. Online students are strongly encouraged to actively participate in their local churches as well as continue their spiritual growth through personal devotions and prayer. Chapel messages are available for download through the BBC website.

LOCATION OF CAMPUS

BBC is located in Clarks Summit, Pennsylvania, a residential suburb of over 8,000 people. This suburb is part of the greater Scranton/Wilkes-Barre area with a population exceeding 500,000.

The College is easily reached by public transportation. Several airlines serve the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton airport at Avoca, and there is a major bus terminal nearby.

Access by car is also convenient. Scranton is at a crossroads of the interstate highway system of the northeastern United States. Interstate 81, the Northeast Extension (I-476) of the Pennsylvania Turnpike, and U.S. Highways 6 and 11 pass within two miles of the campus, and Interstates 80 and 84 are only a short distance from Clarks Summit.

Organizations contributing to community cultural life includes: the Northeastern Philharmonic Orchestra the Everhart Museum of Natural History, Science, and Art.

Other Colleges in the area include: University of Scranton, Marywood University, Keystone College, Lackawanna College, The Commonwealth Medical College, the Worthington Scranton campus of Pennsylvania State University, Wilkes University, King's College, Misericordia University, and Johnson College.

FACILITIES

The 131-acre campus has been steadily developed since 1968 and now contains 19 major buildings.

Jackson Hall houses administrative and faculty offices, most of the classrooms, a computer lab, a science lab, and the library. The Music Department occupies Buckingham Hall with music classrooms, practice rooms, and studio offices for the music faculty.

The Phelps Student Center includes food service facilities and is home to BBC Defenders Athletics events. The building also houses offices, a game room, and dedicated meeting spaces.

The 62,000-square foot Recreation Center includes a running track, three basketball courts, and exercise, cardio, and aerobic rooms. The building also includes space for Athletics Department offices, classrooms, and furnished gathering areas.

Twelve three-story residence halls furnish on-campus housing for undergraduate and married graduate students.

BBC&S provides wireless access to the Internet across the entire campus. An Ethernet jack is also provided in the dorm rooms for those students who wish to use a wired connection to the Internet. The computer lab also provides access to the network.

The Joseph M. Stowell Seminary building includes classrooms, faculty offices, a chapel, a student lounge, and a computer lab.

The central portion of the campus is located near a 4 1/2-acre pond.

ACCREDITATION AND CERTIFICATION

Baptist Bible College & Seminary is accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education, 3624 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104, and 267-284-5000. Middle States is a regional accrediting agency recognized nationally. All degrees have been approved by the Pennsylvania Department of Education.

Since 1968, the College has been accredited by the Association for Biblical Higher Education, 5850 T.G. Lee Blvd, Suite.130, FL 32822, 407-207-0808.

The undergraduate teacher education programs are approved by the Association of Christian Schools International. The Early Childhood and Elementary PK-4, Secondary Education English, Science, Social Studies, Mathematics, and K-12 Physical Education/Health and Music Education programs are approved for Pennsylvania state certification.

ECCLESIASTICAL RELATIONSHIPS

Baptist Bible College, as an independent, self-governed institution, experiences a relationship with a growing number of churches that share the same doctrinal and ecclesiastical position as the College. Many of these churches are unaffiliated, while others are in association with state and/or national fellowships of fundamental churches.

ALUMNI OFFICE

The Alumni Office maintains an active relationship between the school and its graduates. It assists the Alumni Association in uniting alumni for spiritual fellowship, in promoting projects which support the school, and in maintaining enthusiasm for the College.

BAPTIST BIBLE SEMINARY

The Seminary, which began in 1972 as the School of Theology, is a graduate-level division of Baptist Bible College of Pennsylvania. It shares the campus with the College and is characterized by a balance of academic excellence and passion for ministry.

The curriculum and schedule are structured to give each student ample opportunity to study at his own pace and schedule. Personal contact with faculty members of the Seminary and warm Christian fellowship with other students are daily occurrences.

The Seminary offers six graduate degree programs. The Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree is a 94-credit professional program designed primarily to train men for worldwide Christian ministry. The Master of Theology (Th.M.) degree is a 32-credit program that is designed to allow qualified men to develop a greater proficiency in a selected area of Bible knowledge. The Master of Ministry (M.Min.) degree is a 30-credit program that is designed to sharpen the skills of pastors and missionaries already involved in full-time Gospel ministries. The Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) degree is a 34-credit advanced professional education program for full-time ministry professionals who want to develop further and excel in biblical leadership ministry. The Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) degree is a 60-credit degree program. Its majors are in Old Testament Hebrew, New Testament Greek, Systematic Theology, and Bible Exposition. The BBS Ph.D. is designed to blend and balance rigorous scholarship with pastoral passion for all students regardless of career orientation. The BBS doctoral degrees are sought after by professors and educational leaders from around the world. The Master of Arts in Biblical Apologetics (M.A.) degree is a dynamic, fully accredited online 30-credit hour program designed to strengthen and equip pastors and ministry leaders to better understand, articulate, defend, and contextualize the Christian faith in a credible, compassionate, and contemporary manner.

Baptist Bible Seminary is the ideal next step for men graduating from a Bible college. The BBS curriculum is designed to take students to the next level rather than repeating undergraduate studies. Scholarship aid and advance standing make the transition to graduate study a logical step.

CAMPUS STUDENT LIFE

Student Activities and Organizations

Devotional Life. A strong devotional life is essential for growth in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, students are encouraged to spend time with the Lord in personal prayer and meditation in the Bible each day. Residence hall prayer times and small group fellowships assist in this important area for our on campus students. Each semester, the student body also unites for a day of prayer.

Chapel. Each school day, the students and faculty meet for prayer, worship, spiritual instruction, and challenge. Daily chapel services feature faculty members, pastors, missionaries, students, and other special speakers.

Church Attendance. The College firmly supports the biblical doctrine of the local church. Students are required to regularly attend one of the approved fundamental churches in the area.

Student Government. The Student Leadership Council serves the students as its governing body and is comprised of the Executive Council elected from the general student body as well as class presidents and representatives and residence hall presidents and representatives. The SLC exists to promote fellowship, scholarship, leadership, and spiritual life in the school. It also coordinates student activities, promotes a close and harmonious relationship between students and school personnel, and preserves and builds the school heritage.

Recreation and Athletics. The College participates in intercollegiate soccer, volleyball, cross country, basketball, baseball, softball, golf, and tennis. It is a member of the National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA Div. II), the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA Div. III), and the Colonial States Athletic Conference (CSAC) which provide intercollegiate competition for men and women. An active intramural program offers numerous sports. In addition, students may participate in many individual recreational activities.

Married Students' Association. This group promotes fellowship among married students by providing opportunities to share common interests and to encourage one other.

Student Missions Fellowship. The SMF is open to the entire student body and exists to promote awareness of global ministries campus wide and to give students an opportunity to be involved in furthering global ministries. It is particularly involved in the annual missions conference in the spring.

Student Fellowships

Separate fellowships have been organized for each program. These groups and their purposes follow:

Business Interest Fellowship. To promote understanding, leadership vision, and skills in students interested in business field.

Music Interest Fellowship. To promote interest, inspiration, and skills in church music.

Pastoral Interest Fellowship. To promote interest in the pastoral ministry, provide an introduction to pastoral issues, and produce a burden for the pastoral ministry.

Missions Interest Fellowship. To cultivate a greater burden for missions, further inform students about world mission fields, and provide students an opportunity to become involved in various missionary activities.

Teacher Education Fellowship. To provide practical and helpful information concerning teacher education.

Youth Interest Fellowship. To promote interest in, provide information about, and encourage involvement in ministries to youth.

Office Administration Fellowship. To promote interest in the use of office skills in a Christian environment.

Counseling Interest Fellowship. To foster an interest in Christian counseling and provide information regarding issues relevant to career counseling ministries.

Communication Ministries Fellowship. To provide a place for writers and drama students to grow in their ability to minister through their skills.

Women's Ministries Fellowship. To foster interest in women's ministries and to provide further opportunities to hear from women in the field.

Theatrical Opportunities

The Main Stage Play Productions. Each semester the Department of English and Communications produces a play. Auditions are open to all BBC students. The purpose of these productions is to expose students to a variety of dramatic literature and to provide hands-on experience with theatrical production. Past plays have included classics such as The Taming of the Shrew, The Miser, and The Crucible; serious dramas such as The Diary of Anne Frank, The Trip to Bountiful, and The Little Foxes; comedies like Lost in Yonkers, The Good Doctor, and You Can't Take it With You; and musicals such as The Secret Garden, You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown, and Little Women, the Broadway Musical.

Student Productions and Senior Projects. Communications students may choose to produce a theatrical production on campus for their senior projects.

Directing Scene Project. Students enrolled in the Directing course are required to direct a number of scenes from a variety of plays. This provides another opportunity for students interested in obtaining theatrical experience, especially in the area of acting and/or directing.

Local Theatre. Many of our Communications students volunteer their time to work backstage at local theatre companies like The Northeast Theatre Company (TNT) and the Bloomsburg Theatre Ensemble (BTE).

Music Performances

Baptist Bible College provides many opportunities for students to attend and participate in the production of significant musical events. Participants include both music majors and non-music majors. All performances are public events to which the student body, parents, and the community are invited.

Musical Ensembles. Each year, several vocal/instrumental ensembles represent the College in churches and Christian schools. These groups go on annual concert tours on behalf of the College, and they provide musical ministry for Bible and missions conferences as well as other special events on campus. All students are invited to audition for the Chamber Singers and Concert Chorale.

General Student Recitals. At least once each semester our music majors offer public performances as part of our ongoing Music Performance Seminar.

Junior/Senior Recitals. Our upperclassmen music majors present public junior/senior recitals. Students, faculty and family are all invited to these special events.

Departmental Concerts. All of our musicians join forces for seasonal concerts: The Winter Concert is in early December and our Spring Concert in late April.

Music Performance Seminar. Although music majors are expected to participate in this weekly event, attendance is open to all students interested in music. Activities include faculty lectures on musical topics, a variety of performances by its members, and guest appearances by regional professionals and alumni.

Student Services

Alumni Services. The Alumni Department desires to assist our alumni with finding a place of ministry. Alumni from the College and Seminary may receive help with cover letter and resume design as well as lifetime storage of those documents through the College website. The website also has search features for both alumni and employers. One-on-one conferences are encouraged to assist with individual needs, answer questions, and provide information and counsel.

Campus Security. Carefully selected students serve as campus security and are responsible for security, traffic, safety, and other assigned tasks. They receive training from qualified BBC security officers.

Career Services Office. Students who desire counsel in the areas of program or career guidance or who wish to take tests in the areas of their abilities and career interests may do so through the Career Services Office. Additional services include cover letter review and design, resume review and design, personal marketing website (to host their resume and cover letter), career counseling with online testing, and mock interviews.

Counseling and Guidance. A close relationship exists between students and faculty at Baptist Bible College. Students are encouraged to talk with faculty members about matters of concern. Although all school personnel are interested in helping the students, the Office for Student Development (OSD) offers professional counseling and guidance services.

Dining. The cafeteria-style dining area has the capacity to serve the entire student body.

Disability Services. Baptist Bible College welcomes the opportunity to serve disabled students. We will make reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities in compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. The purpose of accommodations is to provide equal access to educational opportunities to students with disabilities. Academic standards are not lowered, nor are essential elements of programs changed.

Students requesting accommodations on the basis of disabilities must complete a Request for Accommodations Form available online and provide documentation of the disability. After that is completed, the student should make an appointment to speak to the Supervisor of Learning Support Services. Accommodations may include such support as special housing accommodations, extended test-taking time, use of test readers, testing in a room where the student will have minimal distractions, testing with enlarged fonts, preferred seating in the classroom, and permission to record courses.

Employment. Baptist Bible College is located in the greater Scranton/Wilkes Barre area that has a population of over 500,000. This industrial and commercial area offers many job opportunities for students living in the area. The College also employs a number of students.

Health Services. A registered nurse is available Monday through Friday for any sickness that may occur. A doctor is available on campus for bi-weekly appointments, and students must pay a nominal fee for this service. The Health Services Office also furnishes ordinary medicines and first-aid supplies.

Housing. Residence halls on campus provide comfortable living accommodations for students. All single students, less than 25 years of age, taking classes on campus are required to live in the College dormitories if space is available. Should the dormitories be filled, the Office for Student Development will help the student find a place to live in the area. The College also assists married couples in locating suitable apartments or homes. There is limited housing available on campus for married couples.

Insurance. A group insurance plan is available to all students. This insurance costs less than similar coverage through an individual plan. This policy covers the student for the entire year, including summer. Information on student insurance may be obtained from the Business Office.

Orientation. This program acquaints new students with the purpose and services of Baptist Bible College. A trained residence hall staff is also available, providing encouragement and guidance in forming a personal Christian philosophy of life. The Office for Student Development helps students find employment, housing, and medical services.

ADMISSION

STANDARDS FOR ADMISSION—UNDERGRADUATE

Christian Character. Evidence of personal faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and of submission to the will of God is essential. By submitting an application, the prospective student expresses willingness to follow school regulations.

Academic Preparation. Completion of high school or equivalency is required. High school graduates must send transcripts of all completed high school courses. Applicants who are not high school graduates may secure a high school equivalency diploma (GED) from the state in which they live. Official transcripts of any completed high school courses and the GED test results must be sent to BBC. A minimum of a 2.0 high school GPA is required for admission.

Pre-admission Tests. All applicants are required to take either the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT—minimum combined critical reading and math score of 850 is required) or the American College Test (ACT—minimum composite score of 17 is required). Arrangements to take these tests should be made through the high school guidance office or online at www.collegeboard.com (SAT) or www.act.org (ACT). Please request that your scores be sent to the Admissions Office using the following codes for Baptist Bible College: the SAT code is 2036; the ACT code is 3523.

Application Procedures

All persons who desire to register at Baptist Bible College must submit an application for admission.

Application Options

Complete an online application and pay the $40 non-refundable online application fee by credit card.

Complete a paper copy of the application and mail it to the Admissions Office together with a $40 non-refundable application fee (fee waivers are not accepted). (Checks made payable to Baptist Bible College).

When using the paper form, it is the responsibility of the applicant to print his/her name and any other requested information on the top of each reference. It is the applicant's option to sign the waiver on each of these references, waiving the right to examine these forms, thus making the comments contained therein confidential. It is to be understood that the waiver is not required as a condition for admission. Distribute these references and ask the persons completing them to return them to the College within one week. All applicants must arrange to have high school transcripts sent to the College. In addition to the high school transcripts, transfer students should have official transcripts of all previous college course work sent to the Admissions Office.

Transfer students from Christian colleges must obtain a Transfer Student Reference form to be completed by a college representative who knows the applicant well.

All reference forms may be found by visiting: www.bbc.edu/college/future_students/apply_now.asp

When the application file is complete, the Admissions Committee will review it, and the applicant will be notified of the decision. A personal interview may be required at the discretion of the Admissions Committee.

If a student applied for admission to Baptist Bible College in the past three years and the student did not enroll, a reactivation application must be submitted. The Admissions Committee will require a pastor's reference and a $40 non-refundable fee.

Submit a $250 deposit by May 1 for fall enrollment and by December 15 for spring enrollment. Deposits are refundable until May 1 or December 15. All refund requests must be made in writing and postmarked no later than May 1 or December 15.

Applications and reference forms are available online at www.bbc.edu/college.

Placement Test

All incoming education students must complete the online Mathematics Placement Test prior to arriving on campus for their first semester. The results of the placement test will determine which mathematics courses are appropriate for you. Students who switch into an education major after being in a different program will need to take the placement test before registering for a mathematics course.

Readmission

If a student leaves BBC for any reason and desires to return, the student must apply for readmission*, completing the following steps:

- Complete readmit application.
- Furnish official transcript(s) of all post-secondary courses taken since leaving BBC.
- The Admission Committee will review the application and the applicant will be notified of the decision.
- Submit a $250 deposit by August 1 for enrollment in the fall semester and by December 15 for enrollment in the spring semester.

 Student spouses, faculty spouses, and staff members should contact the Admissions Office for readmission instructions. At the discretion of the Admissions Committee, a personal interview may also be required. The Admissions Committee will review the readmit request and notify the student if they have been permitted to return.*

Students who arrive at registration expecting to be readmitted without fulfilling these requirements should expect to wait until after registration to have their applications considered. The College cannot guarantee acceptance in such cases.

Students readmitted to one of the College programs will normally be subject to current requirements for that course of study.

Divorce Policy

Individuals who have been divorced or are married to a divorced person should request a copy of the divorce policy from the Admissions Office.

Music Students

Please note that acceptance into Baptist Bible College does not constitute acceptance into any of the degree programs offered by the Department of Music. Successful completion of the audition process, in addition to acceptance by the College, is needed for admission to music programs.

Auditions

An essential step in beginning a major or minor program in music is the audition. Its purpose is to evaluate your background and determine your potential as a music student. Designed as an introduction to what you will actually be doing as a member of the musical community at Baptist Bible College, the audition provides the following opportunities:

Performance. Your singing or playing will allow the faculty to get a better understanding of where to begin your work as a college student.

Interview. Conversation with the faculty will help us discover important aspects of your preparation that will give insight to your readiness for music theory and your placement in a performing ensemble.

Questions and Answers. We value communication with our students and believe the audition is a perfect time to begin a conversation that will continue through your years at the College. Please feel free to engage us on all topics dealing with your educational career in music.

Eligibility

Students wishing to audition must first have completed all of the following:

- Completion of junior year of high school
- Submission of admissions application to Baptist Bible College
- Declaration of music as major or minor field of study

Audition Requirements

Church Music, Music Ministries, Music Education, Worship Pastor, and Music Minor applicants will:

- Perform two contrasting works from the standard repertoire in their fields of study (voice, piano, or instrumental). Voice and piano applicants must perform one of these by memory (vocalists and instrumentalists). An accompanist will be provided for your audition. Please send copies of your music along with your audition application and information form.
- Demonstrate sight-reading ability.
- Demonstrate aural skills (tonal memory, pitch accuracy, and vocal sight-reading).
- Perform major and minor scales in forms appropriate to your instrument or voice.
- Composition applicants must, in addition to the expectations described above, enter the program in one of two ways:
- Students who have already been actively composing should submit examples of their work at the audition.
- Beginners accepted into the program will be expected to demonstrate (after their second semester of study) aptitude for composition, as well as a grasp of functional theory that includes keyboard improvisational skills.

Audition Dates

Although you could audition as late as your arrival on campus to begin your first semester of study, we highly recommend early auditions for all applicants.

See the Music Department website for audition dates and Application and Information Form.

Transfer Students

Baptist Bible College believes that learning, wherever it occurs, should be recognized and integrated into a student's degree program when that learning is found to be equivalent to that offered by post-secondary educational institutions and determined to be applicable for meeting degree and program requirements at BBC.

Applicants who have completed courses at an accredited college or university may receive transfer credit for courses which apply to one of the College programs and which reflect a grade of “C–” or above. Credits from non-accredited schools must be validated. Baptist Bible College gives credit for suitable scores in Advanced Placement (AP) exams, International Baccalaureate (IB) courses, College Level Examination Program (CLEP) exams, and Defense Activity for Non-Traditional Education Support (DANTES) exams. These scores must be provided to the Registrar’s Office prior to the student’s last semester before graduation. Contact the Registrar’s Office for further information.

Applicants who have earned 30 hours or more at an accredited college or university and have maintained at least a 2.5 GPA are not required to take the SAT or ACT. Each transfer student must have official academic transcripts of all previous college courses sent to the Admissions Office before a decision will be made on the student’s application. A minimum of a 2.0 cumulative college GPA is required. To qualify for graduation, students must complete at least 30 semester-hour credits at Baptist Bible College.

Home School Students

BBC is interested in and welcomes home school students. All home school applicants should send their high school transcripts to the College. Questions regarding admission policies and procedures should be sent to the Director of Enrollment.

New Student Orientation

New residential and commuter students are expected to be present for orientation.

STANDARDS FOR ADMISSION—GRADUATE

Application Process

Complete an online application and pay the $40 non-refundable application fee by credit card.

Secure an application packet from the Director of Graduate and Online Enrollment; Baptist Bible College; 538 Venard Road; Clarks Summit, PA 18411. Phone 800.451.7664. E-mail: gradadmissions@bbc.edu. Students can also apply online at www.bbc.edu/graduate.

Fill out the application form completely, attach required materials, and enclose a non-refundable application fee of $40.

Upon receipt of these materials, the Admissions Office will process your application, notify you of your admission status, and send further information.

Readmission Policy and Procedures

If a student does not take classes for at least three years and has a desire to return, the student must apply for readmission, completing the following steps:

- Write a letter to the Director of Graduate and Online Enrollment for Baptist Bible College as early as possible indicating a desire for readmission. Include in this letter a) a summary of activities since leaving the institution, including employment; b) reasons for wanting to return; c) change, if any, in marital status; d) academic and career goals; and e) any other information which may assist the Admissions Office in making a decision for re-admittance.
- Furnish official transcript(s) of all post-secondary courses taken since leaving Baptist Bible College.

- Request and submit a current pastoral reference form from the applicant's pastor.

General Requirements

For admission to a master's degree program, the applicant should hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution. Applicants who possess bachelor's degrees from non-accredited institutions may enroll at Baptist Bible College if their degrees are validated by the Registrar. All application materials must be received by the Director of Graduate and Online Enrollment before a candidate can be admitted to the program. Admissions requirements are listed for each program in the respective sections of the catalog.

Evaluation of undergraduate transcripts is part of the application process. If a student has a deficiency, the program director will coordinate an individual plan of study. An applicant whose undergraduate grade point average (GPA) is below 3.0 may be required to take the Graduate Record Exam (GRE) or may request in writing a waiver of the GRE requirement. Requests for a waiver are to be addressed to the program director and will be granted or denied by the same office. Please ask for details.

Admission Levels

Applicants will be placed in one of the following classifications:

Fully Matriculated

This status is for college graduates who have submitted all required admissions materials and have been accepted by the Graduate Studies Committee. Applicants must provide personal and professional references acceptable to the Committee. Students accepted as fully matriculated must have an undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or higher. Students may substitute the GPA requirement with one of the following:

- A GRE (verbal, quantitative, or analytical) or GRE subject test (Psychology) score in the 70th percentile or higher.
- An undergraduate GPA of 2.75 with a GRE (verbal, quantitative, or analytical) or GRE subject test (Psychology) in the 60th percentile or higher.

Matriculated, Provisional

The College may accept graduate students with the provision that they fulfill certain foundational requirements in order to qualify for degree candidacy. Provisional students must demonstrate competency in the specified areas by the time they complete 16 graduate credits. The fulfillment of these competencies may not be applied toward the graduate credits required for degree completion.

Provisional students receive academic advisement relative to course scheduling. Students will be advised on a case-by-case basis and allowed to take only graduate courses for which they have adequate foundational preparation. When all foundational competencies are met satisfactorily, the provisional student status will be changed to Fully Matriculated.

Matriculated, Probationary

In some cases, a student who does not meet the standard GPA/GRE graduate requirements may be admitted with the understanding that the individual's matriculation status will be reviewed regularly. Specifically, once a probationary student shows a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 during completion of the first eight graduate credits, the status may change from Probationary to Fully Matriculated.

Probationary students who do not achieve at least a 3.0 GPA during their first eight graduate credits have the option of repeating courses in an effort to raise their GPA to the 3.0 standard. Failure to do so will result in dismissal from the graduate program.

The student, may reapply for admission back into their program after one year, and if accepted, must retake courses in an effort to raise their GPA to 3.0. At that time the student will reenter under academic probation.

Matriculated, Probationary students not able to achieve a 3.0 cumulative GPA at the end of two semesters will be dismissed.

Non-Matriculated, Continuing Education

College graduates wishing to enhance their breadth of knowledge in one of the graduate programs may take up to nine graduate credits following submission of a continuing education application. After completion of nine credits, they must apply for matriculation into a degree program if they desire further training (i.e., such students will not be allowed to enroll in additional courses for credit unless they have entered one of the graduate degree programs). Enrichment students desiring to matriculate must follow the normal application process. Acceptance into a graduate program from enrichment student status is not automatic. If accepted, such students may then apply the graduate credits already earned toward the master's degree.

Non-Matriculated, Undergraduate Juniors and Seniors

Undergraduate juniors and seniors may not be fully matriculated into a master's program until they receive a conferred baccalaureate degree. Selected students who apply and meet established criteria may be allowed to enroll in graduate courses.

Approved students may complete up to nine hours of graduate credits. Approval to take graduate credits does not automatically insure eventual matriculation into a master's degree program. Upon conferral of a baccalaureate degree, students follow the normal application process. If accepted, students may then apply the graduate credits earned toward their master's degree.

Academic Prerequisites for Admission

Students entering the counseling or education graduate programs are required to have prerequisite competencies in the fields of Bible and theology, as well as appropriate competencies in counseling or education. Before candidacy status can be granted, students lacking any prerequisites must develop, with their advisor, a program by which they will fulfill these requirements during their program.

Bible/Theology Prerequisites

- An undergraduate Bible/theology major or its equivalent, or
- Bible/theology competency, including knowledge of bibliology, hermeneutics, anthropology, soteriology, ecclesiology, separation, eschatology, theological systems, and general Bible content.
- Theology deficiencies can be satisfied by completing TH517 Survey of Doctrines.

Counseling prerequisites

Those students considered to already have a strong foundation in doctrinal issues may complete TH511 How to Develop a Biblical Worldview.

Education prerequisite for M.Ed.

ED560 Principles and Methods of Teaching and Learning.

GENERAL INFORMATION

International Students

This school is authorized under federal law to enroll non-immigrant alien students. Inquiries concerning admission policies and procedures should be sent to the Director of Enrollment. At least six months should be allowed to process international student applications.

Veterans and War Orphans

The College is an approved institution for veterans and war orphans. Applicants who qualify for these benefits should contact their local Veterans Administration Office to apply for Certificates of Eligibility. This certificate must be presented to the Office of Student Financial Services at registration.

Non-Discriminatory Policy

Baptist Bible College of Pennsylvania admits students of any race, color, or national and ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally made available to students. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin, or handicap in the administration of its educational policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school-sponsored programs.

Baptist Bible College does not discriminate on the basis of handicap in the recruitment and admission of students, the recruitment and employment of faculty and staff, and the operation of any of its programs and activities, as specified by federal laws and regulations. The designated coordinator for College compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 is the Vice President for Business and Finance.

Incentive Policy

Baptist Bible College & Seminary does not allow its employees to accept any inducements (e.g. gratuities, favors, discounts, entertainment, hospitality, loans, transportation, lodging, meals or any other items having a monetary value of more than a de minimus amount) for the purpose of enrolling any student or any group of students. The employees (admissions, recruiters, financial aid, etc.) of BBC do not utilize any high pressure recruitment tactics as a means to enroll its students. There are no institutional recruiters, admission counselors, financial aid personnel or anyone in any position who receives any commission, bonus, or other incentive payment for securing student enrollments or securing financial aid (e.g. federal, state, institutional, local, military, etc.) of any kind.

ACADEMICS

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Degrees are awarded in May, August, and December and are awarded at the next graduation date after all degree requirements are met. The commencement ceremony is held in May. Candidates for graduation from the residential degree and certificate programs are expected to participate in the commencement ceremony rehearsal and in all commencement weekend activities at which caps and gowns are worn.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS

To be eligible for a degree, the student must have:

- Completed a minimum of 30 semester-hour credits at Baptist Bible College.
- Earned a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0. Education programs require a higher GPA. The Education Handbook should be consulted for specific details by those accepted into the education programs.
- Completed the number of Ministry Development units required by the student's program.
- Completed all the requirements of the student's program (see Curriculum Information).
- Paid the graduation fee.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATE PROGRAMS

To be eligible for a degree, the student must have:

- Completed a minimum of 2/3 of required classes at Baptist Bible College.
- Earned a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0.
- Completed all the requirements of the student's program (see Curriculum Information).
- Paid the graduation fee.

Because character is fundamental to Christian living as well as effective biblical ministry, Baptist Bible College stresses the central importance of reflecting the character of Christ in our lives and professional practice. While we are called to act redemptively toward those who fall, it is also true that actions have consequences. Therefore, moral or ethical misconduct is considered a serious violation of the BBC&S Standards of Conduct and may be grounds for dismissal at any point prior to graduation.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENT FOR BACCALAUREATE DEGREE

Before graduation, each student will be asked to state agreement with the published doctrinal statement of the College or to submit a statement on the area(s) of disagreement. Directions for preparing this statement can be obtained from the Dean of the School of Bible and Theology.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENT FOR ASSOCIATE OF ARTS DEGREE

Veterans and members of the military are only required to complete 15 credits at BBC for the Associate of Arts degree programs.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR MASTER OF EDUCATION DEGREE

- Successful completion of ED591 Capstone Project.
- Special Requirements for Master of Science in Counseling Degree
- Admission to degree candidacy status.

- A passing score on the written and oral comprehensive final exams.
- Successful completion of the supervised practicum and internship courses with a grade of “B” or higher in each course.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENT FOR ADDITIONAL DEGREES

At least 30 additional semester-hour credits must be taken for each additional degree received.

GRADUATION HONORS

Graduation honors announced at commencement are based upon a student’s cumulative grade point average at the beginning of the last semester before graduation. The final transcript and diploma will reflect honors standing based upon completion of all academic studies.

The following standards apply:

Undergraduate

3.4	With Honor
3.6	With High Honor
3.8	With Highest Honor

Graduate

3.5	Cum Laude
3.8	Magna Cum Laude
4.0	Summa Cum Laude

CREDIT HOUR DEFINITION

At Baptist Bible College, academic credit is measured in semester hours. A semester hour represents the equivalent of at least one class period of 50 minutes per week for 14 weeks not including final exams. It is expected that students will spend approximately two hours outside of class for each hour in class or its equivalent.

GRADE POINT AVERAGE

Grade point average (GPA) is a numerical measure of all grades. It is calculated by dividing the total number of grade points earned by the total number of credit hours attempted (excluding courses marked AU, I, NG, P, S, U, W or WP). The student’s GPA is based only upon courses taken at BBC&S.

REPEATED COURSES

When both the original and the repeated course are taken at BBC, the most recent grade replaces the previous grade in calculating the GPA. The student’s grade point average is then adjusted to reflect the last grade. Financial aid will only be disbursed one time for retaking previously passed coursework.

CLASSIFICATION

Each undergraduate student will be associated with one of the organized classes and normally will remain with that class throughout the school year. At registration, each student is assigned to one of the four organized classes. This classification is based upon the total number of credits earned (including physical education) as described in the following scale:

Classification	Credit Hours
Freshman	0–26
Sophomore	27–56

Junior (Baccalaureate degrees) 57–86

Senior (Baccalaureate degrees) 87 or more

All students are also classified as full-time or part-time, depending on the number of semester hours for which they are enrolled. The part-time student is one who is enrolled for less than 12 semester hours. The full-time student is one enrolled for 12 or more semester hours. To receive veterans' benefits, a student must be enrolled for 12 or more semester hours of credit. Classification of students is determined at beginning of each term.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF STUDENT RECORDS

Student records are maintained in compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. The information contained in the student's permanent educational record will be made available to the student but not to others without the student's written permission. Specific details are available in the Registrar's Office.

TRANSCRIPTS

Student transcripts are released only by written request of the student. No transcript will be released unless the student has paid all financial obligations to the College. Unofficial transcripts will be sent to the student, whereas all official transcripts will be sent only to agencies and institutions designated by the student. Unofficial transcripts are available to students in the student portal.

GAINFUL EMPLOYMENT

The U.S. Department of Education has issued the final rules and regulations on "gainful employment." These provisions are applicable to all schools that offer any non-degree programs of study. All non-degree programs regardless of school type or educational level are currently subject to gainful employment requirements. Only degree (associate, bachelor, graduate and/or professional) programs and two year transfer programs are not subject to gainful employment requirements.

Baptist Bible College & Seminary does not have any programs of study that fall under the regulatory requirements of Gainful Employment Programs as determined by the U.S. Department of Education.

RICHARD J. MURPHY MEMORIAL LIBRARY

Richard J. Murphy Memorial Library (www.bbc.edu/library/)

Located on the first and second floors of Jackson Hall, the library provides students, staff, and faculty with materials for their intellectual, cultural, and spiritual development. Library services are available for over 80 hours each week during the academic year. Many of the library's resources are available through the library's website 24 hours a day to both on-campus and off-campus users. Library staff members provide instruction in research methods and resource use through collaboration with faculty in classroom settings and informal conversation with students.

Library collections reflect the quality of many years of planned growth and development in support of the institution's educational objectives. The library specializes in the areas of biblical studies, theology, and Christian ministries, and maintains robust collections in history, education, literature, music, and counseling. Careful attention is given to providing a diversity of viewpoints in keeping with library's purpose as an information center. Currently the printed resources total over 90,000 volumes. The library maintains a growing collection of e-books that currently numbers over 10,000 titles. Agreements with regional library consortia expand the resources available to students, staff, and faculty

The library offers a wide range of periodicals and scholarly journals in print and online format. Nearly three hundred print subscriptions are available, and over 25,000 full-text titles are accessible through the library's website. The library's curriculum area houses teaching materials for elementary and secondary education in public and Christian schools. The library provides a wide array of current multimedia tools and computer workstations. Attractive spaces for collaborative and individual study are available throughout the library.

ACADEMIC STANDARDS—UNDERGRADUATE

Academic Load

The normal student load is 14–18 class hours per week. About two hours of study time should be allowed for each hour of class. Approval of student loads over 18 hours may be granted to students who have demonstrated superior ability. The College may limit the load of students with excessive employment or low grades.

Grading System

Point values are assigned to each grade to determine a student's grade point average. The following scale is used:

A	95-100	4.00	grade points per credit hour
A-	92.5-94.9	3.66	grade points per credit hour
B+	90.0-92.4	3.33	grade points per credit hour
B	87.5-89.9	3.00	grade points per credit hour
B-	85.0-87.4	2.66	grade points per credit hour
C+	82.5-84.9	2.33	grade points per credit hour
C	80.0-82.4	2.00	grade points per credit hour
C-	77.5-79.9	1.66	grade points per credit hour
D+	75.0-77.4	1.33	grade points per credit hour
D	72.5-74.9	1.00	grade point per credit hour
D-	70.0-72.4	.66	grade points per credit hour
F	0-70	.00	grade points per credit hour

Other course grades include:

AU	Audit or a course not taken for credit
I	Incomplete
NG	No grade submitted by the instructor
S	Satisfactory completion
U	Unsatisfactory performance
WP	Withdrawn Passing indicates that a student withdrew from a course and the student's performance was satisfactory at the time of withdrawal.
WF	Withdrawn Failing indicates that a student withdrew from a course and the student's performance was unsatisfactory at the time of withdrawal.

Class Attendance

Regular and prompt attendance at all class sessions is expected. Detailed expectations on attendance, absence, and tardiness are published in the Student Handbook.

Academic Honors

Semester Honors. Each semester, the Dean's List names full-time students whose semester grade point average is 3.75 or higher; the Merit List honors full-time students whose average is 3.50–3.74.

Alpha Gamma Epsilon. Members of this local honor society are chosen according to the following standards: 1) completion of 57 semester hours (junior status) at Baptist Bible College with a total grade point average of 3.4 or higher; 2) sympathy toward and support of Baptist Bible College standards and ideals; 3) faculty approval. Membership certificates are presented following selection to this honor.

Delta Epsilon Chi. Baptist Bible College participates in the honor society program of the Association for Biblical Higher Education. To be eligible for election by the faculty, a student must have earned a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.3 by the beginning of the student's final semester. In addition, eligibility will depend upon Christian character and leadership ability. Certificates of membership are presented during the spring semester.

Academic Deficiencies

Students whose total grade point average falls below 2.5 are subject to restrictions. Details of academic restriction, probation, and dismissal are given in the Student Handbook.

Ministry Development

The Ministry Development program is integrated with the academic program to provide a laboratory for students to test concepts, explore their giftedness, and generate questions to fuel the academic process. Practical ministry experience facilitates development of both spiritual maturity and skills for vocational ministry. Discipleship is provided through ministry coaches. Ministry Development personnel are available to counsel and to help students secure opportunities.

The Ministry Development program is designed to move students to new levels of leadership in preparation for future ministry. Seven units of ministry are required in four-year programs.

Many students become involved in local church ministries such as AWANA, youth work, teaching and facilitating groups, children's church, outreach, music, and preaching. Other organizations offer opportunities for ministry including county jails, nursing homes, hospitals, youth organizations, and schools. Traveling music ensembles minister in local churches. During the summer, opportunities include missionary and pastoral apprenticeships, camp work, and numerous local church ministries.

ACADEMIC STANDARDS—GRADUATE

Grading System

Academic credit is measured in semester hours. The grading system for graduate courses with accompanying grade points is as follows:

A	4.0	95–100
A–	3.75	92–94
B+	3.5	90–91
B	3.0	87–89
B–	2.75	85–86
C+	2.5	82–84
C	2.0	79–81

C-	1.75	77-78
D+	1.50	75-76
D	1.00	72-74
D-	.75	70-71
F	0	under 70
AU	Class audited, course not taken for credit and not included in GPA
I	Incomplete
P	Pass
NG	No grade submitted by the instructor
W	Withdrawal during first one-third of a course, not computed in grade point average
WP	Withdrawal after one-third of a course is completed with passing grades, not computed in GPA
WF	Withdrawal after one-third of a course is completed with failing grades, is computed in GPA

Transfer Credit

Up to one-third of a student's program may be accepted as normal transfer credit from other graduate schools providing the course work is relevant to the student's program and equivalent to BBC courses. Only courses that have received a grade of "B" or better will be considered for transfer credit. Those desiring consideration should make application to the Graduate Studies program director. Graduate-level courses taken while an undergraduate student may be eligible for transfer to the graduate program. Please check with the Program Director for further information.

Academic Deficiencies

At the end of each term, Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) will be evaluated for all students. Students falling below a 3.0 cumulative GPA at the end of a term will be placed on academic probation. A student on academic probation may continue to take courses in an effort to raise their GPA to a minimum of a 3.0 but will be restricted to one three credit course per session for online students or six credits per semester for on-campus students. This restriction will be lifted upon removal from probation.

Students unable to achieve a cumulative GPA of 3.0 after one year on probation will be dismissed. After one year of dismissal, the student may apply for reentry into the program, and if accepted, must retake courses in an effort to raise their GPA to a 3.0. The student has one year to raise their GPA. If unsuccessful, the student will be dismissed and not allowed to return.

Student Appeals Process

Academic decisions are intended to be final and binding. All students, however, have the privilege of making appeals and addressing grievances related to the admissions process, retention, candidacy, comprehensive examination, and graduation. Students with such concerns should first appeal to their Program Director. The next level of appeal is the Dean of their school. If matters are not resolved to the student's satisfaction, then both the student and the Dean should document their issues in writing and submit the matter to the Vice President and Provost. The Vice President and Provost will be considered the final step in the process.

Course End Dates

A course end date is the date by which all work must be submitted. These end dates are as follows:

Master of Arts

Online courses: Last day of the online course.

Master of Education

Online courses: Last day of the online course.

Summer modules

Four weeks after the last day of the module.

Master of Science in Counseling

On-campus and online classes: Last day of class or by the date specified in the syllabus.

DVD courses: 16 weeks after the DVDs are sent out.

Weekend seminars: Six weeks after the seminar.

Course Extension Policy

Baptist Bible College understands that unexpected, extenuating circumstances may keep students from completing a course during the normal enrollment period. Because of this, students are offered the ability to apply for a course extension.

Below are included some frequently asked questions, policy details, and general information to make it easy to determine whether a course extension is appropriate and to simplify the application process.

Who can apply for a course extension?

Course extensions are available to all students who are currently enrolled in a graduate class at BBC. To apply, simply fill out the form and submit it to the course professor.

What is a valid reason to file for a course extension?

There are three valid reasons that a student may request a course extension:

1) Illness, 2) Extenuating personal circumstances, 3) Military deployment.

What is the deadline for requesting a course extension?

A request for a course extension must be received prior to Wednesday of the last week of the enrolled session.

How long is the extension?

A course extension will permit the student an additional two-week period from the closing date of the enrolled course. At this time, all class requirements must be submitted so an appropriate final grade can be given.

How many extensions am I able to apply for?

One extension will be granted per course. If course work is not successfully completed by the end of the extension period, the grade will reflect the assigned work accomplished at the end of the extension. In extreme circumstances, program directors may grant an additional extension at their discretion. A new request must be submitted directly to the Program Director in this case.

What grade will I be given at the end of the course?

A grade will be assigned at the end of the course that reflects the work accomplished to that date. If a course extension is granted, the professor will submit a grade change at the end of the two weeks that reflects the additional work accomplished during the course extension.

ACADEMIC CURRICULUM

ACADEMIC PHILOSOPHY

Baptist Bible College & Seminary pursues excellence in biblical higher education for effectiveness in global Christian leadership. This vision guides the academic philosophy of the college and its graduate programs.

DEVELOPMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

Baptist Bible College has always been committed to biblical higher education. Over the course of time, the way in which biblical higher education is offered has grown and improved. Each undergraduate student pursuing a bachelor's degree has a Bible major, taking at least 30 credits of Bible and theology. This provides the foundation for all other studies offered.

At the founding of the college in 1932, most classes were in Bible, theology, and ministry skills. Students enrolled because they desired to serve God's church in some way. Some sought vocational ministry, others simply desired a deeper understanding of the Word of God. In those early days, the educational program was modeled after a Bible institute. Students took very few general studies courses.

As the school prepared to offer degrees, general studies courses were added. This addition created an unusually strong foundation for service to Christ. General studies courses, typically composed of arts and sciences, teach students how to think with breadth and insight, and how to express themselves clearly. The combination of general studies, Bible, and theology allowed the students to understand truth and ethics, and also communicate these well. Graduates have filled positions in an astounding array of fields. The capacity to think biblically and express themselves cogently provides skills that are transferrable to nearly any discipline.

As the years went by, additional academic programs were offered, each built on the Bible major. These new program offerings amounted to a second major. Graduates have the equivalent of a double major in Bible and another field of study.

In 2012, the college was granted permission to offer an array of bachelor's degrees corresponding to the various programs. All students still receive a major in Bible.

The curriculum is offered through four schools: Arts and Sciences, Bible and Theology, Global Ministries, and Education.

IMPLICATIONS OF THE PHILOSOPHY

The academic philosophy and the curriculum that stems from it are rooted in a belief that college education must do more than supply information for students. Students must also develop in conviction, commitment, character, competency, and capacity.

BBC graduates are marked by strong convictions because of their Bible major. Effective leadership is based in the Word of God, which produces a faith that has the doctrinal support for all of life and service. The curriculum produces leaders that have confidence in the capability of God's Word to meet needs in every situation.

The BBC academic philosophy leads students to a commitment to live as authentic followers of Jesus Christ. Their thoughts and actions are rooted in the Scripture, not human traditions. They are committed to the local church, to its work and His people, and focused on fulfilling the Great Commission wherever God leads them.

Conviction and commitment produce leaders who are Christ-like in their character. As students seek to become like Christ, they grow into persons of honesty, credibility, wisdom, integrity, and maturity, capable of building constructive relationships based on the love of Christ.

The curriculum also shapes effective leaders by training them in competencies specific to their disciplines. BBC classes are designed in such a way that students not only increase in knowledge, but increase in capacity. They become life-long learners, and, in the process, continually discern how God has designed them to serve Christ effectively.

The BBC curricular philosophy results in the holistic development of each student. Strength of intellect and depth of capacity mark graduates whom God can use greatly.

EXTENDING THE PHILOSOPHY INTO GRADUATE EDUCATION

In the late 1980s, BBC created two graduate programs in education and counseling to augment the undergraduate programs. These programs are also based on biblical knowledge. Graduate students take a narrower educational focus but still gain new capacities in truth and ethics. Development of higher-level communications skills is a central component of the learning process.

Students must have undergraduate credits in general biblical and theological knowledge, and they must also know how to study the Word of God. If a student lacks this base, additional classes are required to attain the master's degrees. Biblical truth is a necessary foundation to graduate education at BBC. The Master of Arts, added in 2006, follows the same pattern.

ACADEMIC GOALS

UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS

Upon successful completion of a bachelor's degree, graduates will:

- Have a general knowledge of biblical content and concepts.
- Have developed skills in critical thinking, value judgment, and understanding of primary and secondary sources.
- Have a desire to study the Bible inductively, competently using Bible study tools in a manner consistent with the historical, grammatical, and literal principles of interpretation.
- Gain an understanding of selected knowledge in the areas of humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences based on a Christian worldview.
- Have a general knowledge, comprehension, and application of theology from exegesis and the study of biblical text.
- Understand biblical principles for thoughtful and responsible living in the family, local church, Christian community, and society.
- Appreciate a Christian view of man, society, and culture as the graduate interacts with life and society.

- Articulate a biblical rationale for evangelization of the lost; edification of the believer; pre-tribulational, pre-millennial eschatology; and personal and ecclesiastical separation, and a Baptist position.
- Express proper care for the physical body.

GRADUATE PROGRAMS

The Baptist Bible College graduate programs exist for the primary purpose of preparing men and women to be godly servant leaders. By using the Scriptures as the foundation and basis for all instruction, the programs seek to produce graduates who are able to serve effectively in a variety of personal and professional ministries.

Upon successful completion of a Master's degree, graduates will have:

- Gained a fuller knowledge of the Bible, the Christian faith, self and other people, and the world around them.
- Deepened their love for and commitment to the authority of the Word of God, dedication to Jesus Christ as Lord, and sense of personal responsibility toward the Great Commission.
- Improved skills in informational literacy, research, and critical thinking to integrate learning and experience in a biblical worldview.
- Developed knowledge and skills needed for various personal and professional ministries.

- Present the content and arrangement of theology as set forth in the Bible.
- Understand how the content of other disciplines is harmonized with theology.

SCHOOL OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

The School of Global Ministries of Baptist Bible College exists to assist churches in the preparation of qualified, committed, thoughtful, spiritual leaders for church and church-related ministries worldwide. This is done in an academic environment in which the school is responsible to help students build the necessary skills to apply and communicate the truth they are learning in Bible and Theology courses in a manner that effectively ministers to the world about which they are learning in their studies in Arts and Sciences.

Ministry Foundations Core Curriculum

Students in all undergraduate programs are exposed to foundational ministry principles, practices, and skills related to the mission and the function of the church. The goal is to help students become effective as members of the Body of Christ, strong contributors within a local assembly of believers, and committed to carrying the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the world. This emphasis is designed to form a foundation upon which to build effective ministry in whatever discipline the student pursues.

Global Ministry Goals

As students take classes in the School of Global Ministries they will:

- Comprehend and value the design and intended role of the church in their lives and ministries. (The Church's Ministry)
- Understand and compare the basic foundations of major religious movements in the world and articulate the Gospel of Jesus Christ in a manner that is clear and understandable to people from any of those religious movements. (World Evangelism)

Ministry Leadership Programs

BBC offers a variety of programs designed to prepare students for career ministry leadership roles both in church-based ministry and in para-church organizations. Each of these programs is built upon the foundation of a set of goals that are essential to any ministry leadership role. Each program then focuses on the skills and competencies essential to a particular ministry role. The skills addressed in all of these programs are highly transferable to a range of career applications other than the particular focus of the program.

Ministry Leadership Core Curriculum

Ministry leadership can be carried out in many ways with many specializations, out of many gift sets, abilities, and approaches. However, common to all who would be ministry leaders are required certain foundational non-negotiable characteristics. All of the Ministry Leadership programs are built around a core set of goals aimed at helping students acquire those characteristics.

Ministry Leadership Goals

As students take classes in the Ministry Leadership programs they will:

- Comprehend and value the basic character demands essential to qualification for ministry leadership. (Personal Life of the Ministry Leader)
- Articulate a clear understanding of the biblical imperative and dynamics involved in helping people engage in aggressive spiritual growth. (Dynamics of Discipleship)
- Understand and apply distinctive characteristics and skills demanded of leadership from a thoroughly biblical perspective. (Foundations of Ministry Leadership)

- Articulate biblical principles from which they can build families which meet biblical expectations. (Family Life of the Ministry Leader)
- Communicate the Scriptures in a clear, accurate, and relevant manner. (Expository Preaching, Effective Bible Teaching, Ministry Communication for Women)

Department of Camping Ministries

This department endeavors to prepare men and women who are passionate about making disciples and who are empowered to serve with excellence in camping and impact ministry venues.

Department of Chaplaincy Ministries

This department prepares qualified believers to be military pastors and assistants who will reach out to a population of servicemen and women and their families. This is a missions ministry in that the people served are characterized as multicultural, multiethnic, and pluralistic in their religious beliefs and serve in countries throughout the world.

Department of Church Educational Ministries

This department trains men and women to teach in the local church. Students are helped to prepare for teaching ministries at home or abroad including Sunday school, children, youth, and adult groups, leadership training, vacation Bible schools and camps. The department helps students understand the principles for effective teaching so they can contribute effectively to the work of the local church.

Department of Counseling

This department equips students to work in both ministerial and professional venues of counseling. Students are prepared to understand and respond biblically to the heart-felt needs of counselees and are given the necessary foundation for graduate work in the counseling field if they desire to pursue continuing education.

Department of Office Administration

The Office Administration major provides students with technical expertise emphasizing information processing with a ministry orientation. The students develop skills in the Microsoft Office Suite of programs, accounting, business communication, and graphic design. They also develop interpersonal skills that are essential in the workplace. An internship for real-world experience is included along with relevant courses in general studies, Bible, and theology.

Department of Pastoral Ministries

This department prepares men for effective pastoral ministry in local churches. The department purposes to produce graduates who demonstrate a balance of expository skill, spiritual leadership, pastoral care, and evangelistic fervor—all founded upon the clear teachings of Scripture.

Currently six programs are available: Church Music, Education Ministries, Outreach Ministries, Pastoral, Worship Pastor, and Youth Pastor.

Department of Sports and Recreational Ministries

This department endeavors to equip students for effective sports ministries in the local church, para-church organizations, foreign missionary agencies and sports related organizations.

Department of Intercultural Studies

This department presents the responsibility of every Christian to fulfill the Great Commission by being a personal witness, gives a general knowledge of mission fields, and instills an awareness of mission issues today. Missions courses are designed to equip the student with the methods for establishing a New Testament church in the United States or foreign nations, the basic principles and the ethics needed for a successful missionary program, exposure to the cultural and language differences in working with cross-cultural peoples, and thoughtful consideration of the needs and programs in modern-day missions.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

The purpose of the School of Education at Baptist Bible College is to develop graduates who will be effective in the classroom. The history of BBC reflects strong support for the ministry of Christian schools. Along with preparing students who wish to teach within Christian schools, we believe that it is very important to prepare those students who wish to teach within public schools and international schools. Our mission is to provide the knowledge base and skills needed to be a successful teacher whether it is in public or Christian education. The graduates of the School of Education programs will have developed a strong foundation in subject matter knowledge, pedagogical knowledge, and teaching skills.

Through the multidivisional experiences supported by the Bible and Arts and Sciences curriculum, the graduate of the various programs within the School of Education will be provided with the skills necessary to be an equipping, engaging and supportive educator. The graduate will understand the importance of meeting the needs of the whole student: cognitive, emotional, social, physical and spiritual including the diverse learner's needs in an inclusive classroom. The graduate will have an understanding of a multicultural perspective which is imperative as we meet an ever changing, culturally diverse landscape.

ACADEMIC CORE

UNDERGRADUATE ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

All bachelor degree programs are made up of two majors, a Bible/Theology major and a professional major, plus a core of general studies and ministry courses totaling a minimum of 120 credits.

Associate degree programs have a minimum of 18 credits of Bible and Theology and are a minimum of 60 credits. Certificate programs have a minimum of 12 credits of Bible and Theology and are a minimum of 30 credits. Students with multiple majors or minors are allowed to double dip, or use the same course to meet requirements in more than one major or minor. The maximum number of credits of overlap is six credits.

GENERAL STUDIES CORE

The graduate of BBC needs to have a good foundation in general education. Therefore, general education courses comprise a meaningful and vital part of the baccalaureate degree programs. The general studies core courses include*:

Western Civilization and Thought (6)
Literature survey elective (3)
General Psychology (3)
Speech Communication (3)
Life Fitness and physical education electives (3)
General studies electives (9–12 credits total)
Academic Writing (3)
Writing about Literature (3)
Introduction to Fine Arts (3)
Science electives (6)—including Understanding Science (3)

GLOBAL MINISTRIES CORE

Topics dealing with edification, education, intercultural studies, evangelism and discipleship will be studied in order to provide each student with a biblically based local church orientation for personal and professional ministry. This ministry core includes:

The Church's Ministry (3)
World Evangelism (3)

In addition, specific leadership competency is pursued in various program requirements through practicum, apprenticeship, student teaching, and ministry development opportunities.

* Education students have different core general studies and global ministries courses varying by program. More information is available from the Registrar's Office or the Undergraduate Teacher Education department.

Bible and Theology Major (30-42 credits)

It is our belief that knowledge of the Scriptures is essential to a proper education. Therefore, all students take a foundational set of Bible and theology courses. The Bible and Theology major consists of a minimum of 30 credits and is overseen by the School of Bible and Theology.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

A total of 30 or 33 credits is required, all of which must be earned at Baptist Bible College. A minimum of one ministry unit must also be completed prior to graduation. The certificate is available online or on campus. Upon successful completion of the Bible Certificate program, the student will be awarded the Bible Certificate.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The one-year Bible Certificate program is designed to equip students who plan to enter careers other than Christian ministries with a basic background in biblical studies so they can intelligently and effectively communicate their faith. The Christian maturity and knowledge of the Bible gained during this brief time will prove invaluable as these students move into other colleges and professions.

Early Childhood Education

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The purpose of the two year Early Childhood program is to prepare individuals for ministry roles as early childhood educators in churches, Christian schools, social agencies, homes, pre-school programs, and day care programs. Students will learn the theoretical principles of child development as well as developmentally appropriate practices. Students will be able to recognize and address children's cognitive, personal and moral stages of development as well as address and reach the child, family, school, teacher/caregiver and community as it relates to the education of the whole child. The program provides students with the biblical education and practical experience necessary to work with young children with professional excellence. A student in this program must maintain a GPA of 2.0.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this program, the student will:

- Be aware of social, cultural, historical, and legal issues associated with early childhood education.
- Appreciate the importance of active learning in the content of guided play and direct instructional techniques.
- Know how to provide optimum, developmentally appropriate experiences for children in the early years.
- Successfully apply content knowledge to practicum experiences.

General Education

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Baptist Bible College exists for the primary purpose of preparing men and women to pursue selective Christian ministry careers for which the Bible major is foundational or essential. Since not all students are certain of career direction, the General Education program offers a basic program of general education coupled with biblical studies that provides a foundation for the further pursuit of Christian ministry or continued studies at BBC or another institution of higher learning.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the General Education program, the student will:

- Demonstrate a deepening love for and commitment to biblical values.
- Possess a basic knowledge of the Bible and theology.

- Be able to articulate a Christian worldview based on the integration of the biblical and general studies curriculum.
- Demonstrate knowledge and appreciation of some of the fundamental skills requisite for local church ministry.

Office Administration

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Office Administration program provides students with technical expertise emphasizing information processing with a ministry orientation. The students develop skills in the Microsoft Office Suite of programs, accounting, business communication, and graphic design. They also develop interpersonal skills that are essential in the workplace. An internship for real-world experience is included along with relevant courses in general studies, Bible, and theology.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The purpose of this program is to prepare students for career opportunities as office administration professionals in an office setting.

Upon completion of the Office Administration program, the student will:

- Demonstrate software and design skills through creation of quality business documents using proper format and mechanics.
- Edit work to a “no-error” final product.
- Apply proper design principles.
- Understand and implement Christian interpersonal skills in the workplace, including the ability to perform well in a team environment.
- Demonstrate oral and written communication skills through correct and tactful speaking and writing, including proper listening techniques.
- Use punctuation, capitalization, abbreviations, and numbers properly.
- Possess skills to use telecommunications.
- Develop and deliver a Power Point presentation.
- Identify the issues encountered in a global economy.
- Recognize the importance of continued growth in developing godly character and a servant’s heart.
- Possess general office skills, such as filing, keyboarding, meeting planning, use of equipment, etc.

- Demonstrate keying accuracy and speed skills by achieving a minimum of 45 net words per minute.
- Understand general accounting principles for use as an administrative assistant.

Bachelor of Music Education Program

Music Education Major

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The purpose of the K–12 undergraduate majors is to prepare individuals for careers as K–12 educators in Christian, public and international schools. Students will learn the theoretical principles of child/adolescent development as well as developmentally appropriate practices specific to their discipline, and moral stages of development as well as address and reach the various learning styles. The student will learn the importance of the partnership between the child/adolescent, family, school, teacher and community as it relates to the education of the whole child/adolescent. The program provides students with a biblical world–life view and the practical experience necessary to teach child/adolescents with professional excellence in subject specific disciplines.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this major the students will:

- Plan and prepare units and lessons that reflect a pedagogical mastery of music content.
- Create and maintain a classroom atmosphere that fosters student learning.
- Deliver lessons that reflect appropriate choices of aligned objectives, methods, and assessments tools.
- Sustain professional behaviors in personal development and practical relationships within the school community, undergirded by ethical integrity.

Camping Ministries Major

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Camping Ministries major is designed to prepare men and women who are passionate about making disciples and who are empowered to serve with excellence in camping and impact ministry venues. This program involves a year of internship in a camp setting; learning camp ministry through an experience based educational approach.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the Camping Ministries major, the student will:

- Develop and clearly articulate a solid philosophy and approach to developing a camping ministry based on an understanding of history, various philosophies, and current trends within the outdoor education and camping movements. (Foundations of Camping and Outdoor Education)
- Employ impact ministry environments and dynamics in an effective manner as tools for introducing others to a growing, intimate relationship with their God. (Introduction to Impact Ministry Leadership)
- Demonstrate competency in moving participants toward growth in the context of short term impact ministry environments such as retreats, resident camps, mission trips, and wilderness programming. (Counseling in Active Learning Environments)
- Investigate, evaluate, and adapt current experience based learning theories, models and tools for use in facilitating learning for a wide range of students in a variety of environments and experiences. (Foundations of Experience Based Learning)
- Design effective approaches to pursuing learning objectives through a variety of experiences, challenges, and assignments. (Planning for Integrative Learning)
- Formulate a vision for participants' potential development; assess their needs, set learning objectives, and set a strategy for the pursuit of effective learning. (Rec Programming: Vision, Assessment, Design)
- Demonstrate necessary skills and methods for effectively and safely implementing a learning strategy in the context of recreational programming. (Rec Programming: Implementation and Evaluation)
- Perform within an organizational environment in a manner that demonstrates competencies in management and administration pertinent to the role that he/she is preparing to play.

Chaplaincy Ministries Major

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Chaplaincy major provides training for students who seek to minister in one of our nation's military branches of service. Military chaplains of all branches are required to have earned a master's degree, to have a minimum of 72 hours of graduate-level credits, and to be ordained. The degree and all credits can be earned at Baptist Bible Seminary (BBS). Some credits can be earned at BBS while enrolled in the College in order to shorten the time required for the completion of education. Chaplain Assistants are not required to have a master's degree or be ordained. The majority of principles and ministry skills learned in this program carry over to other ministries, such as hospital, prison, corporation, fire, and police chaplaincies.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the Chaplaincy major, the student will:

- Articulate and defend a biblical approach to counseling. (Intro to Counseling)
- Prepare and present effective sermons using solid principles of biblical exposition. (Expository Preaching)
- Understand the basic responsibilities and opportunities connected with the chaplaincy and apply foundational skills essential to the role. (Introduction to Chaplaincy)
- Comprehend basic biblical principles surrounding the administration of a local church education program. (Education Ministries of the Church)
- Understand key current issues and provide solid biblical counsel in response to those issues. (Pastoral Counseling)
- Interact with the major approaches to crisis counseling from a biblical perspective. (Crisis Counseling)
- Interact with the major views of marriage and family therapy from a biblical perspective. (Marriage and Family Dynamics)

Counseling Ministries Major

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This major is ideal for students that are primarily interested in ministry applications of counseling. The Counseling Ministries Major encompasses foundational philosophical assumptions as well as practical methodologies of biblical counseling. Students complete courses related to both theory and practice of counseling. Those courses, combined with required Bible and Theology curriculum, equip the student to wisely minister to hurting individuals. The BBC Counseling program emphasizes the sufficiency of Scripture in meeting counselee needs. In addition to the core course requirements, all Counseling students may complete a counseling apprenticeship program.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Biblical counseling is a ministry and a profession. As such, the undergraduate program focuses on the pre-professional knowledge base and skills necessary to minister in counseling settings at this level. While ample ministry opportunities are available for the BBC graduate at the baccalaureate level, such opportunities will be pre-professional in nature, including supervision by licensed and/or certified professionals in the field.

Persons desiring to use their counseling skills in a local church context will find BBC's undergraduate preparation very well suited to their needs. The curriculum provides both knowledge-based and skill-building courses to prepare students for effective lay-level biblical counseling in a local church. Upon completion of the Counseling Ministries major, the student will:

- Develop a biblical philosophy of counseling.
- Develop a biblical model of counseling.
- Desire to help people deal biblically with problems they face in life.
- Have learned the interface between biblical principles and natural revelation.

Degree Completion/Accelerated Degree Completion

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Degree Completion program is designed to facilitate the development of ministry leaders who desire to finish an undergraduate degree and are not yet ready or interested in graduate-level work. Students who have already begun their undergraduate education elsewhere can complete their training through Baptist Bible College.

The Accelerated Degree Completion program is structured to allow an efficient and cost-effective option for individuals who desire an advanced-level degree, but have not yet completed their bachelor's degree. Students take graduate-level courses which can be applied to both their graduate and undergraduate programs through dual enrollment. Students can pursue the Accelerated Degree Completion program through the following master's degrees:

Master of Arts
Master of Divinity
Master of Ministry

Students entering the Degree Completion or Accelerated Degree Completion programs must have successfully completed at least 60 semester credits toward a bachelor's degree and be at least 25 years of age.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The Degree Completion program meets the needs of students who desire to earn an accredited bachelor's degree and enhance their ministry competency, and have already earned a significant number of undergraduate credits. This program focuses on building competency in biblical understanding and ministry skills in an efficient and cost-effective manner.

Upon completion of the Degree Completion program, the student will:

- Earn an accredited Bachelor of Science degree.
- Possess a solid foundation in biblical studies and ministry application.

The Accelerated Degree Completion program equips students who are ready for advanced study toward a master's degree offered by Baptist Bible College & Seminary but have not yet earned a bachelor's degree. Ministry leaders can complete both their bachelor's and master's degrees at the same time through this program.

Upon completion of the Accelerated Degree program, the student will:

- Earn an accredited Bachelor of Science degree
- Earn an accredited master's degree
- Possess a solid foundation in biblical studies and ministry application for their chosen field.

Students in the Accelerated Degree Completion program who do not maintain the required GPA in their associated graduate division program will be withdrawn from their graduate division program and will complete their undergraduate division degree in the Degree Completion program. Upon completion of their undergraduate degree, the student may re-apply for their graduate program. All admissions requirements must be met for the graduate program at the time.

Music Ministries Major

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The purpose of the Music Ministries major is to prepare both men and women for a variety of musical responsibilities within, and ancillary to the local church. They will learn the theoretical, historical and theological foundations of music while becoming fluent performers as instrumentalists or vocalists. Courses in arranging and composition will prepare students to creatively adapt their energies to the specific needs and opportunities presented by a wide variety of churches and their musical recourses. And on this secure base of knowledge and skill they will lead, teach, or even pastor, using their musical, personal, and ministry skills to direct the worship of the 21st century church, and to develop the musical capacities of its members. At any point in this program, students may transfer their credits to the 5-year Church Music major and earn the Bachelor of Sacred Music degree.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of a Music Ministries major, students will:

- Establish and direct a fully developed ministry of vocal, choral, and instrumental music that requires their direct involvement as well as their ability to teach and mentor others to assist in that ministry.
- Teach a biblical philosophy of music among those to whom they minister, whether in a church, school or mission field.
- Apply their facility as arrangers or composers to creatively enhance their music ministries.
- Assume pastoral leadership in the area of music as they publicly lead their congregations in worship.
- Teach others in their areas of performance.

Pastoral Ministries Major—Seminary Track

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Pastoral Ministries major-Seminary track is designed for students intending to more fully prepare for pastoral ministry by continuing on to seminary education. The program focus is the same as that of the Pastoral Ministries program but accelerates the student's education through dual enrollment strategies. This program is available to students who demonstrate the academic capacity to handle the increased demands.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the Pastoral Ministries major-Seminary track, the student will:

- Prepare and present effective sermons from a variety of biblical genres, using a variety of sermon styles. (Advanced Expository Preaching)
- Develop strategies for leading a congregation in reaching their community with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. (Church Evangelism Strategies)

Pre-Seminary Major

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Pre-Seminary major prepares men and women for ministries that require a graduate-level degree by challenging them to confront various disciplines of knowledge and to integration them into a coherent Christian worldview. In addition to 42 credits of Bible and theology, 60 credits of general studies courses are required. These are distributed over a wide range of academic disciplines to assure a proper and balanced program for graduate studies. Furthermore, students are required to take 14 credits in biblical languages. Twelve hours of electives afford students the opportunity to deepen or broaden their education according to their own interests.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The Pre-Seminary major prepares men and women who plan to continue education for ministry at a graduate school or seminary upon the completion of their undergraduate studies.

Upon completion of the Pre-Seminary program, the student will:

- Possess a basic knowledge of the Bible and theology.
- Demonstrate an adequate mastery of biblical languages to meet the entrance requirements of most conservative seminaries.
- Be able to articulate a Christian worldview based on the integration of the biblical and general studies curriculum.

Specialized Ministries Major

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Specialized Ministries major includes a core of 42 semester hours of Bible and theology designed to help students gain a basic understanding of the truth. The program also includes 42 hours of general studies course work designed to help students understand the world in which they will be living and ministering that truth. Six hours of foundational ministry coursework are included in the program upon which all specializations are built. The remaining 33 credit hours are available for creating a specialized program of study. This specialization is developed for the student by an academic advisor selected by the director of the program. Advisors are selected based on their familiarity with the particular specialization the student wishes to pursue.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The Specialized Ministries major is designed for the student who is seeking a Bible college education in preparation for a ministry specialization that draws from multiple disciplines or a generalized set of ministry competencies to serve as a foundation for more specific graduate training.

Upon completion of the Specialized Ministries program, the student will:

- Show competence in application of Bible and theology for continued personal growth and for the benefit of others.
- Apply an understanding of their general studies exposure to an understanding of the world within which they seek to minister.
- Exercise basic ministry leadership in the context of their chosen specialization.

Sports and Health Science Majors

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Sports and Health Science is a pre-graduate collaborative program that combines the discipleship emphasis of the Sports Recreational Ministries program with courses from the Science and Health and Physical Education departments to prepare graduates for professional graduate programs targeted towards the health service field.

Graduates of this program will have biblical, discipleship, and academic preparation for service and ministry to people through the health care field: whether on the mission field, in a Christian school, Christian camp, or a professional health care facility. Specifically, this program is designed for students with an interest in athletic training or physical therapy.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the Sports and Health Science programs, the student will:

- Demonstrate critical thinking skills and writing skills necessary for the application of this program to health needs of society and further graduate study.
- Exhibit a holistic view of the care of the physical needs of people through an integration of theology, discipleship, health, and science courses.
- Have completed extensive field experience.
- Display the necessary academic competencies in health and science content courses for admissions into a graduate program.

Sports and Recreational Ministries Major

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Sports and Recreational Ministries major is designed to equip students for effective worldwide sports ministries. The program is interdepartmental in that it cooperates with the Health and Physical Education, World Missions, Youth Ministries, Pastoral Ministries, Business, Science, Counseling, and Church Educational Ministries Departments. The Sports and Recreational Ministries major seeks to prepare graduates for a variety of athletics, recreational, and ministry related vocational positions.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the Sports and Recreational Ministries major, the student will:

- Understand a theology of teaching and demonstrate skills for effective teaching of the Scriptures. (Effective Bible Teaching)
- Construct and apply a biblically based philosophy of sports ministry. (History and Philosophy of Sports Ministry)
- Interpret and apply the Scriptures properly in developing a rationale for and a set of principles to guide their approach to sports ministry. (Biblical Foundations of Sports Ministry)
- Use sports ministry as a vehicle to evangelize and disciple people effectively in any generation or culture. (Evangelism and Discipleship in Sports Ministry)
- Organize and administer a sports ministry program in the local church, para-church organizations, and foreign missionary field. (Administration and Organization of Sports Ministry)
- Demonstrate the skills necessary to occupy entry level sports ministry positions that are opening worldwide. (Sports Ministry Practice and Internship)

Women's Ministries Major

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Women's Ministries major is designed to assist women in developing their God-given gifts and abilities for ministry to women through the local church and in other settings. The major grows out of an interdisciplinary approach designed to prepare the student to understand and communicate the Scriptures with the world around her, especially in a ministry context. Students are counseled to use their electives to focus their ministry skills in specific areas according to their giftedness and interests. They may select from classes in other majors such as Office Administration, Music, Missions, Youth Ministry, and Counseling.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the Women's Ministries major, the student will:

- Understand the needs of women at various stages of life and offer practical biblical counsel for those needs. (Women Counseling Women)
- Articulate a clear biblical philosophy for ministry by women to women in the church. (Women in Christian Ministry)
- Understand what it will take to be ready to minister into and from a family setting. (Ministry of Marriage and Motherhood)
- Communicate the Scriptures in a clear and compelling manner. (Ministry Communication for Women)
- Understand a theology of teaching and demonstrate skills for effective teaching of the Scriptures. (Effective Bible Teaching)

Worship Pastor Major

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The purpose of the Worship Pastor major is to prepare both men for a variety of musical responsibilities within, and ancillary to the local church. They will learn the theoretical, historical and theological foundations of music while becoming fluent performers as instrumentalists or vocalists. Courses in arranging and composition will prepare students to creatively adapt their energies to the specific needs and opportunities presented by a wide variety of churches and their musical recourses. And on this secure base of knowledge and skill they will lead, teach, or even pastor, using their musical, personal, and ministry skills to direct the worship of the 21st century church, and to develop the musical capacities of its members.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of a Worship Pastor major, students will:

- Establish and direct a fully developed ministry of vocal, choral, and instrumental music that requires their direct involvement as well as their ability to teach and mentor others to assist in that ministry.
- Teach a biblical philosophy of music among those to whom they minister, whether in a church, school or mission field.
- Apply their facility as arrangers or composers to creatively enhance their music ministries.
- Assume pastoral leadership in the area of music as they publicly lead their congregations in worship.
- Teach others in their areas of performance.

Youth Pastor Major

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Youth Pastor major is designed to prepare students for effective pastoral ministry focused on adolescents. The program emphasis is on developing an ability to minister the Scriptures to the unique needs of youth while operating as part of a pastoral team. The skills and competencies focused on in this program are transferable to a range of career applications in ministry settings as well as the secular market.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the Youth Pastor major, the student will:

- Articulate a clear philosophy of youth ministry that is founded on a solid understanding of Scriptural priorities, is focused on the particular needs of students, and considers the unique gifts and abilities of a leadership team. (Youth Ministry Philosophy)
- Create effective strategies for youth ministry based on solid principles of strategic thinking. (Youth Ministry Strategy)
- Build strategies for training their students to influence their world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. (Youth Evangelism)
- Develop a discipleship strategy that provides for the spiritual growth of students and training for youth workers as effective disciples of students. (Youth Ministry Seminar)
- Understand a theology of teaching and demonstrate skills for effective teaching of the Scriptures. (Effective Bible Teaching)
- Prepare and present effective sermons using solid principles of biblical exposition. (Expository Preaching)
- Understand key current issues and provide solid biblical counsel in response to those issues. (Pastoral Counseling)
- Read biblical Greek at an elementary level. (Greek II)

Bachelor of Science in Business Administration Program

Business Administration Major

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Baptist Bible College exists for the primary purpose of preparing men and women to pursue selective Christian ministry careers for which the Bible major is foundational or essential. The Business program prepares graduates to enter ministries that cannot readily be accessed by graduates of many existing programs. Such ministries include tent-making ministries (for closed-access nations and for entrepreneurial training of nationals), local church ministries (bi-vocational and executive pastoral ministries, church and Christian school business administrators), and para-church ministries (college, camp and missions business administrators). The program satisfies the minimal requirements for those who would choose to pursue an M.B.A. upon graduation.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the Business major, the student will:

- Possess a basic knowledge of the Bible and theology.
- Be able to articulate a Christian worldview based on the integration of the biblical and general studies curriculum.
- Demonstrate knowledge and use of the fundamental skills requisite for business administration.

Bachelor of Science in Counseling Programs

Accelerated Counseling Program

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Accelerated Counseling program is designed for students with a strong academic background able and motivated to study at the graduate level. Graduates from this program will earn both the Bachelor of Science in Counseling and Master of Science in Counseling degrees. Core courses in Bible and theology as well as counseling and psychology are central to the curriculum of this counseling program. Specifically, students complete a substantial core of courses in both domains, which equips them to blend the principles of the Word of God with learned people-helping skills in order to be a spiritual encouragement to those in need. Thus, Bible college graduates with both a biblical studies and counseling background can be a key person in assisting people who experience life difficulties. The Accelerated Counseling program combines bachelor's and master's level courses to prepare students for career ministry opportunities in professional, entry-level positions. The BBC counseling program emphasizes the sufficiency of Scripture in meeting counselee needs.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the Accelerated Counseling program students will be able to:

- Articulate a biblical worldview and life view as it relates to counseling philosophy and methodology.
- Show a knowledge base and skills for entry level positions as counselors in a variety of settings.
- Demonstrate advanced knowledge and skills needed in the development of their counseling abilities.
- Evidence an academic foundation with which they may pursue doctoral studies or certification as professional counselors.
- Use their understanding of an ability to do research to write professionally on a research topic.
- Demonstrate personal awareness and/or growth in psycho-social and spiritual development.
- Pursue licensure and/or certification.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Core courses in Bible and theology as well as counseling and psychology are central to the curriculum of the Counseling major. Specifically, students complete a substantial core of courses in both domains, which equips them to blend the principles of the Word of God with acquired skills in order to be a spiritual encouragement to those in need. Thus, a Bible college graduate with both a biblical studies and counseling background can be a key person in assisting people who experience life difficulties. The BBC Counseling program emphasizes the sufficiency of Scripture in meeting counselee needs. In addition to the core course requirements students may complete a counseling apprenticeship program.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Biblical counseling is a ministry and a profession. As such, the undergraduate program focuses on the pre-professional knowledge base and skills necessary to minister in counseling settings at this level. While ample ministry opportunities are available for the BBC graduate at the baccalaureate level, such opportunities will be pre-professional in nature, including supervision by licensed and/or certified professionals in the field.

Persons desiring to use their counseling skills in a local church context will find BBC's undergraduate preparation very well suited to their needs. The curriculum provides both knowledge-based and skill-building courses to prepare students for effective lay-level biblical counseling in a local church.

Students interested in pursuing graduate-level training in counseling will find the Counseling major to be excellent preparation for master's degree education. Upon completion of the graduate degree, students are ready to enter counseling at the professional level, including serving as licensed and/or certified counselors.

Upon completion of the Counseling program, the student will:

- Develop a biblical philosophy of counseling.
- Develop a biblical model of counseling.
- Desire to help people deal biblically with issues that they face in life.
- Have learned the interface between biblical principles and natural revelation.
- Be prepared for graduate work in counseling.

Bachelor of Sacred Music Program

Church Music Major

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The purpose of the Church Music major is to prepare both men and women for a variety of musical responsibilities within, and ancillary to the local church. They will learn the theoretical historical and theological foundations of music while becoming fluent performers as instrumentalists or vocalists. Courses in arranging and composition will prepare students to creatively adapt their energies to the specific needs and opportunities presented by a wide variety of churches and their musical recourses. And on this secure base of knowledge and skill they will lead, teach, or even pastor, using their musical, personal, and ministry skills to direct the worship of the 21st century church, and to develop the musical capacities of its members.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of a Church Music major, students will:

- Establish and direct a fully-developed ministry of vocal, choral, and instrumental music that requires their direct involvement as well as their ability to teach and mentor others to assist in that ministry.
- Teach a biblical philosophy of music among those to whom they minister, whether in a church, school, or mission field.
- Apply their facility as arrangers or composers to creatively enhance their music ministries.
- Assume pastoral leadership in the area of music as they publicly lead their congregations in worship
- Teach others in their areas of performance.

Bachelor of Science in Education Programs

PURPOSE

The purpose of the undergraduate education programs at Baptist Bible College is to develop teacher candidates who will be equipped to help their students to develop cognitively, socially, emotionally, physically, and spiritually.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The graduates of the undergraduate education programs will have developed a strong foundation in subject matter knowledge, pedagogical knowledge, and teaching skills. They will also be able to plan and carry out instruction to meet the various needs of the diverse learner in the inclusive classroom.

Through the experiences supported by the School of Bible and Theology and the School of Arts and Sciences curriculum, the graduates of the undergraduate education programs will be provided with the skills necessary for life-long learning, an understanding of multicultural perspectives, the use of technology to support instruction as well as teaching within a standards based system. Graduation from these programs requires completion of seven ministry units.

CERTIFICATION

Currently BBC programs lead to the following certificates:

- Early Childhood/Elementary Education PreK–4 program leads to the K–8 ACSI certificate and PreK–4th Grade Pennsylvania certificate.
- Secondary Education-English—The English program leads to the 7–12 ACSI certificate and Pennsylvania English certificate.
- Health and Physical Education—This program leads to the K–12 ACSI certificate and K–12 Pennsylvania Health and Physical Education certificate.
- Secondary Education-Mathematics—The Mathematics program leads to the 7–12 ACSI certificate and Pennsylvania Mathematics certificate.
- Music Education—The Music program leads to K–12 ACSI certificate and K–12 Pennsylvania Music certificate.
- Secondary Education-Science—The Science program leads to the 7–12 ACSI certificate and the Pennsylvania certificate in General Science.
- Secondary Education-Social Studies—The Social Studies program leads to the 7–12 ACSI certificate and Pennsylvania Social Studies certificate.

APPLICATION INFORMATION

Pursuant to the newest Pennsylvania state certification requirements, students may matriculate into BBC but must apply for entrance into an education program in the sophomore year. Students may be accepted when:

- At least 48 credits have been completed
- The cumulative GPA is 3.0 or above.
- Appropriate PAPA (Pre-Service Academic Performance Assessment) tests have been passed.
- Appropriate clearances (Child Abuse History Clearance, Criminal Background Record Check, FBI fingerprint, and a current Tuberculin test) have been secured.
- Sophomore portfolio's submitted and approved.

This information is found in the education handbooks that are distributed prior to the time of application.

STUDENT TEACHING

Students will apply for student teaching as a culmination of their program. Successful applications will include the following:

- Completion of all core subject and pedagogy courses with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0.
- Completion of each core subject and pedagogy course with a C or above.
- Met basic fieldwork competencies as set by Pennsylvania Department of Education.
- Teaching competencies specific to the program.
- Satisfactory evaluation by the program advisor.

See the appropriate program handbook for program specific information.

Early Childhood and Elementary Education PK-4 Major

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Early Childhood/Elementary PreK-4th grade undergraduate major focuses on teaching children from birth to grade four within the home, Christian or public school systems, international schools, or the pre-school or daycare setting. This program helps future teachers to understand the importance of the interaction between the child, family, school, teacher/care giver and community as it relates to child development. Students are also taught to respect diversity because we are created in God's image. The program provides an understanding of child development and the use of best practices to support and guide present and future development.

The program uses faith as the base for ethical behavior and professionalism. Future teachers also understand the standards for ethical and professional behavior as set by the National Association of the Education of Young Children and the Pennsylvania Department of Education.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this major, the student will:

- Demonstrate thorough knowledge of content and pedagogical skills in planning and preparation.
- Establish and maintain a purpose and equitable environment for learning.
- Demonstrate skill in delivering instruction that engages students in learning by using a variety of instructional strategies to meet the needs of diverse learners.
- Demonstrate qualities that characterize a professional person in aspects that occur in and beyond the classroom/building.

Secondary Education—Math Major

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The purpose of the 7–12 Secondary undergraduate programs is to prepare individuals for careers as secondary educators in Christian, public, international and other private schools. Students will learn the theoretical principles of adolescent development as well as developmentally appropriate practices specific to their discipline. Students will be able to recognize and address adolescents' cognitive, personal, and moral stages of development as well as address and reach the various learning styles. The student will learn the importance of the partnership between the adolescent, family, school, teacher and community as it relates to the educating of the whole adolescent. The program provides student with biblical world–life view and the practical experience necessary to teach adolescent with professional excellence in subject specific disciplines.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this major the students will:

- Plan and prepare units and lessons that reflect a pedagogical mastery of mathematics content.
- Create and maintain a classroom atmosphere that fosters student learning, provides a safe environment, and equips students to be life–long learners
- Deliver lessons that reflect appropriate choices of aligned objectives, methods, and assessment tools.
- Sustain professional behaviors in personal development and practical relationships within the school community, undergirded by ethical integrity.

GRADUATE ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

Master of Arts Programs

Master of Arts

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Master of Arts (M.A.) is an online degree that is designed to prepare students for personal and professional ministry opportunities. It is designed to assist lay people or ministry professionals who want to grow deeper spiritually and minister more effectively.

Each course demands interaction and collaboration with instructors and classmates as well as relevant, real-life assignments. Students must complete a 15 credit hour core of biblical, theological, and communications courses. In addition, each student chooses 15 credit hours of elective courses designed to enhance their tools and skills for ministry. Elective courses allow the opportunity for students to focus on specific areas of concentration such as Bible, theology, counseling, literature or organizational leadership. Association of Baptists for World Evangelism missionaries may use their CEIM training to fill the elective portion of the program requirements.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the M.A. program, the student will:

- Develop and value a biblical worldview as compared to other worldviews in today's culture.
- Learn a method for interpreting the message of the Bible as it relates to doctrine.
- Recognize the nature and mission of the Church in the world today.
- Apply competent, effective ministry strategies in their spheres of influence.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

The M.A. degree requires 30 credit hours comprised of ten three-credit hour courses. All credits may be earned through online study. Classes are offered in eight week sessions beginning each January, March, May, August and October.

In addition to online courses, students may complete the requirements through experience, on-campus, or other BBC&S distance learning courses. The program can be completed in as little as two years; however, a student is permitted a maximum of six years to complete the program.

A current schedule of course offering is at http://www.bbc.edu/graduate/master_of_arts_courses.asp.

Counseling

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Master of Arts–Counseling program provides foundational exposure to a variety of topics of value to those seeking to better understand people and to grow in awareness of how God's Word applies to healthy living as well as the resolution of human struggles. These studies equip students to provide wise biblical counsel in a wide range of roles whether within the church or in positions outside the church. The counseling concentration prepares graduates to minister in lay counseling positions. It is not designed for those intending to pursue licensure as professional counselors.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the Counseling program, the graduate will be able to:

- Articulate a biblical world—and life—view as it relates to counseling philosophy and methodology.
- Describe how healthy human development unfolds.
- Facilitate healthy patterns of communication in relationships.
- Identify the wide range of patterns of suffering that occur in this broken world.
- Evaluate gifts, talents and sense of calling.
- Differentiate between traditional models of helping and a biblical view of the change process.
- Develop a repertoire of basic counseling skills.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

30 Credits

All courses are three credits unless noted otherwise.

Bible/Theology Courses (12 credits)

CO502 Biblical Theology of Counseling

CO506 Biblical Philosophy of Counseling

CO508 Methods of Biblical Change

TH517 Survey of Doctrine *

* Students with a strong theology background may substitute TH511 How to Develop a Biblical ` Worldview.

Communications Course (3 credits)

CO539 Marriage and Family Counseling

Counseling Courses (15 credits)

Elective course options are listed under the Master of Science in Counseling program. Students desiring to work toward the M.S.C. degree after the M.A. must work closely with an advisor immediately upon matriculation in the M.A. program to ensure courses are sequenced properly.

Literature

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Recognizing the need to combine scholarly rigor with the challenge of biblical and critical thinking, the focus of this program is to develop students' skills in literary content and criticism.

Students will develop a literal, grammatical, historical approach to literary interpretation, they will engage in grounding literary texts within the literal hermeneutic, and they will form an understanding of the issues in cultural history and literary genre.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The Literature program provides training for the student for further education in graduate programs or for study in an area of specific interest.

Upon completion of the Literature program, the student will:

- Think, write, and speak clearly and effectively.
- Read and interpret literature literally, grammatically, contextually, and historically.
- Demonstrate information literacy skills that will enable them to retrieve, evaluate, and synthesize information for the development of a thesis.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

33 Credits

All courses are three credits unless noted otherwise.

For the degree of Master of Arts, students must complete 33 credits of coursework, which includes four core courses, two required literature courses and four elective literature courses. In the final term, students will work through the process of beginning their thesis and will take the writing seminar: Advanced Expository and Criticism.

Required Core Courses (12 credits)

TH524 Dynamics of Spiritual Growth (Theology)

BI510 Inductive Bible Study (Bible)

LI512 Principles of Literary Interpretation and Criticism (Hermeneutics)

EN507 Advanced Expository and Criticism (Communications)

Master's Thesis (3 credits)

MA students must successfully complete a Master's Thesis in the context of one of their elective courses. This is the culminating experience of their program; students must register and choose a thesis adviser.

LI535 Thesis in American Literary Studies

Required Literature Courses (6 credits)

LI517 Narrative Genre

LI518 Dramatic Genre

Master of Education Program

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Master of Education (M.Ed.) program is designed to meet the professional needs of educators who serve or are preparing to serve in Christian, international, other private or public schools. Commitment to biblical principles and a biblical world life view marks the perspectives from which all of this program's courses are presented. It is our goal that our graduates will be able to relate these principles to their varied educational ministries.

Educational Administration
Curriculum and Instruction
Reading Specialist
Secondary English/Communications

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The Master of Education provides graduate studies to enhance the skill sets of classroom teachers, reading specialists, curriculum and instruction supervisors, coaches, and school administrators. The program emphasizes theory, pedagogy, and research skills to the extent that a graduate will have the basis for pursuing post-graduate studies. At the completion of this program, the student will be able to:

- Adopt and apply a biblical world life view as it relates to educational philosophy, theory, and methodology.
- Demonstrate competency in applying theory and research through best practice to a chosen areas of study.
- Develop leadership skills appropriate to concentrated area of study.
- Develop theoretically grounded practitioners who are able to contribute to the spiritual and educational missions of their schools.
- Apply research to their educational endeavors as well as provide opportunities to make original contributions to knowledge in education.

COURSE OFFERINGS

Courses are designed to meet the needs of believing educators and are offered online in regular sessions throughout the year and on campus in summer school modules. Courses are scheduled on a rotating basis to support degree completion schedules. All core courses and many concentration courses within each discipline can be completed only by distance learning. The program can be completed in three years. The Capstone Project can be completed within those three years. A maximum of six years is permitted to complete the program without the student petitioning the Program Director for an extension.

ADMISSION AND MATRICULATION

Admission to the College does not imply approval to candidacy for a master's degree. To be eligible, the student must:

- File an application for admission with the Admissions Office.
- Establish a program of study (including a timetable for degree completion) in conjunction with a faculty advisor and approved by the Program Director.

- Meet all prerequisites required by the School of Education–Graduate Studies (i.e., foundational course work competencies).

CAPSTONE PROJECT—ED591

The Capstone Project is intended to provide students with an opportunity to demonstrate the acquisition of research or writing skills, to show their mastery of course work, or to extend the knowledge acquired in prior courses. The Capstone Project must be completed prior to graduation.

Educational Administration Concentration

CONCENTRATION PURPOSE

This program equips educators for positions in educational administration. Preparation for a variety of functions required of school leaders, with an emphasis on Christian schools, will be given.

CONCENTRATION OBJECTIVES

On completion of the Educational Administration concentration, the graduate will be able to:

- Articulate a Christian philosophy of education.
- Apply biblical principles to his/her role as an educational leader.
- Plan and develop school curricula which present a biblical worldview, develop a plan for instructional supervisions and provide for the assessment of learning.
- Supervise the faculty and staff including evaluation of instruction and the development of personal and professional growth.
- Manage the daily operation of a school including records, finances, reports, and schedules.
- Develop school environments which facilitate the development of spiritual growth and moral character of teachers and students.
- Develop school policies and procedures that are in keeping with biblical principles, educational research, and school law.
- Plan for effective public relations and development program for a school.

Curriculum and Instruction Concentration

CONCENTRATION PURPOSE

This program is designed to equip Christian educators to be curriculum and instructional supervisors. Preparation will provide the educator with the necessary tools to develop and implement age-appropriate curriculum consistent with a Christian philosophy of education.

CONCENTRATION OBJECTIVES

On completion of the Curriculum and Instruction concentration, the graduate will be able to:

- Articulate a Christian philosophy of education.
- Develop teaching techniques that encourage biblical analysis and critical thinking.
- Plan and develop a school curriculum that presents a biblical worldview and provides for the assessment of learning.
- Utilize sound instructional principles, methods, and skills effectively in teaching students with a variety of learning styles and diverse needs.
- Develop a plan of instructional supervision for a school.
- Understand the implications of contemporary issues in education as expressed in current research.

Reading Specialist Concentration

CONCENTRATION PURPOSE

This program of study leads to an emphasis in the field of reading. It enables a teacher to provide specialized reading instruction to students in kindergarten through grade 12.

CONCENTRATION OBJECTIVES

On completion of the Reading Specialist concentration, the graduate will be able to:

- Develop a strong knowledge base of the major theories of reading development and their relationship to various models of reading instruction.
- Construct a personal philosophy about literacy development and instruction.
- Identify and respect the diversity of students and their literacy abilities.
- Use multiple, appropriate procedures to assess and evaluate students' progress, achievement, and needs in reading.
- Plan and implement appropriate reading instruction based on students' needs.
- Investigate and implement research on current practices in reading instruction.
- Incorporate technology into reading instruction.
- Communicate assessment results and instructional plans with parents and other related educational personnel.

Secondary English/Communications Concentration

CONCENTRATION PURPOSE

This program is designed to prepare teachers to assume positions in Christian, public, international and other private schools as English and communications teachers. Preparation will be given in a variety of areas required of English and communications teachers through a variety of grammar, writing, literature, speech, and drama venues.

CONCENTRATION OBJECTIVES

On completion of the Secondary English and Communications concentration, the graduate will be able to:

- Develop and articulate a thoroughly Christian philosophy of teaching English and communications (speech and drama).
- Articulate an understanding of the principles for teaching writing, grammar, literature, speech, and theatrical principles.
- Apply a biblical world-life view and philosophy for the selection of literature, speech, and drama materials for use in the classroom and play production.
- Gain or develop skills and techniques in the classroom teaching of the different areas in which an English/communications teacher functions.
- Develop and improve techniques in oral expression and interpretation to be used in teaching and performance.

Master of Science in Counseling

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Master of Science in Counseling (M.S.C.) degree prepares students for career ministry opportunities in professional, entry-level positions. The M.S.C. program emphasizes biblical counseling and the professors hold to the position of biblical counseling and the Scripture's sufficiency in overcoming life's problems.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the Master of Science in Counseling program students will be able to:

- Articulate a biblical world-view and life-view as it relates to counseling philosophy and methodology.
- Show a knowledge base and skills for entry-level positions as counselors in a variety of settings.
- Demonstrate advanced knowledge and skills, needed in the development of their counseling abilities.
- Evidence an academic foundation with which they may pursue doctoral studies or certification as professional counselors.
- Use their understanding of and ability to do research to write professionally on a research topic.
- Demonstrate personal awareness and/or growth in psycho-social and spiritual development.

In order to accommodate students working in the greater Clarks Summit area, courses in the M.S.C. program are offered in the evening and on Saturdays in fall, spring, and summer terms. It is possible for students to complete all required course work in two years, taking approximately nine semester credits each term. An internship will follow completion of these classroom studies and passing the objective and oral comprehensive examinations. A maximum of six years is permitted to complete the program without petitioning for an extension. Note: Students entering the program on provisional status will take longer to complete their studies, depending on their pace in fulfilling the prerequisite competencies.

DEGREE CANDIDACY

After completing 18 graduate credits, students fully matriculated into the M.S.C. program will apply for degree candidacy. The counseling faculty will make an objective and subjective assessment of the students' potential for academic success in the graduate program. Students must also demonstrate appropriate character and a potential for ministry success in the counseling field. Objective bases for admission to candidacy include establishing a proposed plan of study (including a timetable for degree completion), possessing a current GPA of at least 3.0, and having satisfied all foundational competency criteria. An interview with students' advisors may also be required.

COMPREHENSIVE FINAL EXAM

The comprehensive examination consists of a written and an oral section, as explained in the following paragraphs.

Written Examination

The written examination consists of multiple-choice questions over the course material from the required professional counseling courses. The examination will be preparatory in function and similar in nature to the National Board of Certified Counselors' (NBCC) National Certification Examination (NCE).

This examination may be taken when all required course work has been completed. The student's enrollment GPA must be at least a 3.0 at the time of the examination. The written portion of the comprehensive examination is administered on announced dates in the following four time frames (1) during the second week in January, (2) the second week in March, (3) the second week in May, and (4) the second week in August by appointment with the Program Director. Students must schedule their examination at least one month prior to the date when they wish to take it.

Failure to pass the objective examination with a score of 70 percent or better overall will require a retake of the entire examination or the individual sections in which the score fell below 70 percent. Two opportunities to retake the examination and meet the passing standard are permitted.

Note: Under special circumstances (e.g., a missionary returning to the field), students may petition the Program Director for permission to take the examination on a date other than one of the advertised dates.

Oral Examination

The oral section of the examination is administered by at least two faculty members and reviews the major tenets from the required biblical counseling courses in the M.S.C. curriculum as well as practicum experience. Emphasis in the oral examination is given to philosophy and methodology in biblical counseling as presented in the required biblical counseling courses. At the completion of the exam the student will receive feedback on their performance along with recommendations for continued growth.

In order to arrange the appointment for the student and the required faculty members involved in this exam, the student should contact the Program Director well in advance of the date desired for the exam. Permission to take this exam is dependent upon all course work being successfully completed, with the exception of the internship, and successful completion of the written section of the comprehensive examination. Students may not begin internship until both the written and oral exam have been successfully completed.

Failure to pass the oral examination will require a retake of the oral exam. Remedial assistance is recommended and will be arranged with the faculty advisor.

In an unusual circumstance, a student may fail the oral examination a second time. When this occurs, the Counseling faculty will consider of such factors as mitigating circumstances, motivation, attitude, and preparation methods, and the student may be granted a third and final attempt. There are no further appeals available should the oral examination be failed the third time.

Supervised Practicum and Internship

All students must complete the supervised practicum and internship requirements with a grade of "B" or higher. A handbook describing the specific requirements for this component of the M.S.C. program may be obtained from the Clinical Supervisor.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

NUMBERING

Each course in the curriculum is identified by a course number which is comprised of letters and three numbers. The initial letters specify the department (or academic area), while the numbers and any additional letters distinguish the courses offered by that department.

The first number indicates the classification of students for whom a course is normally intended:

- 100s—for freshmen students
- 200s—for sophomore students
- 300s—for junior students
- 400s—for senior students
- 500 and higher—graduate level

The third number is an indicator of the semester in which a course is normally offered:

- Odd numbers—fall semester
- Even numbers—spring semester
- Zero (0)—either (or both) semesters

For example, BI101 represents the number of a Bible course that is prescribed in the freshman year, fall semester. Similarly, PA312 identifies a pastoral studies course that is required in the junior year, spring semester. PS100 indicates a freshman psychology course that is offered both semesters. Courses with numbers below 100 are not college level courses.

CREDIT VALUES

The credit value of each course is identified in bold type following the course title.

A student who is granted transfer credit for part of a course may be permitted by the appropriate faculty member to complete the requirement of that course by enrolling for the portion for which he/she has no transferable credit. In each case, the faculty member and the registrar will arrange the credit value assigned and an appropriate course title.

PREREQUISITES

The requirements, if any, for admission to a particular course, follow the course description. For example, under LA401 Greek III, the prerequisite given is LA302 Greek II, which must be completed before the student may enroll in LA401.

CANCELLATIONS

The College reserves the right to cancel any scheduled course for which low enrollment does not justify organization of a class.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

AIR FORCE ROTC

AS101–102 Foundations of the Air Force—2 semesters 2 credits

CO546 Sexual Functions, Dysfunctions, and Remediation 1 credit

In this course all the major sexual dysfunctions are evaluated, along with proven clinical remediations. This course will also look at anatomy and physiology of sexual organs and functions and evaluate the use of medications (holistic and traditional), surgeries, and hormone therapies.

CO548 Undefined for Life: How to Live Spiritually and Sexually Mature Lives 1 credit

The problem of sexual sin in the Church has become widespread in our day, in part due to the seduction of internet anonymity. Sexual purity requires that we be both spiritually and sexually mature. And, we cannot be fully spiritually mature unless we are also sexually mature. Surrounded by high divorce rates, sex outside of marriage, and sexual issues of pornography, abuse, dissatisfaction, and addiction, contemporary Christians need to be trained to deal with their own sexual brokenness and to help others who are struggling.

CO549 The Psychology of Grief and Bereavement: Contemporary Understandings and Findings 1 credit

This seminar focuses on how people move toward restoration after bereavement and other significant losses. It provides a review of historical developments in this area and the current theoretical/empirical status of the psychology of grief and bereavement. Given the critical existential dimension for many grievors, themes related to meaning making, personal growth, and faith are addressed in some depth. Overall, this course will increase your knowledge of the multifaceted nature of coping with loss and provide general instruction for working with different types of persons struggling with grief issues.

Attention will be given to developing a simple, biblically informed format to guide the counselor faced with the confusion and distress often accompanying crisis events.

C0556 Psychology, Biblical Counseling, and Psychotropic Medication 1 credit

This course offers a critique of the myriad systems of psychotherapy and proposes how biblical counseling offers a more thorough answer to our deepest needs. The presentation culminates in a discussion of the current state of psychotropic medications; categories of drugs, indications for their use, and their limitations. Because so many in our society and in the Church today are using these drugs, we all encounter people affected by them, whether in our roles as friends, family members, counselors, pastors or church workers. We will be better equipped to support or assist these individuals if we have a basic, balanced understanding of psychotropic medications and their effects.

C0557 Biblical Approach to Cognitive Therapy 1 credit

Cognitive therapy has in a short time become the predominant secular approach to counseling, in large measure because of its effectiveness. This development generates several questions for the biblical counselor. How can a secular approach be effective and how effective can a secular approach be? How biblical is cognitive therapy? How would a biblical approach to cognitive therapy differ from the secular version? What would a comprehensive biblical approach to cognitive therapy look like and work? This course seeks to answer these questions.

CO558 Family Legacies: Multi-Generational Assessment & Restorative Strategies

1 credit

This course examines multi-generational family functioning and outcomes as measured by biblical concepts and relevant research. CO575 The Christian Nurture and Counseling of Children and Teens:A Theologically Rooted Model 1 credit

Beginning with reflections on the spiritual nature of children, this course then explores the implications this has for the church and the home, spiritual instruction, and parenting. Roles and goals for proactive, scripturally based parenting are proposed along with guidelines for managing negative behavior. Finally, a model is proposed for understanding and counseling with children and teens from a Christian perspective, when problems require outside assistance.

CO576 Biblical Analysis of the Self Esteem Movement 1 credit

This seminar offers a biblical examination of the self-esteem movement, illustrating how it has directed the Church away from God and toward modern psychology. In today's Church, there is a strong temptation to use vocabulary that is popular in society in order to make Christianity sound relevant. Christians have something far better than what the world offers, but in expressing that Good News they confuse people by using words that are already loaded with humanistic connotations and systems of thought. It would be better not to work toward goals variously described as self-esteem, self-love, or positive self-concept when counseling from a biblical perspective on man's condition.

CO579 Counseling Adolescents and Their Parents 1 credit

This course is an investigation of the historical, biblical, and legal aspects of the teen years. This course is designed to take an in depth look at the phenomenon of adolescence and how our society views the teen years. A practical approach to teenage behavioral problems will be studied while examining how the counselor can encourage and develop parental involvement in the therapeutic process. Counselors will learn techniques to help parents and teenagers back on the path of reconciliation.

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATIONHP100 Life Fitness*1 credit

This course is designed to provide students with a better understanding of the mechanics and components of fitness and wellness as it relates to the Biblical principle of body stewardship. The intent of this course is to help each student realize and practice the value and role of physical activity on a philosophical, physiological, and personal level.

HP102 Outdoor Living Skills1 credit

This course is designed to help students become actively involved in outdoor pursuits and to braid those pursuits together with the governing values and purpose in their lives. The focus is not to add something new to busy students' lives, but to assist in integrating ministry passion, fitness activity, and outdoor pursuits. Success in this course will result in students who are involved in moving people toward godliness while establishing quality fitness habits, all in the context of enjoyable outdoor activities.

HP115 Movement Education Practicum1 credit

This course is designed to help the pre-service HPE majors acquire basic movement concepts and skills (body, space, effort, relationship) for leading physically, active and healthy lives. A wealth of developmentally appropriate movement education activities will be presented. As well each student will assist and/or teach lessons in the HPE4ME homeschooled program and beyond.

HP202 Foundations of Health and Physical Education3 credits

This course is designed to help students develop a foundational understanding and a Christian philosophical perspective of health, physical education, and sports. The students are introduced to the vast interrelationships of physical education and health, fitness, recreation, dance, and other sub-disciplines of the HPERD alliance. Special attention will be given to related history, philosophy, professional organizations, and publications, as well as organizational and administrative problems, duties, and issues related to health and physical education.

HP203 Coaching Techniques2 credits

This course is designed to provide the student with an overview of the philosophy, psychology, organization, general responsibilities, and methodology of an athletic coach. Class content and assignments will involve theory as well as practice.

HP206 Personal and Community Health3 credits

This course is designed to help individuals incorporate and integrate the themes of health, wellness, and disease prevention into everyday life. The student is challenged to examine their lifestyle choices and behaviors so as to positively and favorably affect their health and well being now and in the future. Topics will include, yet not be limited to, consumer health, family and social health, environmental health, nutrition, weight management, mental and emotional health, communicable and chronic diseases, and substance use/abuse.

HP301 Individual, Dual, and Rhythmic Sports3 credits

This course is designed to aid the pre-service teacher to develop both knowledge and skill in a variety of sport activities such as badminton, racquetball, golf, tennis, tumbling, and rhythmic activities. Attention will be given to skill proficiency and assessment as well as rules, scoring, terminology, strategy, safety, and etiquette. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor

HP302 Adaptive Physical Education3 credits

This course is designed to assist the student in understanding the mental, emotional, social, and physical conditions that require special considerations in an Adapted Physical Education program. This includes both improved understanding and practical application of curriculum issues, instructional strategies, and assessment needed for inclusion in an Adapted Physical Education setting. Aiding, observing, and teaching experiences will be arranged with special populations to reinforce what students have learned. Also listed as ED318

HP303 Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries3 credits

This course serves as an introduction to prevention, evaluation, care, and rehabilitation of sport-related injuries. Conditioning, training programs, nutrition, taping, and care of common injuries are analyzed and synthesized. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor

HP304 Team Sports3 credits

This course is designed to aid the pre-service health and physical education K-12 teacher in developing knowledge, skill, and strategies for a variety of team sports. The following sports will be addressed: soccer, volleyball, basketball, baseball/softball, and street hockey.

HP305 Kinesiology2 credits

This course is dedicated to the analysis of human movements as it relates to body mechanics, basic skills, and athletic performance. Individual muscles (position and purpose), levers, and laws of nature as they relate to movement will be discussed. Prerequisites: SC206 or permission of instructor

HP305A Kinesiology3 credits

This course is dedicated to the analysis of human movements as it relates to body mechanics, basic skills, and athletic performance. Individual muscles (position and purpose), levers, and laws of nature as they relate to movement will be discussed. Prerequisites: SC206 or permission of instructor

HP306 Exercise Physiology2 credits

This course will study the effects of exercise on the human body and will include discussion of the scientific and spiritual needs for health and fitness maintenance as well as the principles related to various exercise needs and conditions. Prerequisite: SC206

HP306A Exercise Physiology 3 credits

This course will study the effects of exercise on the human body and will include discussion of the scientific and spiritual needs for health and fitness maintenance as well as the principles related to various exercise needs and conditions. Prerequisite: SC206

HP308 Motor Learning and Skill Analysis 2 credits

This course is designed to help students understand how humans learn to move and how motor learning and movement are influenced and affected by the life span developmental processes. Particular emphasis is placed on critical element motor skill proficiency and assessment with appropriate sequential progressions for achievement in motor learning experiences. (Prerequisite: permission of instructor)

HP310 First Aid, CPR, Aquatics, and Fitness Testing 0 credits

This course requires each student to successfully complete four competencies: a basic first aid/first responder's course, CPR for adult, child, and infant, an aquatics class covering the basic strokes, progressions, aquatic activities, and water safety, and finally, health-related fitness testing, which will be administered to health and physical education majors during the school year.

HP313/314/315 Sports Skills Proficiency and Assessment Exam 0 credits

This course requires each student to demonstrate adequate proficiency and demonstrated ability to assess each of the movement and sports skills covered in HP301 Individual, Dual, and Rhythmic Sports, HP304 Team Sports, and HP308 Motor Learning and Skill Analysis classes. The instructor will verify the proficiency and assessment of the student in each movement and sports skills.

HP401 Assessment in Health & Physical Education 2 credits

This course is designed to assist the student in developing an understanding of assessment including testing, measurement, and evaluation issues in the field of health and physical education. Included will be both knowledge and practical application of assessment goals, test selection and usage, statistical techniques/analysis, and developmental/administration of testing processes within relevant areas of study.

HP403 Senior Health & Physical Education Seminar 1 credit

This course is designed to enhance the students "knowledge of" and "ability to" participate in student teaching and future teaching in the areas of K-12 Health and Physical Education. The seminar involves reading and discussions dealing with current health and physical education issues. Attention will also be given to integration of Christian worldview.

HP405 Health Education Concepts and Strategies 3 credits

This course provides an overview of the teacher's role in comprehensive school health education including an introduction to the health status of youth, at-risk students, components of the coordinated school health program, National Health Education Standards, and Pennsylvania General Standards. Information is provided on school health services, a healthful and safe school environment, the comprehensive school health education curriculum, instructional strategies, and assessment. An important focus of this course is on the skills needed to teach health in a new and different way. Also listed as ED425 Prerequisite: HP206 or permission of instructor and admission to the Education Department

HP419 Methods of Physical Education

3 credits

This course is designed to help students understand and demonstrate the various dimensions of effective teaching in K–12 physical education settings. The students will learn to functionally organize and develop a physical education curriculum and program implementation philosophy in accordance with NASPE and PA standards. The students will have opportunity to prepare and teach educationally sound unit and lesson plans to “homeschooled” students. Particular attention will be given to managerial (routines and rules) principles, appropriate assessment, safety, game modifications, sequential progressions, and other effective teaching strategies and programming issues. Also listed as ED419 Prerequisites: HP301, HP304, and admission to the Education Department

HP422 Exercise and Nutrition

3 credits

This course seeks to investigate the foundational content areas of exercise and nutrition and help the student apply them in the realms of sports and performance. Areas of healthy living are explored both individually and in interactive formats to provide students with both general application tools as well as personal feedback. (Prerequisite: permission of instructor)

HEALTH SCIENCE

HS201 Health Science Observation I

1 credit

This course is designed to introduce the student to the professional health care fields of Athletic Training, and/or Physical or Occupational Therapy. In the course, students will have the opportunity to do hands on health care professional observations, and will begin to develop a foundational knowledge about their chosen health care career interest.

HS202 Health Science Observation II

1 credit

This course is designed to introduce the student to the professional health care fields of Athletic Training, and/or Physical or Occupational Therapy. It is purposely designed as a continuation of the HS201 course. In the course, students will have the opportunity to do hands on health care professional observations, and continue to develop a foundational knowledge about their chosen health care career interest.

HS301 Health Science Practicum I

2 credits

This course is designed to help the student to develop a basic foundational knowledge's of the professional health care fields of Athletic Training and/or Physical (or Occupational) Therapy. In the course, students will have the opportunity to do hands on health care professional observations and simple treatment related activities. Moreover, students will develop a foundational knowledge of relevant sports and exercise nutritional principles and issues.

HS302 Health Science Practicum II

2 credits

This course is designed to help the student to continue to develop basic foundational knowledge's of the professional health care fields of Athletic Training and/or Physical (or Occupational) Therapy. It is purposely designed as a continuation of the HS301 course. In the course, students will have the opportunity to do hands on health care professional observations and simple treatment related activities. Moreover, students will develop a foundational knowledge of the field and career of Physical Therapy.

HS401 Health Science Application I

2 credits

This course is designed to help the student to grow in their understanding of the treatment approaches in the professional health care fields of Athletic Training and/or Physical (or Occupational) Therapy. In the course, students will have the opportunity to do hands on health care professional by continuing to learn through observations, and by participation in basic prevention, care, and treatment procedures. Moreover, students will develop a foundational knowledge of orthopedic injury assessment, treatment, and care.

HS402 Health Science Application II

2 credits

This course is designed to help the student to continue to grow in their understanding of the treatment approaches professional health care fields of Athletic Training and/or Physical (or Occupational) Therapy. It is purposely designed as a continuation of the HS401 course. In the course, students will have the opportunity to do hands on health care professional by continuing to learn through observations, and by participation in basic prevention, care, and treatment procedures. Moreover, students will develop a foundational knowledge of the nature of, and basic therapy of musculoskeletal injuries.

LANGUAGE

LA301/302 Greek I and II

4 credits

These courses are designed to begin teaching the fundamentals of biblical (koine) Greek to students desiring to be able to read from the Greek New Testament. Prerequisite for LA302 is LA301

LA401 Greek III

3 credits

This course will build upon the skills developed in LA301 and LA302. Students will be introduced to Greek syntax and will expand their Greek vocabulary. Passages from the New Testament will be used to increase students' translation and parsing speed. Prerequisite: LA302

LA402 New Testament Greek Exegesis

3 credits

This course builds upon the skills developed from LA301, LA302, and LA401 as students translate, parse, and exegete their way through the New Testament. Word study tools will be employed as students complete an exegetical paper of a passage from the New Testament. This course is designed to prepare students for Greek on a seminary level or for the entry-level pastorate. Prerequisite: LA401

LA490 Independent Study in New Testament Greek

1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is an independent study in New Testament Greek designed to give the student practice in translation, parsing, syntax, and exegesis. Paper required. Prerequisite: LA401

LITERATURE

LI201C World Literature I

3 credits

This course presents a chronological study of great literary works of Western culture from the ancient classics through the Renaissance. This is a writing-intensive course that requires

LI303 Studies in Dramatic Literature3 credits

This course traces the development of dramatic literature from the classical Greek period through contemporary times. This reading-intensive course requires discussion, writing, and project work. Prerequisite: EN103, EN105, or LI210

LI304 The Short Story3 credits

This course is designed to study the characteristics and influence of the short story as a modern literary genre. The emphasis will be on the five elements: conflict, plot, characterization, theme, and symbolism/irony. Modern short stories will be studied, and the historical development of this genre in America and Europe will be traced. This is a writing-intensive course that requires reading, discussion, writing, and critical thinking. Prerequisite: EN103, EN105, or LI210

LI331 Selected Works of Shakespeare3 credits

This writing-intensive course will emphasize the interpretation of Shakespeare's plays content, style, and characterization. Writings will consist predominantly of literary analysis. The course will seek to help the student develop an understanding of the themes and applications of these classics. Prerequisite: EN103, EN105, or LI210

LI341 Foundations of Literary Criticism3 credits

This course in literary criticism deals with the philosophy, systems, and patterns by which literature is studied. The focus of the course is to understand how to work with literary text within its literal, grammatical, and cultural/historical contexts in order to determine authorial intent. Works that lay the foundation for literary criticism will be examined, and several stellar literary texts will be evaluated. Prerequisite: EN103, EN105, or LI210

LI401 Themes in Adolescent Literature and Film3 credits

This reading-intensive course is designed to acquaint prospective teachers of English, potential writers, and others who work with youth with the classic and current film of literature appropriate for the needs and capabilities of junior and early high school students. This course is designed to trace the literary themes of books written for and about adolescents. Prerequisite: EN103, EN105, or LI210

LI402 Studies in the Novel3 credits

This course traces the development of the novel as a literary genre from its 17th–18th-century inception to the present. This reading-intensive course will track the changes in the areas of plot structure, characterization, and ethical appeal. The position of the novel in literary tradition, the purpose of the novel as a genre, and the power of the novel form will be discussed. Prerequisite: EN103, EN105, or LI210

LI490 Independent Study in Literature1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is a program of independent study open to students interested in areas not covered by current course offerings. Areas of concentration and other details may be worked out between the student and the instructor. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor and the department chair

LI495 Seminar for Academic Assistant in Literature3 credits

This seminar will provide qualified candidates an opportunity to work closely with a mentoring professor in the field of the student's study.

LI510 Puritan Writings of American Authors3 credits

This course will trace the writings of American Puritans in sermon, poetry, devotional, and treatise. Its focus will be to seek out the personal stance of these authors (Bradford, Winthrop, Bradstreet, Taylor, I. Mather, C. LI535 Thesis in American Literary Studies3 credits

This thesis project is designed for the student, upon advisor approval, to thoroughly study one time arena or author pivotal to American literary thought. A thesis will be written that generates an idea or influence found in the time arena of thoughts or author's works.

LITERACYLY312 Literacy Development and Instruction in Core Secondary Courses*3 credits

Focus is on research-based best practices in literacy interventions; critical components of reading and how these components pose challenges for students with disabilities; use of explicit and systematic instruction; review/evaluation of secondary literacy programs and materials using research-based criteria. There is a 50 hour Level Three Practicum attached to this course.

MATHEMATICS

MA102 College Mathematics I

3 credits

This is the first course in a two-course sequence designed to develop, review, strengthen, and extend basic concepts and skills in mathematics. The course begins with an introduction to problem solving and proceeds through elementary set theory, logic, number systems and bases, an examination of the basic arithmetic operations of addition, subtraction, multiplication and division of integers and fractions, number theory, real numbers and beginning algebra. Future K-4 teachers will develop a deeper understanding of the mathematical topics they will be teaching in their own classrooms.

MA104 College Mathematics II

3 credits

This is the second course in a two-course sequence. The topics covered include concepts from elementary algebra, geometry, trigonometry, and statistics. The student will demonstrate an ability to solve equations in algebra. Students will demonstrate understanding of plane and three dimensional geometry, trigonometry of both right and non-right triangles, and of statistics through correlation and linear regression.

MA204 Discrete Mathematics

3 credits

This course is an introduction to discrete mathematics. The student will demonstrate an understanding of topics including but not limited to the following: counting using combinations and permutations, Pascal's Triangle, the Binomial Theorem, and elementary set theory, topics in graph theory, basic logic and mathematical reasoning. Connections with secondary school mathematics will be presented. Prerequisite: Demonstrated skills in algebra.

MA206 Linear Algebra

3 credits

This course is an introduction to the basic ideas of linear algebra. The student will develop an understanding of topics including but not limited to systems of linear equations, matrices and determinants, vector spaces, linear transformations, and transformation geometry. Connections with secondary school mathematics will be presented. Use of technology will be integrated with instruction. Prerequisite: MA204 or consent of the department.

MA212 Calculus I

3 credits

This course is an introduction to the basic concepts of calculus. The student will develop an understanding of topics such as limits, continuity, finding derivatives of functions, applications of derivatives to science, economics, and other areas. Use of technology is integrated in the instruction. Prerequisite: Demonstrated skills in algebra and trigonometry.

MA213 Calculus II

3 credits

A continuation and extension of the concepts studied in MA212. The student will show an understanding of topics such as techniques of integration, applications of the definite integral to geometry and physics, logarithms and exponential functions, and use of technology. Prerequisite: MA212

MA216 Introduction to Statistics3 credits

This course is an introduction to the basic concepts and methods of statistics. Students will acquire an understanding of such topics as methods of random sampling, measures of central tendency and dispersion of data, histograms, binomial and normal distributions, linear regression and correlation, confidence intervals, and hypothesis tests for means and proportions. The student will also learn how to use a statistical computer package.

MA303 College Geometry3 credits

This course is an introduction to geometry. The student will develop an understanding of topics including but not limited to Euclidean Geometry, constructions, proof in geometry, non-Euclidean geometries and use of technology. Prerequisite: MA212 and MA204

MA312 Calculus III3 credits

This course is a continuation of MA212 and MA213. The student will develop an understanding of topics such as improper integrals, indeterminate forms, infinite series and power series, polar coordinates, three-dimensional geometry, vector-valued functions, partial derivatives, multiple integrals. Prerequisite: MA 213

MA316 Probability and Statistics3 credits

This course is an introduction to the basic concepts and methods of probability and statistics. The student will show an understanding of topics such as computing probabilities of events, probability distributions, Bayes' Theorem, measures of central tendency, linear regression and correlation. Use of technology is integrated with instruction. Prerequisite: MA312

MA322 Number Theory3 credits

This course is an introduction to number theory and mathematical thinking. The student will develop an understanding of topics including but not limited to divisibility, greatest common divisor and least common multiple, the Euclidean Algorithm, congruence's, Fundamental Theorem of Arithmetic, rational and irrational numbers, and connections with secondary mathematics. The student will also demonstrate an understanding of elementary logic, and conjecture and proof in mathematics. Connections with secondary school mathematics will be presented. Prerequisite: Declared concentration in mathematics or consent of the department.

MA401 Introductory Analysis3 credits

This course is an introduction to the basic concepts of mathematical analysis, or "why calculus works". The student will demonstrate an understanding of topics such as the structure of the real number system, proofs of various limit theorems, continuity and differentiation of functions of a real variable, the Riemann Integral, and sequences and series. Connections with secondary school mathematics will be presented. Prerequisite: MA204 and MA312 or consent of the department

MA402 Abstract Algebra3 credits

This course is an introduction to algebraic structures. The student will develop an understanding of topics such as rings, integral domains, fields, ideals, polynomials, and groups. Connections with secondary school mathematics will be presented. Prerequisites: MA204 or consent of the department.

MA404 Mathematical Seminar2 credits

This course is a capstone course for the Mathematics Education program. Topics relevant to the secondary school mathematics curriculum will be examined from an advanced point of view. Topics will be drawn from Algebra, Geometry, Calculus, Probability and Statistics, and the History of Mathematics. Prerequisite: MA217 and MA312

MA490 Independent Study in Math1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is a semi-independent study of a topic of interest to the student which is not covered in the regular courses. Prerequisite: Senior standing and consent of the department

MISSIONSMI240 Understanding Islam*2 credits

This introductory course is designed to provide the basic information about Islam. It will cover Islamic beliefs and practices, social and political issues as set forth in the Qur'an, and the saying of the prophet Muhammad Hadith.

MI301 Missionary Anthropology3 credits

A study of culture, customs, moral codes, social institutions, languages, arts, religions, and industries of the world's peoples in order to give the student a better understanding (or an attraction for) along with skills and abilities to reach the people with whom he/she will labor.

MI302 Cross-Cultural Communication3 credits

This course is a study of positives and perplexities encountered during spoken and written communication where cultural and/or linguistic boundaries must be crossed.

MI306 The Dynamics of Discipleship3 credits

This course teaches that at the core of ministry leadership is the business of shepherding individuals toward God, helping them grow in their faith, and mobilizing them as productive parts of the body of Christ. This course is designed to introduce students to concepts of spiritual development, a biblical understanding of what it takes to be a shepherd, and approaches for growing people of various age groups through each stage of growth.

MI311 Intercultural Ministry Philosophy3 credits

This course is designed to help students to establish a Biblical foundational philosophy for ministering in intercultural environments and to introduce students to basic skills and competencies necessary for effective ministry in any culture. Emphasis will be placed on understanding non-negotiable Biblical principles, exploration of characteristics unique to intercultural and cross-cultural communities, and applying ministry principles to the specific needs of individuals across the globe.

MI315 Cultural Anthropology3 credits

This course is designed to provide students a working foundation toward understanding global cultures, languages, world views and belief systems. Emphasis will be placed on comparing and contrasting these dynamics with an eye toward both productive and proactive engagement with people of and in different cultures.

MI321 Intercultural Communication3 credits

This course is designed to develop the student's understanding of what culture is, how cultures communicate, increase sensitivity to and understanding of intercultural differences and similarities so that this awareness can lead to more effective communication by helping the student build an effective approach to communicating effectively in intercultural settings, including those where language barriers may exist. A focus will be placed on the many elements and processes involved in the sending and receiving of messages within intercultural contexts.

MI401 Church Planting and Development3 credits

A study of reaching people and building the local church both stateside and cross-culturally will be considered. This will start with the need to plant churches and that which is necessary to have a developing/expanding church. Biblical principles, theories, methods, and philosophies will be discussed along with the giving of real-life illustrations. The intent of the course is to be extremely practical so that the student will be prepared to start a church.

MI402 Missions Seminar3 credits

This course is a study of the relationships and ministry of the missionary as well as research into current trends in missionary work.

MI411 Intercultural Evangelism3 credits

This course is designed to help students develop an effective practical approach to bringing the unchanging Gospel to culturally diverse settings in today's world. Core Gospel concepts will be reviewed along with a evaluation of methods of engagement, challenges of communication, indigenous worldviews, cultural patterns and identification of local practical needs will be explored with a view to determining the logical starting point when communicating the Gospel to the target culture.

MI475 Missionary Apprenticeship Theory1 credit

This course is structured to help the student integrate the classroom material into the practical, ongoing ministries of global missions. The 15 week in-class theory course on campus is in preparation to the six-week period of continuing educational experiences (apprenticeship) on a ministry location under the mentoring supervision of an experienced missionary. This apprenticeship is required for each General Missions major after the completion of their junior year.

MI480 Missionary Apprenticeship Program (MAP)3 credits

This course is structured to help the student integrate the classroom material into the practical, ongoing ministries of global missions. The six-week period apprenticeship of continuing educational experiences will take place on a ministry location under the mentoring supervision of an experienced missionary. This apprenticeship is required for each Intercultural Studies major after the completion of their junior year. Appointment to a MAP practicum ministry location will be decided upon by the student, the professor and the student's home church.

MI482 Short-term Ministry Apprenticeship1, 2, or 3 credits

This study program is structured to assist the mission minded student to integrate what he/she is learning about the Great Commission and put it into action in a cross-cultural ministry for the duration of one week to a year. This program will be accomplished under the supervision of capable missionary personnel.

MI490 Independent Study in Missions

1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is designed to help the student study areas of missions not included in other missions courses. Areas to be studied and other details are developed between the student and the instructor. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor

ARMY ROTC

MIL101/102 Concepts of Leadership I and II

1 credit

Instruction focuses on providing a basic understanding of the Army and general military knowledge and skills while concentrating on leadership skills and civic responsibilities important to everyone. Classes are one hour each week.

MIL111L/112L, 131L/132L Leadership Application Laboratory

0 credit

This class focuses on hands-on application and reinforcement of classroom instruction as well as teaching weapons, first aid, land navigation, and tactical leadership. This class meets at various locations in the Scranton area for two hours each week, is highly encouraged for students in the basic course, and is required for students in the advanced course.

MIL138 Physical Fitness Training

1 credit

U.S. Army Master Fitness trainers supervise a comprehensive fitness program based on the latest military fitness techniques and principles. The classes are one hour in duration.

MIL201/202 Dynamics of Leadership I and II

2 credits

Instruction is designed to familiarize students with basic military leadership at the junior leader and immediate supervisor level. Classes are two hours each week.

MIL301/302 Basic Military Leadership I and II

2/1 credits

Instruction focuses on continued leadership development. Students are trained and evaluated on developing, managing, and presenting training to the MS I and II cadets. The goal of the MS I and II year is to prepare students for the National Leadership Development and Assessment Course. Classes are two hours each week.

MIL401/402 Advanced Military Leadership I and II

2/1 credits

Instruction focuses on teaching students to function as a member of a staff and continue to develop leadership skills. This course covers public speaking, military briefing, effective writing as well as training management, and administrative and logistical support. Classes are two hours each week.

MUSIC

MU101 Musicianship I

3 credits

This course is a systematic approach to music fundamentals that connects theory with experience. Basics of notation are reviewed and simple models for understanding melodic and harmonic elements are introduced. A survey of motives, phrase structures, period construction, cadences, and textural analysis underscores the relationship between melody and harmony.

MU102 Musicianship II3 credits

A systematic approach to musical concepts begun in Musicianship I. Students will work with voice-leading in four voices, common diatonic harmonic progressions, dominant and non-dominant 7th chords, leading-tone 7th chords, modulation, secondary dominants, and binary and ternary forms. Special emphasis is given to the development of functional keyboard skills. Students will analyze great works from the Anthology for Musical Analysis, and will compose a 4-part choral piece and a sacred piece. Prerequisite: MU101 or permission of instructor

MU104 Aural Skills I2 credit

A performance oriented approach to aural perception of rhythm, meter, intervals and scales. Through systematic training in recognition, identification, and performance of these musical elements, students will develop a "hearing" eye and "seeing" ear. Special emphasis is given to sight-singing, error detection, and rhythmic and melodic dictation. Prerequisite: MU101

MU108 Introduction to Music and Culture3 credits

An overview of musical styles and practices reflecting the geographical and historical cultures of the world, with the intention to expand the student's knowledge, deepen listening skills and increase aesthetic appreciation for musical expressions beyond the familiar styles of western civilization.

MU110 Music Performance Seminar0 credits

A weekly plenary session required of all music majors that provides a public forum for music appreciation, performance, and career development. Recitals and guest lectures are featured each semester. All interested in the experience of music are welcome to attend.

MU201 Musicianship III3 credits

This course is a historical approach to musical analysis focusing on late Renaissance vocal and early Baroque instrumental composition. Techniques of invention and fugue are studied with special emphasis on the works of J.S. Bach. Theme and variation, sonata, and rondo forms are analyzed in works from the Classical period. Students will compose an invention, fugue exposition, and an original theme and variation sequence employing standard variation techniques and new harmonic progressions. Prerequisite: MU 102 or permission of instructor

MU202 Musicianship IV3 credits

This course is a continuation of the historical approach to musical analysis in MU201 with a systematization of compositional procedures and styles from the Romantic era through the first half of the 20th century. Remaining aspects of Western music that are covered include chromatic harmony, extended tertian and quartal harmony, (especially as used in 20th century jazz and impressionism), and such modern theoretical analysis including serial composition and other 20th century trends. Students will compose and analyze pieces in all styles studied. Prerequisite: MU201 or permission of instructor

MU209 Aural Skills II2 credit

A performance oriented approach to aural perception of triads, 7th chords, complex rhythmic subdivisions, and the harmonic implications of melodies. Students strengthen aural acuity by practicing the recognition, identification, and performance of these musical elements. Special emphasis is given to contextualized part-singing and to bass line and harmonic dictation.

Prerequisite: MU101

MU306 Group Vocal Technique 2 credits

This course prepares choral directors to successfully teach good vocal technique in the choral rehearsal. Through proper application of appropriate exercises to particular vocal problems—breathing, support, diaphragm activity, resonance, range extension, register consistency, vowel, modification, etc.—students will learn how to develop a beautiful choral sound. The class will function as a workshop in which students will develop their rehearsal/teaching skills in front of the rest of the class. Prerequisite: MU202

MU313 Music History: Ancient to Renaissance 2 credits

This course is a summary of the major movements, genres, and forms in Western music from Ancient Music to the Renaissance Era. Through reading of text and primary sources, listening to recorded examples, score reading, and class discussion, students will establish a foundation for musical analysis, performance evaluation, and aesthetic discrimination. Written work includes summaries of primary source readings. Prerequisite: MU202 or permission of instructor

MU316 Instrumental Composition and Arranging 2 credits

This course prepares students to compose for traditional orchestral instruments, with a secondary emphasis on scoring for band and instrumental ensembles. By studying the distinctive sounds of instruments sounding alone, and in combination with other instruments, as well as the techniques employed to produce those sounds, students will learn how to translate any musical texture to an instrumental medium. Prerequisite: MU201

MU317 Music History: Baroque to Classic 2 credits

This course is a summary of the major movements, genres, and forms in Western music from the Baroque to the Classic Era. Through reading of text and primary sources, listening to recorded examples, score reading, and class discussion, students will establish a foundation for musical analysis, performance evaluation, and aesthetic discrimination. Written work includes summaries of primary source readings. Prerequisite: MU202 or permission of instructor

MU319 Music History: The Romantic Era 2 credits

This course is a summary of the major movements, genres, and forms in Western music during the Romantic Era. Through reading of text and primary sources, listening to recorded examples, score reading, and class discussion, students will establish a foundation for musical analysis, performance evaluation, and aesthetic discrimination. Written work includes summaries of primary source readings. Prerequisite: MU202 or permission of instructor

MU321 Music History: 20th Century and World Music 2 credits

This course is a summary of the major movements, genres, and forms in Western music during the 20th century, including an introduction to World Music. Through reading of text and primary sources, listening to recorded examples, score reading, and class discussion, students will establish a foundation for musical analysis, performance evaluation, and aesthetic discrimination. Written work includes summaries of primary source readings. Prerequisite: MU202 or permission of instructor

MU323 Class Percussion1 credit

This course prepares instrumental directors to teach beginning instrumentalists in a school or church setting and to develop a sensitive, intelligent approach to rehearsing ensembles. Students will develop an understanding of the fundamentals of playing and teaching percussion instruments. Particular attention will be given to technical problems and the selection and care of instruments. Prerequisite: MU202

MU324 Class Strings1 credit

This course prepares instrumental directors to teach beginning string players in a school or church setting, and to develop a sensitive, intelligent approach to rehearsing ensembles. Students will learn the fundamentals of playing these instruments, with particular attention given to tone production, intonation, technical problems, and the selection and care of instruments. Prerequisite: MU202

MU325 One Accord1 credit

This is an ensemble consisting of four vocalists and accompanist that presents the ministry and mission of BBC to churches on regularly scheduled weekends throughout the school year. Open to both music majors and non-majors, three hours of weekly rehearsal are required. Prerequisite: Audition

MU326 Class Woodwinds1 credit

This course prepares instrumental directors to teach beginning woodwind players in a school or church setting, and to develop a sensitive, intelligent approach to rehearsing ensembles. Students will learn the fundamentals of playing these instruments, with particular attention given to tone production, intonation, technical problems, and the selection and care of instruments. Prerequisite: MU202

MU332 Class Brass1 credit

This class prepares instrumental directors to teach beginning instrumentalists in a school or church setting and to develop a sensitive, intelligent approach to rehearsing ensembles. Students will develop an understanding of the fundamentals of playing and teaching brass instruments. Particular attention will be given to tone production, intonation, technical problems, and the selection and care of instruments. Prerequisite: MU202

MU360 Chamber Singers1 credit

A 16-voice, select mixed ensemble that participates in BBC special events, weekend concerts, and an annual tour during spring break. Open to both music majors and non-majors, three hours of weekly rehearsal are required. Prerequisite: Audition

MU370 Concert Choral1 credit

This is a mixed ensemble of 40-45 voices that participates in BBC special events, weekend concerts, and a tour during spring break. Open to both music majors and non-majors, three hours of weekly rehearsal are required. Prerequisite: Audition

MU401 Conducting3 credits

This course introduces students to techniques and procedures of conducting choral music. Basic patterns are developed from the standpoint of clarity and appropriateness of gesture to tempo, dynamics, articulation, and interpretation. Prerequisite: MU202

MU404 Foundations and Issues in Worship 2 credits

A study of the biblical and historical precedents of Christian worship as correctives to the errors that can easily dominate it: anthropocentric, rather than God-centered attitudes toward worship, methodological approaches to worship, and the performance-based approach. Scripture will be the primary source in examining the responsibility faced by the 21st-century Church as it attempts to worship in spirit and in truth in the face of many challenges.

MU423 Church Music Administration 3 credits

This course prepares ministers of music for pastoral leadership by refining a philosophy of music already developed in MU404. Students will develop platform skills while learning to develop and implement multiple-choir and instrumental programs. Special units of study will focus on rehearsal techniques, record keeping, financial administration, resources (choral, instrumental, worship), and facility. Prerequisite: MU404

MU426 Hymnology 3 credits

This course is an historical study of the origins and purposes of the hymns of the church, including examination of hymns as theological expression, literature, devotional material, and musical expression. Special emphasis will be given to the importance and viability of hymn singing in the 21st-century church.

MU429 Church Music Apprenticeship 2 credits

Practical opportunities for upper-classmen under the mentorship of qualified musicians in the areas of platform experience, administrative responsibility, and actual direction of musicians in the church. Consisting of a regular weekend ministry in a church, parameters of this project will be determined from the outset through the cooperative effort of the instructor, the sponsoring church, and the student. Students will journal their experience, and evaluation will focus largely on this record.

MU500 Philosophy of Christian Music 2 credits

This course covers the development of a distinctly Christian philosophy of music based on scriptural principles with examination of historical trends, styles, and movements in secular and sacred music and application to present-day culture.

MU501 Graduate Music History 2 credits

This course is a survey of stylistic periods, literature, and major composers from the Renaissance to the present. Recorded illustrations and score study will supplement classroom lecture and discussion.

MU502 Applied Music Assessment 0 credit

This course is the audition requirement used to assess the student's vocal and/or instrumental performance ability.

MU504 Applied Music Proficiency 1 or 2 credits

These are private lessons in an area of vocal or instrumental performance with the agreement of the music faculty.

MU506 Ensemble 1 or 2 credits

This is small music ensemble participation or accompanying.

MU510 Principles and History of Music Education2 credits

This is an introduction to the history of American school music education from its European roots to the present. Philosophies of music and the development of music teaching in schools will be discussed.

MU520 Advanced Choral Methods2 credits

This course includes instruction in the development of skills appropriate for administrating, conducting, and promoting a junior and senior high choral program. Topics relevant to score study, rehearsal scheduling, choral auditions, budgeting, student motivation, and classroom behavior will be covered.

MU525 Advanced Conducting Techniques3 credits

This course includes advanced skill development for choral and instrumental conducting relating to baton technique, score reading, transposition, manual skills, and rehearsal technique.

MU530 Instrumental Methods2 credits

This course covers the development of teaching and playing skills on the standard band and orchestral instruments. Presentation and study of music from publishers of solo and ensemble literature is included.

MU540 Graduate Music Theory/Formal Analysis2 credits

This course offers enhanced review of the principles of music composition from the common practice era including basic elements of form and analysis. Aural skills including sight singing and rhythmic dictation are covered.

MU560 Independent Study in Music1, 2, or 3 credits

This is an independent study through the use of research, reading, and writing under the guidance of a faculty mentor. The course will be developed in an area of student interest.

OFFICE ADMINISTRATIONOP101 Keyboarding*1 credit

This course teaches the computer keyboard with emphasis on developing speed, accuracy, and proper technique. Students with at least one year of keyboarding or typing instruction may test out of keyboarding.

OP104 Business Communication3 credits

Students will be introduced to informal and formal forms of communication along with a concise and clear language structure used in most organizations. The student will integrate the principles of grammar, spelling, and punctuation while creating various forms of written communication, such as email, blogs, letters, memos, reports, and agendas. Oral communication in business and intercultural communication will be included.

OP110 Microsoft Office I: Word3 credits

This course emphasizes the theory and practice of word processing with the use of Microsoft Word for Windows. Training in the computer's operating system is also included. Prerequisite: Keyboarding competency

OP112 Comprehensive Microsoft Excel 3 credits

This course is designed to teach the concepts of spreadsheets using Microsoft Excel. Instruction will include spreadsheet preparation, charts, functions, tables, auditing tools, analyzing and consolidating data, macros, templates, and more. The format will include quizzes, lesson application assignments, exams, and projects.

OP200 Document Production/ Transcription 3 credits

This course is designed to build both accuracy and speed. Emphasis will be placed on the production of business letters, interoffice memos, reports, tables, and other office documents using Microsoft Word. Training will include development of skills in transcription. Prerequisite: OP110

OP206 Computer Applications 3 credits

This course teaches the concepts of database systems using Microsoft Access and spreadsheets using Microsoft Excel. Instruction in Access will introduce students to tables, queries, forms, and reports. Instruction in Excel will include spreadsheet preparation, charts, functions, tables, and more. The format includes lecture, hands-on class work, and projects.

OP208 Graphic Design 3 credits

Concepts of graphic design are taught while learning the software Adobe InDesign. The course surveys the concepts, hardware, software, and processes used in design as students produce forms, documents, newsletters, brochures, and other publication.

OP215 Human Relations in Organizations 3 credits

Students are taught an understanding of themselves and their personal, social, and vocational relationships. Emphasis is placed upon group dynamics while discussing human relations, the role of motivation, leadership, and dealing with conflicts, handling situations relative to the office, developing social skills, and improving personal appearance.

OP218 Office Procedures 3 credits

This course is designed to introduce a wide variety of office practices. Some topics that will be covered include records management, telecommunications, mail processing, event and travel planning and reprographics. Students will prepare resumes and practice job interviews. Students are encouraged to develop an attitude of professionalism and responsibility in the area of Christian service. Prerequisite: OP110

OP220 Internship 1 credit

This course is designed to provide on-the-job training in office duties and in dealing with actual situations encountered on the job. Assignments will be individually selected to meet the interests of the students. At least one practicum course must be completed in a Christian ministry environment such as local churches, Christian schools, mission agencies, or college office. The instructor will meet with students to discuss their progress and evaluation. Prerequisite: Completion of a minimum of 9 credits of office professionals courses.

OP221 Microsoft Office II: Access and PowerPoint 3 credits

This course is comprised of two parts. Part one teaches the concepts of database systems using Microsoft Access. Instruction in Access will introduce students to tables, queries, forms and reports. Part two teaches the mechanics of PowerPoint software along with concepts of good design.

OP222 Microsoft Office III: Excel and Outlook 3 credits

This course is comprised of two parts. Part one teaches the concepts of spreadsheets using Microsoft Excel. Instruction in Excel will include spreadsheet preparation, charts, functions, tables, auditing tools, analyzing and consolidating data, macros, templates and more. Part two teaches the functions of Microsoft Outlook in regards to email preparation, schedule building and tasks. The format will include lecture, quizzes, lesson assignments, exams and projects.

OP230 Readings in Office Administration 1 credit

This course involves the reading and reporting on articles in current Christian and business periodicals covering those areas which may not be given thorough coverage in other classes but which may be beneficial to the individual working in a Christian office setting. Suggested subjects for reading and reporting will be given at the beginning of each semester with consideration given to current advancements in the business office and to individual student needs.

ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP

OL501 Leading in Active Learning Ministry Environments 3 credits

This course is a study of organizational leadership theory and practice as it relates to the development and facilitation of active learning environments. Emphasis will be placed on identifying and evaluating students' personalities and leadership styles, adapting and using leadership approaches, and exploring principles for moving individuals and organizations toward growth and development.

OL502 Educational Organizations as Learning Communities 3 credits

Students will interact with organizational theory and learning theory to help them develop effective approaches to encouraging and facilitating learning in all levels of the organization.

OL503 Strategic Thinking for Educational Leaders 3 credits

This course engages students in the application of strategic theory, change theory, and implementation disciplines applied to real challenges within their organizations.

OL504 Developing Dynamic Teams 3 credits

This course leads students in an application of group and team theory for recruiting, developing, mobilizing, and mending teams for maximum effectiveness.

POLITICS

PO302 American Regime

3 credits

This course constitutes an inductive exploration of the fundamental principles of American political life through the close reading of seminal texts in the light of biblical revelation. The primary purpose of the course is for students to read difficult and unfamiliar texts that pertain to American political life with increasing skill and pleasure and to converse with each other so as to better understand and embrace the Christian worldview in light of competing systems of political thought. Of particular concern will be the meaning of the United States Constitution, the government that has emerged from it, the virtues and principles underlying democratic republican government in general, and the particular demands it places upon citizens and statesmen.

PO401 Politics and the Christian Worldview

3 credits

This course constitutes an inductive exploration of politics and society through the close reading of seminal texts in the light of biblical revelation. The primary purpose of the course is for students to read difficult and unfamiliar political texts with increasing skill and pleasure and to converse with each other so as to better understand and embrace the Christian worldview in light of competing systems of political and sociological thought. In this regard, particular attention will be paid to the study of how political systems and governments emerge, how they maintain themselves (both internally and with respect to foreign powers), and how they deal with questions of injustice leading to reform or revolution.

PSYCHOLOGY

PS100 General Psychology

3 credits

This course is an introduction to the field of psychology as a scientific discipline concerned with the study of behavior and cognitive processes. Included is a survey of fields such as biological bases of behavior, sensation and perception, learning, motivation and emotion, cognition, development, personality, intelligence, social behavior, abnormal behavior, and counseling.

PS117 Understanding and Treating Addictions 3 credits

This course is an overview of substance and behavioral addictions with leading focuses on treatment. The student will explore biological, neuropsychological, social, and spiritual and Eco systematic influences and concerns related to helping those struggling with addiction.

PS202 Human Growth and Development

3 credits

This course is a study of human biological, sociological, and psychological development from birth through senescence. Emphasis is given to the child and adolescent periods.

PS203 Introduction to Counseling

3 credits

This course is a study of counseling theories and practices which apply to all people-related professions. A biblical counseling model covering intake to termination of a counseling relationship is presented.

PS205 Child Development, Cognition and Learning I:

Conception to Age 2: Typical and Atypical Development

3 credits

This course is a consideration of both typical and atypical patterns of learning and development from conception to age 2. Students learn appropriate and effective approaches, strategies and tools to influence positively the development and learning of infants and toddlers.

PS206 Child Development, Cognition and Learning II:Ages 3–5: Typical and Atypical Development*3 credits

A consideration of both typical and atypical patterns of learning and development from ages three to five. Students learn appropriate and effective approaches, strategies and tools to influence positively the development and learning of those in late toddlerhood to early childhood.

PS207 Child Development, Cognition and Learning III:Ages 6–9: Typical and Atypical Development*3 credits

A consideration of both typical and atypical patterns of learning and development from ages six to nine. Students learn appropriate and effective approaches, strategies and tools to influence positively the development and learning of those in early to early childhood.

PS303 Abnormal Psychology3 credits

This course is a study of mental and behavioral pathology including possible causes, symptoms, and methods of remediation for given disorders. A survey of diagnostic classification systems and preventive measures with attention to cultural and philosophical factors is included.

PS304 Women Counseling Women3 credits

This course is designed to develop the student's ability to provide biblical counsel relevant to issues facing women today. The student will assess cultural influences versus biblical principles and how that has an impact on growth and discipleship in women. Discussion will center on how one's spiritual heart condition influences one's ability to counsel and to be counseled. Also listed as EM336

PS308 Psychology of Learning and Education3 credits

This course is an introduction to the concepts of psychology which relate to the learning process. Among the topics considered are learning theories and their applications, characteristics of students and teachers, learning and teaching styles, and exceptional children.

PS312 Issues in Professionalism1 credit

This course is an orientation to the fields and professions in the arenas of counseling and psychology and a review of legal and ethical issues relevant to counseling activities. Consideration is given to licensure and certification issues as well as continuing education.

PS402 Historical and Contemporary Theories in Counseling3 credits

This course is a survey of recent trends in secular and Christian counseling. Theories are traced with reference to their historical settings; diverse counseling models are critiqued and evaluated.

PS414 Marriage and Family Dynamics3 credits

This course is a study of both ineffective and effective marital and family relating patterns. The student will be introduced to a variety of counseling approaches for group intervention. Students will also be equipped with a biblical model for working with couples and families.

PS416 Crisis Counseling3 credits

This course is a study of crisis intervention and counseling. Students will be introduced to a variety of models for assessing, strategies for helping, and approaches for counseling those in crisis. They will learn how to effectively help others in times of crisis from both professional and ministry perspectives.

PS440 Psychology for Residence Leadership3 credits

This course is a study of psychology for residence leadership with an emphasis upon counseling, administration, and personality development within the residence hall program. This course is available only to current Resident Assistants.

PS451 Personality Theory3 credits

This course is an exploration of major theories regarding the development, structure, and dynamics of human personality.

PS453 Social Psychology3 credits

This course is a study of the influence of social forces and interaction on human behavior. The effects of social class, mass media and group membership upon attitude formation are considered. Application is placed on ministry settings.

PS454 Tests and Measurements3 credits

This course is an introduction to personality, psychological, and intellectual assessment instruments. Statistical concepts and techniques are introduced, such as measures of central tendency and dispersion, normal probability curve, and descriptive and inferential statistical procedures.

PS490 Independent Study in Psychology1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is an independent study designed to meet the needs of the individual student who desires summer reading in psychology. Written reports required in this course on assigned work. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor

READING SPECIALISTRS501 Diagnostic Evaluation of Reading Problems*3 credits

The student becomes familiar with and practices using various types of formal and informal instruments and techniques used to discover a reader's strengths and weaknesses. The course provides instruction in the writing of evaluation reports and how to share the results with parents and school personnel.

RS502 Teaching Struggling Readers and Writers3 credits

This course provides the study of methods and strategies needed to teach the struggling reader. Based upon evaluation data, instructional plans are devised to meet the specific needs of the struggling reader. The student is taught how to write a plan of action, carry out the plan of action, and how progress will be measured.

RS503 Reading Clinical Experience3 credits

This is the culminating course for the reading specialist program of study. The course requires the demonstration of competency in working with K-12 students possessing reading difficulties.

RS590 Best Practices in Reading1, 2 or 3 credits

This course is designed to enhance the student's knowledge in the study and application of "best practices" in reading literacy and education.

SCIENCE

SC203/207 Biology I with Lab

4 credits

This course is an introduction to the basic principles of biology. Students will demonstrate an understanding of such topics as cell structure, function, and division, metabolic pathways, genetics. The student further explores these concepts through a separate three-hour lab (SC207) taken in conjunction with the three hours of classroom instruction (SC203).

SC205 Integrated Science

3 credits

This course covers topics in physics, chemistry, astronomy, geology, meteorology, and botany. Students will develop literacy in science and technology, gains an understanding of and confidence in using the scientific method, and is introduced to current science pedagogy. This course is designed to give students majoring in Early Childhood/Elementary Education PreK-4 a practical understanding of the content and a working knowledge of the practices necessary to successfully teach science in any grade from kindergarten through fourth.

SC206/208 Human Anatomy and Physiology I with Lab

4 credits

This course is an introduction to the structures and functions of the human body. Students will demonstrate an understanding of how their bodies operate at the tissue, organ, and system levels. The student further explores these concepts through a separate three-hour lab (SC208) taken in conjunction with the three hours of classroom instruction (SC206). Prerequisites: SC203 and SC207.

SC209 Meteorology

3 credits

This course is an introduction to the content and skills of understanding the weather. The student will learn essential concepts of meteorology, collect weather data, and develop elementary skills of forecasting.

SC211 Essentials of Genetics

3 credits

This course is an integrated study of both classical genetics and molecular genetics. Students will demonstrate an understanding of the basic principles governing the transmission, mutation, and function of the genetic material. Prerequisite: SC203.

SC214 Astronomy

3 credits

This course is a survey of basic astronomical concepts. Students will demonstrate an understanding of stars, planets, galaxies and the universe along with various techniques for collecting astronomical data. Additionally, students will discuss how a Christian worldview is viable in the study of astronomy.

SC216 Geology

3 credits

This course is a survey of geological concepts. The student will gain an understanding of rocks, minerals, plate tectonics, seismology, volcanology, surface processes, and the role and importance of natural resources in our lives.

SC218/SC218L Biology II with Lab

4 credits

This course is an introduction to the basic principles of biology. Students will demonstrate an understanding of such topics as plant biology, microbiology, animal diversity, and ecology. The student further explores these concepts through a separate three-hour lab (SC218L) taken in conjunction with the three hours of classroom instruction (SC218).

SC220B Understanding Science3 credits

This course is an interdisciplinary view of science. Students will study the relationship between modern science and history, philosophy, religion (specifically Christianity), and popular culture to gain an understanding of the nature and limitations of science.

SC221/225 Chemistry I with Lab4 credits

This course is an introduction to the essential principles of inorganic chemistry. The student will understand atomic, molecular, and crystalline structures, explain the drives, energy changes, and stoichiometry of reactions, predict the effect of molecular geometry on physical and chemical characteristics; and solve problems related to these subjects. The student will further explore these concepts through a separate three hours lab (SC225) taken in conjunction with the three hours of classroom instruction (SC221). Prerequisite: High school chemistry or permission of the instructor.

SC222/226 Chemistry II with Lab4 credits

This course is an introduction to more of the essential topics in inorganic chemistry but with special units devoted to organic, electro-, and nuclear chemistry. The student will apply kinetics to reaction systems and chemical equilibria; describe the characteristic reactions, and stoichiometry of acids and bases; learn fundamental principles of electro-, organic and nuclear chemistry; and solve problems related to these subjects. The student further explores these concepts through a separate three-hour laboratory (SC226) taken in conjunction with the three hours of classroom instruction (SC222). Prerequisite: SC221 and SC225 or permission of the instructor.

SC223/223L Physics I with Lab4 credits

An introduction to the basic principles covered in a typical first-semester college physics. The student will study several aspects of motion, including motion of waves. The student will gain mastery of these concepts by solving and discussing problems involving them. The student will further explore these topics through a separate three-hour lab (SC223L) each week. Prerequisite: High school physics, MA201, or permission of the instructor.

SC224/224L Physics II with Lab4 credits

This course is an introduction to the basic principles normal to second-semester college physics. The student will study optics, electricity, magnetism, thermodynamics, and modern physics. A comfortable knowledge of these topics will be gained through solving and discussing copious problems. The student will further explore these topics through a separate three-hour (SC224L) each week. Prerequisite: SC223 or permission of the instructor.

SC231 Physiological Psychology4 credits

This course is a study of the nervous system as it relates to psychology including neural structure and function, pathology, and psychopharmacology. Students will apply this knowledge in the field of counseling including evaluating research, describing drug interaction, and identifying potential physiological causes for psychological symptoms. Prerequisite: PS100

SC254 Marine Biology and Ecology3 credits

This course is an overview of the marine environment. Basic scientific principles will be applied to the study of marine organisms and their diverse ecosystems.

SC255 Field Marine Biology and Ecology 3 credits

This course is a field study of the marine environment. Basic scientific principles will be applied to the study of marine organisms in their natural habitats. Emphasis will be on marine ecosystems and the interrelation of primary producers, invertebrates, and marine fishes.

SC261/SC261L Human Anatomy and Physiology II with Lab 4 credits

A more in depth study of the structures and functions of the human body. Students will demonstrate an understanding of how their bodies operate at the tissue, organ, and system levels. The student further explores these concepts through a separate three-hour lab (SC261L) taken in conjunction with the three hours of classroom instruction (SC261). Prerequisites: SC203, SC207, SC206 and SC208.

SC401 Introduction to Organic Chemistry and Biochemistry 3 credits

This course is an introductory study of the chemistry of life. Students will demonstrate an understanding of the structure and function of biomolecules, rates of chemical reactions, mechanisms of enzyme action, and metabolism. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor

SC412 Biotechnology 2 credits

This course is a study of the principles of molecular biology that make biotechnology possible and the techniques that come from the practical application of some of these principles. The student will apply these concepts and techniques to a given research project. One hour of discussion will precede a weekly three-hour lab. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor

SC490 Independent Study in Science 1, 2, or 3 credits

This course of independent study is open to students interested in areas of science not covered by current courses. All details are worked out between the student and the instructor. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor

SC505 The Bible, Evolution, and Intelligent Design 3 credits

This course explores the issues relative to the origins of life in particular and the cosmos in general as they relate to the Bible, evolutionary science and intelligent design. The course delves into the claims of those who advocate an evolutionary or intelligent design interpretation of origins, through reading, discussions, and presentations, appropriate responses to those claims will be suggested using a biblical apologetic approach involving a grammatical, historical literal method of biblical interpretation.

SC506 Astronomy: The Heavens Declare the Glory of God 3 credits

This course is a survey of basic astronomical concepts. Students will demonstrate an understanding of stars, planets, galaxies, and the universe along with various techniques for collecting astronomical data. Additionally, students will discuss how a Christian worldview is viable in the study of astronomy.

SPECIAL EDUCATION

SED320 Introduction to Special Education 3 credits

This course is an introduction to the exceptional learner and the range of special needs these students possess. Among topics considered, are outcomes of exceptional learner; Principles of instruction, assessment and other issues dealing with the role of the teacher.

SED411 Adapting Instruction and Assessment for the Young Exceptional Learner

3 credits

This course prepares students with the professional knowledge and skill competencies needed to promote optimal development in infants and toddlers (0–3), preschoolers (3–5), and primary-aged (6–8) children with special needs. This course presents disability characteristics, assessment practices, and interventions for inclusive and special education settings.

SED413

Teaching in the Inclusive Classroom

3 Credits

This course focuses on strategies and adaptation for designing academic instruction, supporting social and emotional learning, and planning for the sensory and physical needs of all students. The three tier model of intervention (RtI) is fully discussed as well as the inclusive teaching of the content areas. The course also covers adapting assessment within the inclusive classroom.

SPORTS MINISTRIES

SM301 History and Philosophy of Sports Ministry

3 credits

This course examines the history of ancient and modern sports and their relationship to both early and present Christianity. A special emphasis is given to the lives of influential Christians. A biblical rationale for sports ministry is presented, as are numerous ministry models.

SM302 Biblical Foundations for Sports Ministry

3 credits

This course provides a theological foundation for sports ministry. Competition and sports-related activities are viewed through the lens of Scripture, and emphasis is placed on the integration of faith and sports participation.

SM303 Evangelism and Discipleship in Sports Ministry

3 credits

This course examines the mandate to preach the Gospel and to make disciples within a sports ministry context. Students will learn the skills required to use sports and recreation effectively as vehicles to accomplish the ministry of evangelism and discipleship.

SM304 Administration and Organization of Sports Ministry

3 credits

This course is an examination of the various roles and functions required for establishing, organizing, and overseeing a sports ministry program. An emphasis is placed on the daily operation of a sports ministry and on the selection and oversight of activities, personnel, and facilities.

SM306 Sport Event and Facility Management 3 credits

This course will examine the basic principles and practices related to planning, funding, and operating sporting and recreation events and facilities. The course is designed to provide sports management managers with the general knowledge necessary for planning and operating sports and recreation facilities and events.

SM310 Sports Ministry Apprenticeship I

3 credits

This course requires a minimum ten-week full-time summer apprenticeship and is open to qualified students who have completed the junior year. Students will work directly with an experienced leader for training in sports ministry. The apprenticeship may be served in an approved local church, para-church, or mission agency. Consult with department chair.

SM402 Senior Sports Ministry Seminar1 credit

This course is a seminar dealing with current trends and issues in sports ministry. Attendance at the annual CSRM meeting is required.

SM410 Sports Ministry Apprenticeship II3 credits

This course is a part-time apprenticeship. Qualified students are placed in a community setting under an approved leader. Consult with department chair.

SOCIOLOGYSO111 Introduction to the Human Sciences*3 credits

This course offers a survey of the major disciplines that constitute the human sciences. Students will consider the fundamental character of disciplines such as psychology, economics, history, jurisprudence, and politics both from positivistic and praxeological standpoints. Furthermore, they will consider the contributions and place of each within the Christian Worldview.

SO402 Global Cultures and Geography3 credits

This course exposes the student to introductory material dealing with culture and geography especially designed for teaching geography in the secondary school. Geographical thinking about spatial relations, natural resources, human geographic processes, and key geographic topics provide the tools for examining worldwide cultures.

SPEECHSP100 Speech Communication*3 credits

This course is designed to aid the student in developing the fundamental tools necessary to become an effective communicator. Emphasis will be placed on the process of speech preparation and precise delivery.

SP101 Speech Communication3 credits

This course is designed to aid the student in developing the fundamental, introductory tools necessary to become an effective public communicator. Further, this section is designed to assist the pastoral student in the development of his public communication skills by introducing him to the basic principles of public communication preparation and delivery. This course will provide opportunities to gain experience in public speaking with the benefits of peer and instructor evaluation.

SP301 Oral Interpretation3 credits

This course introduces the student to the use of oral reading as a skill that can be used to minister to an audience. Training is given in the selection, analysis, vocal and physical techniques needed for effective presentation of meaningful pieces.

SP306 Mass Media3 credits

This course provides a foundation for understanding the mass media by examining the form, content, influence, and problems of books, periodicals, newspaper, music, film, radio, television, and the Internet.

SP490 Independent Study in Speech

1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is open to students interested in areas not covered by current course offerings. Advanced study and practice in public speaking, special voice and diction problems, as well as other communication skills, are options for the student. Prerequisites: SP100, permission of instructor, and permission of department chair

THEOLOGY

TH120 Building a Biblical Lifestyle

3 credits

This course helps the student to develop a philosophy and strategy of godly living that will guide him or her for a lifetime. These foundational concepts for successful Christian living include developing a Biblical world view, ethics and patterns of behavior; Bible study; prayer; and making Biblically-informed choices.

TH201 Theology II

3 credits

This course is a study of the revelation, inspiration, and canonicity of the Bible. Divine attributes, divine decree, trinitarianism, the person of the Father, and the person of Christ are also covered.

TH202C Theology III

3 credits

This course is a study of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit in both the Old and New Testaments, the creation, fall and death of man, the doctrine of salvation considered from man's need, God's methods in reaching man, and the application of the work of the Holy Spirit. The doctrines of angelology and demonology are also presented.

TH306 Theology IV

3 credits

This course presents the biblical basis of distinctively Baptist beliefs concerning the New Testament church and its ministry during the Church Age (ecclesiology). The biblical distinctives of Baptists are presented as a single, coherent theology of the Church, beginning with the doctrine of Biblical authority. This will also involve a careful examination of the various applications of the biblical doctrine of separation, as the biblical distinctives of Baptists are compared with the doctrine and practices of other theological movements.

TH401 Theology V

3 credits

This course presents the biblical, hermeneutical, and historical basis of Premillennialism and Pretribulationism while contrasting it with other millennial views. The major eschatological events are studied with special emphasis given to the doctrine of Pretribulational Premillennialism. Hermeneutical presuppositions of each eschatological system are discussed. The hermeneutics of the premillennial system are then related to an overall approach to Bible study.

TH480 Senior Seminar

3 credits

This course serves as (a capstone) a comprehensive review of the Biblical, Theological, and Worldview components of the Biblical Studies Curriculum. It will include a review of hermeneutics and of the biblical meta-narrative, which provides the framework from which all of the college's Biblical Studies courses are developed. It will also include a theological review and oral examination based on the college's (Baptist, Separatist, and Dispensational) theological and ecclesiastical positions. Prerequisites: TH201 and TH202

TH490 Independent Study in Theology1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is a program of independent study open to qualified students interested in areas of theological study not covered by current courses. Written reports are required. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor

TH507 Theological Issues and the Church3 credits

This course is a study of a variety of contemporary theological issues which are confronting local church leaders and members at this time. The emphasis is upon the biblical evaluation of these issues in light of the absolute Word of God and the cultural milieu in which they are occurring. The course will focus on the development of critical thinking and the building of a Christian world-view as a foundation for the critical analysis of the contemporary theological issues.

TH511 How to Develop a Biblical Worldview3 credits

This course is a presentation of the basic steps for building a Christian world-view that is true to the Bible. The student will be guided through the process of building a biblical world-view using case studies at various levels of doing theology: exegesis and biblical theology, linking from one passage to another in the Scriptures, categorizing all of the biblical data on various themes, validating extra-biblical truth claims, and applying biblical teaching to all of life.

TH516 Christology3 credits

This course is a study of the person and work of Christ. It will deal with the question of all ages "Who do you say that I am?" which Jesus asks his disciples two thousands years ago. The course provides an examination of the biblical and theological evidence concerning the identity of Jesus Christ and His life, work, teaching, death, resurrection, present work and second coming.

TH517 Survey of Doctrine3 credits

This course is an overview of the ten major theologies of the Bible. Examination of the major issues behind Bibliology, Theology Proper, Christology, Pneumatology, Angelology, Anthropology, Hamartiology, Soteriology, Ecclesiology and Eschatology will be conducted in a systematic approach.

TH518 Theology of Business as Mission3 credits

This course provides an articulation and defense of business as mission from a theological and Christian worldview perspective. As such the course will explore the current understanding of business as mission as well as the theological and Christian worldview foundation for business, missions and their conjunction.

TH521 Apologetics3 credits

This course is designed to present the truths of biblical Christianity in comparison to other religions and world views. Students have the opportunity to explore the biblical and philosophical basis for knowing and communicating their Christian faith. The course seeks to help students understand their Christianity and joyfully share their lives with others around the world.

TH522 Church and Baptist Distinctives3 credits

Students in this course will understand God's design for the nature and mission of the Church in the world. As to the nature of the Church, students will analyze the tensions that exist between various views in Christendom concerning the relationship of Israel and the Church, global versus local aspects of church, church government, leadership, the practice of baptism and communion, and church discipline. Students will resolve these tensions by a methodologically sound approach to Scripture rather than tradition or contemporary culture. As to the mission of the Church, the student will understand a broadly based and biblical rationale for social responsibility of the part of the churches and Christians. They will exhibit the priority of the Gospel of eternal life through Christ.

TH523 Dispensational Premillennialism

3 credits

In this course the students will have the opportunity to examine God's multifaceted plan for the world, past, present, and future. The course offers a dispensational premillennial approach enabling students to understand God's plan for the ages. The course experience helps students to compare and contrast this interpretive approach to others.

TH524 Dynamics of Spiritual Growth

2 credits

This course is a study of biblical texts concerning sanctification and discipleship along with practical implementation through spiritual disciplines. Emphasis will be made on application to the student's personal and ministry life.

TH529 Theology of Social Justice

3 credits

This course is an exploration of justice as a reflection of God's character and works and of the way that our Christ likeness extends God's character and works into society. The course includes a biblical analysis of the history and theories of social justice, discussion of the myriad applications of social justice for believers, and construction of an individual philosophy of social justice.

TH535 Theology in Praxis

3 credits

This course is designed to prepare the student to engage in the evaluation and implementation of doing theology within a particular context. The student will develop a biblical philosophy for the foundation and goals of a theology of praxis. The course will focus on preparing the student to participate in a wide range of activities from an informal/formal internship program to assisting in launching an organization. Pre-requisite: Completion of BA511, BA517, BA527, and BA524

TH561 The Development of Theology in Cultural Settings

3 credits

This course is an evaluation of the development of theology from historical forms to modern contextual theologies within specific cultural settings. The student will analyze the underlying cultural, theological, and sociological factors that have impacted the development of cultural theological expressions with the goal of comparing and contrasting each theological form with the Bible. Special emphasis will be given to the study of how culture has shaped both the questions and categories of theology.

YOUTH MINISTRIES

YM301 Youth Ministry Philosophy

3 credits

This course is designed to help students establish a Biblical foundational philosophy for ministering to youth and to introduce students to basic skills and competencies necessary for effective youth ministry in any culture. Emphasis will be placed on understanding non-negotiable Biblical principles, exploration of characteristics unique to youth and youth culture, and applying ministry principles to the specific needs of adolescents.

YM302 Youth Ministry Strategy 3 credits

This course is designed to introduce students to practical competencies and skills for the effective development and use of a wide range of programming as tools for accomplishing biblical ministry objectives.

YM315 Adolescents & Youth Culture 3 credits

This course is designed to help students understand modern youth culture and its impact on adolescents, then engage them from a biblical worldview.

YM321 Communication in Youth Culture 3 credits

This course is designed to help students establish a comprehensive strategy for effective communication in youth ministry. Emphasis will be placed on engaging the various stakeholders in student ministry with relevant, timely and clear communication across various contexts and channels.

YM402 Youth Ministry Seminar 3 credits

This course provides students with a grid for integrating the various pieces of their youth ministry education into a useable foundation for effectiveness as a youth pastor.

YM407 Youth Evangelism 3 credits

The goal of this course is to help students develop ministries which will enable them to train teens to influence their world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. A secondary goal is to help students develop a personal plan to have an effective outreach ministry themselves.

YM480 Youth Ministry Apprenticeship 3 credits

This course is a minimum of ten weeks full-time summer apprenticeship. Qualified students are placed under the supervision of an experienced youth worker for training and experience in a youth ministry environment. Open to students who have completed the junior year. May or may not be taken for credit. Interested students should consult with the department chair early in the junior year.

YM490 Independent Study in Youth Ministry 1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is designed to help the student study areas of youth ministry not included in other courses. Areas of concentration and other details are worked out between the student and the instructor.

STUDENT FINANCIAL SERVICES

Each year, the Lord brings to BBC a group of dedicated men and women preparing to be the next generation of Christian leaders. The College desires to prepare students for God's calling in life through classroom training, practical experience, and financial responsibility. Baptist Bible College offers a wide range of financial counseling to students through the Office of Student Financial Services. In addition, the College seeks to develop financial policies that are fair and equitable for all students.

The Office of Student Financial Services provides a vital function in the students' educational experience. The staff is available to counsel and advise students concerning their financial needs allowing students to complete their education with minimal outstanding debt.

Baptist Bible College maintains a diverse range of financial aid programs, which include grants, scholarships, and loans. Grants are defined as aid awarded based upon need and do not need to be repaid. Scholarships are awards based on merit or achievement and also do not need to be repaid. Loans are borrowed funds that are repaid with interest.

Baptist Bible College is approved by the Department of Education to participate in the Federal Pell Grant program, campus-based funding, and William D. Ford Direct Loan program and cooperates with various state grant programs including the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency (PHEAA).

FINANCIAL/REGISTRATION POLICY

By registering for classes, a student assumes an obligation to care for charges incurred in an expeditious manner. All student accounts are to be cared for by the time of registration.

Pre-Payment Discount

A pre-payment discount is available. Students must pay the fall semester balance by July 15 and the spring semester balance by December 15. If a student does not register until after the first payment due date, the student will have missed the opportunity to take advantage of this discount.

Payments made in full by credit card will receive a 2% discount.

Payments made in full by cash or check will receive a 3% discount.

The student must have all prior balances paid in order to be eligible for the discount. Discounts will not be recalculated if the original estimated charges or estimated financial aid change for any reason.

Monthly Payment Plan

Students who do not pay their semester balance in full by the discount date will automatically be set up with a five month-payment plan. A $100 payment plan fee will be assessed each semester for all students who select the monthly payment plan.

Bills will be mailed on the following dates:

FALL		SPRING
Billing Date	Payment Due	Billing date	Payment Due
July 1	July 15	December 1	December 15
August 1	August 15	January 1	January 15
September 1	September 15	February 1	February 15
October 1	October 15	March 1	March 15
November 1	November 15	April 1	April 15

Payment Plan Fee Waiver

There are two options to avoid the $100 payment plan fee:

- (1) Pay your entire balance due, in full, prior to the first day of attendance for the semester.
- (2) Authorize BBC to automatically withdraw the calculated required monthly payment from your bank account. If you revoke your authorization for the automatic withdrawal at anytime during the semester, you will then incur the entire $100 payment plan fee.

Outstanding Account Balances

If a student's account is not cared for in timely manner, Baptist Bible College & Seminary reserves the right to place the account on "financial hold." A financial hold will prevent a student from registering for classes in the following term and may prevent a student from participating in graduation exercises. Students who are planning to graduate must have their account balances at "zero" by April 20th to be eligible for graduation. If you are unable to meet this deadline for some reason, the student must submit an appeal letter to the Director of Student Account, no later than 5pm on April 15th. For those students who are planning on being a December Graduate, your account must be paid in full by November 15th.

No diplomas or transcripts will be issued to any party until the student's financial obligations (Business office, OSD and /or Library fines) have been met to the institution.

Late Fee and Grace Period

There is a five-day grace period for late payments. Any student who has not made their required payment by the end of the grace period, will be assessed a $15 late payment fee.

Summer School Payment Policy

Summer School statements will be mailed on May 1.

All Summer School payments are due on the first date of attendance.

Payments for online courses are due on the official start date as determined by the Registrar's Office.

Any unpaid balance as of the due date will be subject to at $15 late payment fee.

Overpayments and Refunds

In the event a student has overpaid his or her charges, BBC will refund the overpayment upon the student's request. If a request for refund is not made, overpaid balances will be applied to future semesters.

Book Vouchers

If a student's aid (including grants, scholarships, and loans) will exceed his or her charges, the student may request a book voucher to be used at BBC's online bookstore. To request this voucher, please email the Office of Student Financial Services at financialaid@bbc.edu.

Refund Policy for Dropped Courses

Dropped Courses Procedure

The final recorded day of class attendance will be designated as the student's last day of attendance for the class. The student must follow appropriate procedure for notification to the Registrar's Office upon dropping their class(es).

Course Refund Schedule

Refund amounts are based on Tuition and General Fees only. Refunds at the Undergraduate level are only applicable for students who drop class(es) that put them below the 12-18 credit flat rate, or place them into the 12-18 flat rate. Please note that dropping below the 12-18 credit flat rate will also affect financial aid and students should set up an appointment to discuss the potential effects on financial aid with the Office of Student Financial Services.

Percentage of Course Completed	Percentage Refunded
12.5%-25%	50%
>25%	0%

For various reasons, students may need to stop attending all of their courses. Any student, who either stops attending or officially drops all of their current courses, is considered to have withdrawn from the institution.

All students withdrawing from Baptist Bible College & Seminary must complete a withdrawal form. Each student's final day of class attendance must be documented on the form in order to avoid overpayment liability of federal student aid. Students who are dismissed are not exempt from this policy. Seminary, Graduate, and College Online students may obtain the Course Drop and Withdrawal form located in the Student Resources section of Moodle. Seminary students may also obtain a copy from the Seminary Registrar's Office. On campus college students must stop by the Office of Student Development to receive a form and begin the process of obtaining all necessary signatures from appropriate offices which will maintain a copy of their files.

Students attending modules or sessions shorter than a full semester must provide a written intent to attend their either already registered courses for the next session or module within the same semester, or those courses they plan to register for. This can be accomplished by simply completing the Course Drop and Withdrawal form located in the Student Resources section of Moodle. Just check the box that indicates you plan to attend other courses in a future session or module within the same term, specify the dates, and sign the form. Any student already registered for a future session or module who does not check this box on the signed form and who does not end up attending these already registered courses will be considered withdrawn from the institution as of their last documented date of attendance. Any student who does not check the box but does in fact take later courses within the same semester will have all previously calculated refunds reversed as well as their withdrawal status.

Refund Policy for Full Withdrawal from School

Full Withdrawal Refund Schedule

Refunds are calculated based upon all institutional charges including tuition, fees, room, and board.

Total Amount of Institutional Costs

X Percentage of enrollment period not complete

Student Refund

If a student has completed 60 percent or more of the enrollment period then the percentage of cost incurred by the student is 100 percent.

Return of Federal Title IV Aid upon Complete Withdrawal from School

The Office of Student Financial Services is required by Federal statute to determine how much financial aid was earned by students who withdraw, drop out, or are dismissed prior to completing 60% of a payment period or term.

For a student who withdraws after the 60% point-in-time, there are no unearned funds. However, a school must still complete a return calculation in order to determine whether the student is eligible for a post-withdrawal disbursement.

The calculation is based on the percentage of earned aid using the following Federal Return of Title IV Fund Formula: percentage of term completed = the number of days completed up to the withdrawal date divided by the total days in the term. (Any break of five days or more is not counted as part of the days in the term.) This percentage is also the percentage of earned aid.

Funds are returned to the appropriate Federal program based on the percentage of unearned aid using the following formula:

Percentage of aid to be returned = 100 percent–percent of earned aid.

Multiply the total amount of aid that could have been disbursed during the term by the percent of aid to be returned.

If a student earned less aid than was disbursed, the institution would be required to return a portion of the funds and the student would be required to return a portion of the funds. When Title IV funds are returned, the student borrower may owe a debit balance to the institution.

If a student earned more aid than was disbursed to him/her, the institution would owe the student a post-withdrawal disbursement which must be paid within 120 days of the student's withdrawal.

The institution must return the amount of Title IV funds for which it is responsible no later than 45 days after the date of the determination of the student's withdrawal.

Refunds are allocated in the following order:

- Unsubsidized Federal Direct Stafford Loans
- Subsidized Federal Direct Stafford Loans
- Federal Parent (PLUS) Loans
- Federal Pell Grants for which a return of funds is required
- Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG)

Return of Non-Title IV Aid

When a student withdraws during BBC&S's refund period (less than 60% of the term completed), the institutional aid received by the student will be reduced in proportion to the adjustment of the student's charges. The only exception is outside scholarships with specific program requirements for full return upon withdrawal.

Satisfactory Academic Progress

The U.S. Department of Education mandates institutions of higher education to establish minimum standards of Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to be evaluated and monitored for all students in order to receive Federal (Title IV) aid. Any student who is otherwise eligible must meet the standards used by the institution to determine if a Title IV recipient is maintaining Satisfactory Academic Progress in his or her course of study, regardless of whether the student had previously received Title IV aid.

Students must meet Satisfactory Academic Progress requirements in order to receive Federal (Title IV) financial aid that includes Pell Grants, Federal Supplemental Education Opportunity Grants, Stafford Loans, Plus Loans, and Federal Work Study.

Baptist Bible College has separate standards and requirements for students receiving institutional financial aid. These can be reviewed under the Institutional Aid section of this document.

This policy describes Financial Aid Satisfactory Academic Progress requirements and is in addition to and operates separately from the Academic Satisfactory Academic Progress requirements as outlined in the Student Handbook.

Evaluating Satisfactory Academic Progress

All students will be evaluated using qualitative, quantitative, and maximum time frame standards. Academic records of all students will be reviewed after the end of each term (fall, spring, and summer). The review is cumulative and includes all courses taken at the student's current academic level. After the evaluation, letters will be sent to all students who have not successfully met SAP requirements. Warning letters will be sent to those who did not meet the requirements at the end of the first term, and those who are not making progress at the end of the second term will receive a letter that their financial aid has been suspended until the deficiency is made up.

Qualitative Standard

To meet the qualitative standard, students must obtain a minimum cumulative GPA as determined by their classification and program. Cumulative GPA is composed of all coursework at the current academic level and is calculated by the Registrar's Office.

Student Classification

	Minimum Required Cum. GPA
All Undergraduate Programs (1–18 hours attempted)	1.4
All Undergraduate Programs (19–36 hours attempted)	1.6
All Undergraduate Programs (37–55 hours attempted)	1.8
All Undergraduate Programs (56+ hours attempted)	2.0
All Graduate Programs (except M.Min. and M.Div.), including doctoral programs	3.0
M.Min. and M.Div.	2.0

Once a transfer student has grades for a term at Baptist Bible College for coursework taken toward an eligible program, BBC will use the cumulative GPA calculated from those grades only.

Quantitative Standard

In order to meet the quantitative standard, students must complete 67% of their cumulative attempted credits at their current level. Withdrawals, incompletes, repeated courses, and failure grades will count as attempted but not earned credits and will lower the completion rate.

Transfer credits will count as attempted and earned. Completion rates are NOT ROUNDED UP to meet progress. If a student has a completion rate of 66.777%, they are not meeting the minimum 67% requirement of satisfactory academic progress for Title IV federal aid.

Maximum Time Frame

A student may not exceed a maximum number of attempted credits in any program even if aid was not received during that term or prior terms. The maximum number of credits is 150% of the program's required credits. Once the student reaches the maximum timeframe allowed, the student will be ineligible to receive Title IV financial aid; students may appeal on the basis of coursework not applicable to current degree program (see Appeals section below).

The maximum number of attempted credits allowed can be calculated by multiplying the number of credits required in the program by 1.5. Program Credits X 1.5 = Maximum Allowed

Some examples are provided below.

Academic Program	Required Program Credits	Max # of Attempted Credits Allowed
Bible Certificate	33	49.5
General Education	60	90.0
Pastoral Ministry	131	196.5
Music Education	168	252.0

Master of Arts	30	45.0
Master of Divinity	94	141.0

Withdrawals and Incompletes

Credits for a course in which a student has withdrawn or received a grade of incomplete are not considered successfully completed. When the incomplete grade becomes a letter grade, academic progress may be reevaluated; however, it is the student's responsibility to inform the Office of Student Financial Services of such a change of grade.

Break in Enrollment

When a student has a break in enrollment and is readmitted, the Satisfactory Academic Progress status for prior terms will apply. For example, if a student is placed on financial aid suspension at the end of the spring term, does not return in the fall term, and is readmitted the next spring term, the student will continue in a financial aid suspension status for that term.

Terms/Parts-of-Terms/Summer Sessions

A traditional semester is referred to as a standard term (e.g. Fall, Spring, and Summer). Standard terms, as defined by Baptist Bible College, are comprised of a combination of smaller "sub terms" (such as online sessions 1 and 2 in any given semester). Satisfactory Academic Progress requirements are calculated based on the combined sub-terms as defined by Baptist Bible College. Credits taken during Winterim will be added to the Spring term. Any other intensive courses will fall within a standard term (and be attributed to only that specific standard term).

Summer sub-terms (Summer online sessions and Seminary modules), for the purpose of credit hour load and measurement of progress, are combined together into the Summer term.

Repeated Courses

Repeated courses are considered in all areas of SAP measurement. Courses will be considered attempted even if they are not earned each time the course is taken which will affect the student's maximum time frame and completion rate. It should be noted however that a student is only allowed to receive Title IV Federal aid for a passed repeated course only once. Failed courses are not affected.

Transfer Credits

GPA's for transfer courses are not considered in determining eligibility under the qualitative measure but transfer credits are considered in the qualitative, quantitative and maximum time frame measurements. Transfer students are awarded as first-year students without regard to grade or warning status at the prior post-secondary institution. SAP requirements would then be used to measure the transfer student's continued status. Transfer credits must be evaluated and a grade-level established before any educational loans are processed.

Consortium Agreements

A consortium agreement is an agreement between two "like" institutions whereby the main enrollment is at Baptist Bible College (called the "home" institution) and the student takes courses at another eligible institution (called the "host" institution). This agreement will allow a student to take classes at the "host" institution while receiving their financial aid through the "home" institution.

The number of credits earned under an approved consortium agreement is integrated into the student's record upon completion of the course. Note: Courses must first be approved for transfer by the Baptist Bible College Registrar's Office. The Consortium Agreement is also subject to approval by both the home and host institution's authorized Financial Aid staff. Failure to complete the course/s could negatively reflect in the SAP evaluation. Financial Aid staff from the home school will request information from the host school during the enrolled term to confirm continued enrollment and satisfactory academic progress.

Change in Major/Additional Degrees

When a student changes his/her major or seeks an additional degree, the student may appeal to the Financial Aid Office to have courses attempted and earned that do not count toward the student's new major or degree excluded from the Maximum Time Frame calculation of the student's SAP standing.

Changed Grades

If a grade is changed, the student is required to notify The Office of Student Financial Services immediately. Student Financial Services will then initiate a review of the effect of the grade change on academic progress within 30 days of notification. A grade change initiated late or after the term in question or failure to notify the Financial Aid Office may result in the loss of financial aid eligibility because regulations may limit the time within which aid may be re-awarded or disbursed.

Failure to Make Satisfactory Academic Progress

Students who fail to meet the qualitative, quantitative, or maximum timeframe standards at the end of a term will be placed on financial aid "warning" status for the next term and will remain eligible for financial aid while on a warning status. Students on financial aid warning status must meet SAP qualification requirements by the next term's measurement of progress. Students not meeting the requirements at the next term's measurement of progress will be placed on financial aid suspension and considered ineligible for future financial aid until the deficiencies are resolved.

Reestablishing Eligibility for Financial Aid

Students may re-establish eligibility for financial aid by taking appropriate action that brings the student into compliance with the standards. Readmission to Baptist Bible College after academic suspension or approval of an academic suspension appeal does not automatically reinstate financial aid eligibility after a financial aid suspension. Reinstatement of aid eligibility is not retroactive. Reinstatement of aid eligibility will only affect current or future enrollment periods.

Once a student has made up either a credit deficiency or a GPA deficiency, it is his/her responsibility to notify the Office of Student Financial Services to request that aid be reinstated.

Appeals

Any student placed on Financial Aid Suspension has the opportunity to appeal such action. Circumstances under which a student should submit an appeal include death of a relative, personal injury or illness, or other extreme circumstance outside the control of the student.

To make an appeal, send a signed and dated letter to the Director of Student Financial Services within 30 days prior to the last day of classes during the semester in question. Students should address the following areas of concern in their appeal letter:

- 1) What were the circumstances in your life that prevented you from meeting SAP requirements?
- 2) What has changed that will enable you to meet SAP at the next evaluation?

If the school can confidently determine that the student will be able to meet SAP requirements after the subsequent term, the appeal will be granted. However, at the Director's discretion, if it is uncertain that the student will meet the requirements for the next evaluation, an academic plan suitable to the student's specific academic circumstance may be developed to ensure that the student is able to meet SAP standards by a specific point in time.

If a student decides to return to BBC after a lengthy absence and was on academic probation when they withdrew from the institution, then, the student must write an appeal letter to the Director of Student Financial Services explaining the above mentioned items. If the appeal is granted, the student will be given financial aid for one semester so that the appropriate GPA can be attained in order to meet the Satisfactory Academic Policy (SAP) guidelines.

Student Progress

Students are responsible to review their grades (when midterm and end-of-term grades are available) and compare their progress to the standards set forth in the Financial Aid Satisfactory Academic Policy to ensure that they are aware of their standing. As they review their academic information, students are encouraged to proactively seek assistance. For example, students could pursue additional academic advising, arrange tutoring, or regularly discuss their academic work with their instructor(s). The student's responsibility to monitor their own academic progress is important especially as the evaluation may immediately affect their financial aid eligibility for the next term. For example, a student who fails to meet standards after receiving a financial aid warning at the start of the Fall semester will be immediately affected for aid eligibility in the Spring semester.

Study Abroad

Students interested in participating in a Study Abroad Program should do two things:

- 1) Contact the Registrar's Office to determine if all of the credits will transfer into the student's program of study.
- 2) Contact the Office of Student Financial Services to determine qualification for any financial aid for the semester he/she would be studying abroad.
