GENERAL INFORMATION

HISTORY OF BBC&S

Baptist Bible College was established in 1932 by a group of pastors led by Dr. Richard J. Murphy. Its original purpose of “training young people for the Gospel ministry and other lines of Christian service” has not changed. The founders insisted the new school be strongly biblical and that it keep high academic standards. Through the years, the school leaders have not wavered from this stand.

The courses consisted of a three-year Bible program from 1932 to 1947. In 1947, four-year programs were added in pastoral studies, Christian education, and missions. In 1950, the Regents of the University of the State of New York granted Baptist Bible Seminary a temporary charter. In 1954, they gave permission to grant the Bachelor of Theology and Bachelor of Religious Education degrees. The Regents approved the Bachelor of Sacred Music degree in 1967.

For its first 36 years, the school used the facilities of First Baptist Church in Johnson City, New York. As the student body grew from the first enrollment of 40 students, the school gradually purchased and built some buildings of its own. In the 1960s, the administration and board of trustees saw that the College needed its own campus. This vision became reality in 1968 when the present site in Clarks Summit, Pennsylvania, was purchased, giving ample space for growth.

During the fall of 1968, the Accrediting Association of Bible Colleges (now Association for Biblical Higher Education) granted accreditation to the College. The following spring, the Pennsylvania Department of Education approved the same programs and degrees offered in New York. In addition, they approved the Associate in Arts degree for the first two years of education. In 1971, the name was changed to Baptist Bible College of Pennsylvania to reflect accurately the courses of study offered. In 1982, the College received authorization to grant the Bachelor of Science in Bible degree. Accreditation from the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools was received in 1984.

In September 1972, classes began at Baptist Bible Seminary. The Seminary offers five degree programs: the Master of Ministry (M.Min.) and Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degrees build upon the foundation laid in the Bible college program. An alternate course of study is available in the Master of Divinity program for students not having a Bible college background. The Master of Theology degree (Th.M.) is offered to those who desire graduate work beyond the Master of Divinity degree. The Doctor of Ministry degree (D.Min.) is offered as an advanced professional education program for full-time, in-service ministry participants. The Doctor of Philosophy degree (Ph.D.) in Biblical Studies is designed primarily for teachers and writers. A separate catalog for Seminary programs is available.

In 1989, the Pennsylvania Department of Education granted approval for the College to offer the Master of Science in Christian School Education degree. This began Baptist Bible Graduate School. In 1996, the Master of Science in Counseling Ministries degree was approved. In 2007, the Master of Science in Biblical Ministries degree was approved. A separate catalog is available for Baptist Bible Graduate School.

STATEMENT OF MISSION

Baptist Bible College & Seminary has an overarching vision of preparing students with excellence in biblical education for effectiveness in ministry leadership. Baptist Bible College exists for the primary purpose of preparing men and women to pursue selective Christian ministry careers for which the Bible major is foundational or essential.

This is accomplished in the College through a program of biblical, general, and professional studies, which fosters the doctrinal and ecclesiastical heritage represented by Bible-believing Baptist churches that hold to the fundamentals of the faith. Sound preparation for such ministry requires not only a knowledge of biblical truth, professional skill training, and a strong core of courses in general education, but also the development of strong spiritual dynamics and a vision for sharing one's faith. The historic Baptist emphasis on the local church and its ministries is a major factor in determining the careers for which students are prepared.

Since not all students are certain of career Christian ministry when they apply to Baptist Bible College, varied academic programs are offered to enhance ability to function effectively as spiritual leaders in local churches.

The Confession of Faith and Standards of Conduct provide a doctrinal and practical framework within which the educational program is carried out as they reflect the religious positions and spiritual commitments the school seeks to serve and to preserve.

Each academic program has clearly stated goals which give focus to the selection of courses, faculty, and learning ingredients.

GOALS

While you are a student at BBC, our goal is that you will be:

- Deepening your love for and commitment to the authority of the Word of God, your dedication to Jesus Christ as Lord, and your sense of personal responsibility toward the Great Commission.
- Gaining a fuller knowledge of the Bible, the Christian faith, yourself and other people, and the world around you.
- Cultivating a deeper appreciation for a biblical sense of values, God's plan for your life, your spiritual, cultural, and national heritage, and your privileges and responsibilities as a believer living in contemporary society.
- Developing habits consistent with mature Christian character and cultivating appreciation for the standards of the College and for its Baptist position.
- Improving your ability to think logically and express yourself effectively, to understand and evaluate the thoughts of others, to engage in independent research, and to integrate all knowledge and experience into a Christian worldview.
- Developing life-long habits of proper care for your body and gaining appreciation for skillful physical performance and good sportsmanship.
- Growing in your understanding of and appreciation for various Christian ministries and gaining the knowledge and skills needed to enter that ministry into which you believe God is leading you.

BAPTIST DISTINCTIVES

The College holds firmly to historic Baptist faith and practice and supports a fundamental view regarding the Bible in contrast to the liberal, neo-orthodox, and neo-evangelical views.

SPIRITUAL CLIMATE

Baptist Bible College strives to create a climate which promotes both learning and spiritual growth. Classroom instruction is from a biblical point of view. Activities outside the classroom, such as daily chapel, prayer groups, missions and Bible conferences, and dorm devotions, contribute to spiritual development. All students are involved in Christian ministry.

Recreation and other extra-curricular activities are designed to support this spiritual climate by teaching self-discipline, moral responsibility, and serious purpose.

LOCATION OF CAMPUS

BBC is located in Clarks Summit, Pennsylvania, a residential suburb of over 8,000 people. This suburb is part of the greater Scranton/Wilkes-Barre area with a population exceeding 500,000.

The College is easily reached by public transportation. Several airlines serve the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton airport at Avoca, and there is a major bus terminal nearby.

Access by automobile is also convenient. Scranton is at a crossroads of the interstate highway system of the northeastern United States. Interstate 81, the Northeast Extension [476] of the Pennsylvania Turnpike, and Highways 6 and 11 pass within two miles of the campus, and Interstate Routes 80 and 84 are only a short distance from Clarks Summit.

Organizations contributing to community cultural life include the Everhart Museum of Natural History, Science, and Art; the Northeastern Philharmonic Orchestra; and the Community Concert Association.

There are several other colleges in this area: University of Scranton, Marywood University, Keystone College, Lackawanna College, the Worthington-Scranton campus of Pennsylvania State University, Wilkes University, Kings College, Johnson College, and College Misericordia.

FACILITIES

The 121-acre campus has been steadily developed since 1968 and now contains 18 major buildings.

Jackson Hall houses administrative and faculty offices, most of the classrooms, a computer lab, a science lab, and the library. The Music Department occupies Buckingham Hall with music classrooms, practice rooms, and studio offices for the music faculty.

Facilities for chapel services, the cafeteria, the athletics program, and other student activities are located in the Phelps Student Center. Twelve three-story residence halls furnish on-campus housing for single students. A bookstore is also located on campus.

All buildings on campus are wired to provide access to the BBC local area computer network and the World Wide Web. Each dorm room has two ethernet network access ports and a phone connection. The computer lab also provides access to the network.

The Joseph M. Stowell Seminary building includes classrooms, faculty offices, a chapel, a student lounge, and a computer lab.

The central portion of the campus is located near a 4 1/2-acre lake. Outdoor recreational facilities include three athletic fields, two tennis/basketball courts, and a swimming pool.

ACCREDITATION AND CERTIFICATION

Baptist Bible College & Seminary is accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools, 3624 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104, 267-284-5000. Middle States is a regional accrediting agency recognized nationally. All degrees have been approved by the Pennsylvania Department of Education.

Since 1968, the College has been accredited by the Association for Biblical Higher Education, 5575 S. Semoran Blvd., Suite 26, Orlando, FL 32822, 407-207-0808. The Teacher Education programs are approved by the Association of Christian Schools International. The Elementary, Early Childhood, Secondary Education English, Science, Social Studies, K-12 Physical Education/Health, and Music Education programs are approved for Pennsylvania state certification. On January 14, 2008 Pennsylvania Department of Education granted approval for certification for the instructional program of teaching of Mathematics grades 7-12.

ECCLESIASTICAL RELATIONSHIPS

Baptist Bible College, as an independent, self-governed institution, experiences a relationship with a growing number of churches that share the same doctrinal and ecclesiastical position as the College. Many of these churches are unaffiliated, while others are in association with state and/or national fellowships of fundamental churches.

MEMBERSHIPS

Baptist Bible College is a member of the Associated Schools of the American Institute of Holy Land Studies in Jerusalem. The Institute offers both graduate and undergraduate levels in the following departments: Archaeology, Biblical Studies, Hebrew Language and Literature, History, Social Studies, and short-term studies.

Baptist Bible College is a corporate member of the American Schools of Oriental Research. This provides a direct channel for historical, geographical, cultural, and archaeological studies in several Middle Eastern countries.

ALUMNI OFFICE

The Alumni Office maintains an active relationship between the school and its graduates. It assists the Alumni Association in uniting alumni for spiritual fellowship, in promoting projects which support the school, and in maintaining enthusiasm for the College.

STUDENT LIFE

STUDENT ACTIVITIES AND ORGANIZATIONS

Devotional Life. A strong devotional life is essential for growth in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, students are encouraged to spend some time with the Lord in personal prayer and meditation in the Bible each day. Residence hall prayer times and small group fellowships assist in this important area. Each semester, the student body also unites for a day of prayer.

Chapel. Each school day, the students and faculty meet for prayer, worship, spiritual instruction, and challenge. Daily chapel services feature faculty members, pastors, missionaries, students, and other special speakers.

Church Attendance. The College firmly supports the biblical doctrine of the local church. Students are required to regularly attend one of the approved fundamental churches in the area.

Student Government. The Student Leadership Council serves the students as its governing body and is comprised of the Executive Council elected from the general student body as well as class presidents and representatives and residence hall presidents and representatives. The SLC exists to promote fellowship, scholarship, leadership, and spiritual life in the school. It also coordinates student activities, promotes a close and harmonious relationship between students and school personnel, and preserves and builds the school heritage.

Recreation and Athletics. The College participates in intercollegiate soccer, volleyball, cross country, basketball, track and field, baseball, softball, golf, and tennis. It is a member of the National Christian Collegiate Athletic Association (NCCAA Div. II), the National College Athletic Association (NCAA Div. III), and the Colonial States Athletic Conference (CSAC) which provide intercollegiate competition for men and women. An active intramural program offers numerous sports. In addition, students may participate in many individual recreational activities.

Married Students' Association. This group promotes fellowship among married students by providing opportunities to share common interests and to encourage one another. The association also presents the unique concerns as married students to the administration.

Student Publications. Student publications provide practical experiences for students interested in writing, photography, and business. The Tower, the College yearbook, summarizes student life and activity for the entire year. The Anchor, the student magazine, is published three times a semester and features College news and student writing.

Student Missions Fellowship. The SMF is open to the entire student body and exists to promote awareness of global ministries campus wide and to give students an opportunity to be involved in furthering global ministries. It is particularly involved in the annual missions conference in the spring.

Student Organizations. Separate fellowships have been organized for each ministry program. These groups and their purposes follow:

Music Interest Fellowship. To promote interest, inspiration, and skills in church music.

Pastoral Interest Fellowship. To promote interest in the pastoral ministry, provide an introduction to pastoral issues, and produce a burden for the pastoral ministry.

Missions Interest Fellowship. To cultivate a greater burden for missions, further inform students about world mission fields, and provide students an opportunity to become involved in various missionary activities.

Christian School Teachers Fellowship. To provide practical and helpful information concerning Christian school education.

Youth Interest Fellowship. To promote interest in, provide information about, and encourage involvement in ministries to youth.

Office Professionals' Fellowship. To promote interest in the use of office skills in a Christian environment.

Counseling Interest Fellowship. To foster an interest in Christian counseling and provide information regarding issues relevant to career counseling ministries.

Communication Ministries Fellowship. To provide a place for writers and drama students to grow in their ability to minister through their skills.

Women's Ministries Fellowship. To foster interest in women's ministries and to provide further opportunities to hear from women in the field.

THEATRICAL OPPORTUNITIES

Main Stage Play Productions. Each semester the Department of English and Communications produces a play. Auditions are open to all BBC students. The purpose of these productions is to expose students to a variety of dramatic literature and to provide hands-on experience with theatrical production. Past plays have included classics like The Taming of the Shrew, The Miser, and The Crucible; serious dramas such as The Diary of Anne Frank, The Trip to Bountiful, and The Little Foxes; comedies like Lost in Yonkers, The Good Doctor, and You Can't Take it With You; and musicals such as The Secret Garden, You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown, and Little Women the Broadway Musical.

Student Productions and Senior Projects. Communications Writing and Drama students may choose to produce a theatrical production on campus for their senior projects.

Directing for Theatre Scene Project. Students enrolled in the Directing for Theatre course are required to direct a number of scenes from a variety of plays. This provides another opportunity for students interested in obtaining theatrical experience, especially in the area of acting and/or directing.

Art Communicates! Art Communicates is an on-campus celebration of the arts. Communications students are encouraged to become involved with planning, advertising, and presenting original visual art, writings, and/or performing in various venues.

Local Theatre. Many of our Communications students volunteer their time to work backstage at local theatre companies like The Northeast Theatre company (TNT) and the Bloomsburg Theatre Ensemble (BTE).

MUSIC PERFORMANCES

Baptist Bible College provides many opportunities for students to attend and participate in the production of significant musical events. Participants include both music majors and non-music majors. All performances are public events to which the student body, parents, and the community are invited.

Musical Ensembles. Each year, several vocal/instrumental ensembles represent the College in churches and Christian schools. These groups go on annual concert tours on behalf of the College, and they provide musical ministry for Bible and Missions conferences as well as other special events on campus. All students are invited to audition for the Chamber Singers, Concert Chorale, and Instrumental Ensemble.

Master Classes. From time to time, the music faculty hosts sessions with students who are taking private music instruction. Students play or sing in an informal setting, and the faculty offers analysis and encouragement of these performances.

General Student Recitals. At least once each semester, student musicians taking private instruction with our faculty have the opportunity to perform in a formal setting.

Music Major Recitals. All music majors present solo recitals during their junior and senior years. The variety of vocalists and instrumentalists in the Music Department ensures a very interesting concert schedule during any given academic year.

Choral Concerts. The annual Christmas and Spring concerts combine the forces of all music groups.

Music Performance Seminar. Although music majors are expected to participate in this weekly seminar, attendance is open to all students. Activities include faculty lectures on musical topics, a variety of performances by its members, and service projects on behalf of campus musical events.

Artist Series. The College hosts cultural events for our students and the community, featuring groups such as the Atlantic Brass Ensemble, the Baltimore Consort, the Vienna Choir Boys, and sacred soloist Michael Card.

STUDENT SERVICES

Counseling and Guidance. A close relationship exists between students and faculty at Baptist Bible College. Students are encouraged to talk with faculty members about matters of concern.

Although all school personnel are interested in helping the students, the Office for Student Development (OSD) offers professional counseling and guidance services.

Student Career Services Office. Students who desire counsel in the areas of program or career guidance or who wish to take tests in the areas of their abilities and career interests may do so at the Career Services office. Additional services include cover letter review and design, resume review and design, personal marketing website (to host their resume and cover letter), career counseling with online testing, and mock interviews.

Disability Services. The College has a strong commitment to provide equal access for students with disabilities, and the Director of Learning Support Services is available in the OSD to assist students. Students are responsible to communicate their needs for assistance.

Orientation. This program acquaints new students with the purpose and services of Baptist Bible College. A trained residence hall staff is also available, providing encouragement and guidance in forming a personal Christian philosophy of life. The Office for Student Development helps students find employment, housing, and medical services.

Employment. Baptist Bible College is located in the greater Scranton Wilkes-Barre area that has a population of over 500,000. This industrial and commercial area offers many job opportunities. The College also employs a number of students.

Health Services. A registered nurse is available for any sickness that may occur; a doctor also is available on campus bi-weekly for appointments. The Health Services Office furnishes ordinary medicines and first-aid supplies, but students must pay for doctor's visits and prescriptions or medications.

Insurance. A group insurance plan is available to all students. This insurance costs much less than similar coverage through an individual plan. This policy covers the student for the entire year, including summer vacation. Information on student insurance may be obtained from the Business Office.

Housing. Residence halls on campus provide comfortable living accommodations for single students. All single students under 25 years of age are required to live in the College dormitories if space is available. Should the dormitories be filled, the Office for Student Development will help the student find a place to live in the area. The College also assists married couples in locating suitable apartments or homes.

Dining. The cafeteria-style dining area has the capacity to serve the entire student body. All on-campus students eat their meals in the College dining room.

Campus Security. Carefully selected students serve as campus security and are responsible for security, traffic, safety, and other assigned tasks. They receive training from qualified BBC security officers.

ALUMNI PLACEMENT SERVICE

BBC&S Alumni Career Services. The Alumni Department desires to assist our alumni with finding a place of ministry. Alumni from the college, graduate school, and seminary may receive help with cover letter and resume design as well as life-time storage of those documents through the college website. The website also has search features for both alumni and employers. One-on-one conferences are encouraged to assist with individual needs, answer questions, and provide information and counsel.

ADMISSION INFORMATION

STANDARDS FOR ADMISSION

Christian Character. Evidence of personal faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and of submission to the will of God is essential. By submitting an application, the prospective student expresses willingness to follow school regulations.

Academic Preparation. Completion of high school or equivalency is required. High school graduates must send transcripts of all completed high school courses. Applicants who are not high school graduates may secure a high school equivalency diploma (GED) from the state in which they live. Transcripts of any completed high school courses and the GED test results must be sent to BBC. A minimum of a 2.0 high school GPA is required for admission.

Pre-admission Tests. All applicants are required to take either the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT—minimum combined critical reading and math score of 850 is required) or the American College Test (ACT—minimum composite score of 17 is required).

Arrangements to take these tests should be made through the high school guidance office or online at www.collegeboard.com (SAT) or www.act.org (ACT). Please request that your scores be sent to the Admissions Office using the following codes for Baptist Bible College: the SAT code is 2036; the ACT code is 3523.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

All persons who desire to register at Baptist Bible College must submit an application for admission. Steps are outlined as follows:

1. Application options:
2. Complete an online application and pay the $20 non-refundable online application fee by credit card.
3. Complete a paper copy of the application and mail it to the Admissions Office together with a $30 non-refundable application fee (fee waivers are not accepted) and a recent photograph.
4. It is the responsibility of the applicant to print his/her name and any other requested information on the top of each reference. It is the applicant's option to sign the waiver on each of these references, waiving the right to examine these forms, thus making the comments contained therein confidential. It is to be understood that the waiver is not required as a condition for admission. Distribute these references and ask the persons completing them to return them to the College within one week. All applicants must arrange to have high school transcripts sent to the College. In addition to the high school transcripts, transfer students should have official transcripts of all previous college course work sent to the Admissions Office.

5. Transfer students from Christian colleges must obtain a Transfer Student Reference form from the Registrar's Office to be completed by that college.
6. When the application file is complete, the Admissions Committee will review it, and the applicant will be notified of the decision. A personal interview may be required at the discretion of the Admissions Committee.
7. If a student applied for admission to Baptist Bible College in the past three years and the student did not enroll, a letter requesting that the application be reactivated may be sent. The Admissions committee will require a new pastor's reference and a $30 non-refundable fee.
8. Submit a $250 deposit by May 1 for fall enrollment and by December 15 for spring enrollment. Deposits are refundable until May 1 or December 15. All refund requests must be made in writing and postmarked no later than May 1 or December 15.
9. Applications and reference forms are available online at www.bbc.edu.

READMISSION

If a student leaves school for any reason and desires to return, the student must apply for readmission*, completing the following steps:

1. Complete readmit application.
2. Furnish official transcript(s) of all post-secondary courses taken since leaving BBC.
3. Submit a $250 deposit by August 1 for enrollment in the fall semester and by December 15 for enrollment in the spring semester.

*Student spouses, faculty spouses, and staff members should contact the Admissions Office for readmission instructions.

At the discretion of the Admissions Committee, a personal interview may also be required.

Students who arrive at registration expecting to be readmitted without fulfilling these requirements should expect to wait until after registration to have their applications considered. The College cannot guarantee acceptance in such cases.

Students readmitted to one of the College programs will normally be subject to current requirements for that course of study.

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION

All new students must be present for orientation.

CLASSIFICATION

Each student will be associated with one of the organized classes and normally will remain with that class throughout the school year. Students who, at the end of the school year, are not more than three credits behind the normal schedule or below the minimum grade point average (see Student Handbook) will be advanced to the next class.

All students are classified as full-time or part-time, depending on the number of semester hours for which they are enrolled. The part-time student is one who is enrolled for less than 12 semester hours. The full-time student is one enrolled for 12 or more semester hours. Full-time students with no previous Bible training must take at least 25 percent of the classes in Bible or Bible-related subjects. To receive veterans' benefits, a student must be enrolled for 12 or more semester hours of credit.

Classification of students is determined at registration each semester.

DIVORCE POLICY

Individuals who have been divorced or are married to a divorced person should request a copy of the divorce policy from the Admissions Office.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

Baptist Bible College believes that learning, wherever it occurs, should be recognized and integrated into a student's degree program when that learning is found to be equivalent to that offered by post-secondary educational institutions and determined to be applicable for meeting degree and program requirements at BBC.

Applicants who have completed courses in an accredited college or university may receive transfer credit for courses which apply to one of the College programs and which reflect a grade of "C-" or above. Credits from non-accredited schools must be validated. Baptist Bible College accepts transfer credit for suitable scores in Advanced Placement (AP) exams, International Baccalaureate (IB) courses, College Level Examination Program (CLEP) exams, and Defense Activity for Non-Traditional Education Support (DANTES) exams. Contact the Registrar's Office for further information.

Applicants who have completed 30 hours or more at an accredited college or university and have maintained at least a 2.5 GPA are not required to take the SAT or ACT. Each transfer student must have official academic transcripts of all previous college courses sent to the Admissions Office before a decision will be made on the student's application. A minimum of a 2.0 cumulative college GPA is required. To qualify for graduation, transfer students must complete at least 30 semester-hour credits at Baptist Bible College.

HOME SCHOOL STUDENTS

BBC is very interested in and welcomes home school students. All home school applicants should send their high school transcripts to the College. Questions regarding admission policies and procedures should be sent to the Vice President for Enrollment Management.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

This school is authorized under federal law to enroll non-immigrant alien students. Inquiries concerning admission policies and procedures should be sent to the Vice President for Enrollment Services. At least six months should be allowed to process international student applications.

VETERANS AND WAR ORPHANS

The College is an approved institution for veterans and war orphans. Applicants who qualify for these benefits should contact their local Veterans Administration Office to apply for Certificates of Eligibility. This certificate must be presented to the Office of Student Financial Services at registration.

NON-DISCRIMINATORY POLICY

Baptist Bible College of Pennsylvania admits students of any race, color, or national and ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally made available to students. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin, or handicap in the administration of its educational policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school-sponsored programs.

Baptist Bible College does not discriminate on the basis of handicap in the recruitment and admission of students, the recruitment and employment of faculty and staff, and the operation of any of its programs and activities, as specified by federal laws and regulations. The designated coordinator for College compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 is the Vice President for Business and Finance.

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Candidates for graduation from the degree and certificate programs are expected to participate in the commencement rehearsal and in all commencement weekend activities at which caps and gowns are worn.

General Requirements for Undergraduate Programs

To be eligible for a degree, the student must have:

- Completed a minimum of 30 semester-hour credits at Baptist Bible College.
- Earned a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0. Teacher Education programs require a higher GPA. The Teacher Education Handbook should be consulted for specific details by those accepted into the Teacher Education programs.
- Completed the number of Ministry Development units required by the student's program.
- Completed all the requirements of the student's program (see Curriculum Information chapter) and have paid all financial obligations to the College.
- Been enrolled at the College during the school year of graduation.
- Paid a graduation fee.

Special Requirements for Baccalaureate Degrees

Doctrinal Agreement—Before graduation, each student will be asked to state agreement with the published doctrinal statement of the College or to submit a statement on the area(s) of disagreement. Directions for preparing this statement can be obtained from the Division of Biblical Studies.

Special Requirement for Associate in Arts Degree

A student who meets the general requirements for the Associate in Arts degree may not receive it in the same year he/she receives a baccalaureate degree.

Special Requirement for One-Year Certificate

At least 15 of the 30 semester-hour credits required in this program must have been taken after the 1974-75 school year.

Special Requirement for Additional Degrees

At least 30 additional semester-hour credits must be taken for each additional degree received.

CREDIT HOUR DEFINITION

At Baptist Bible College, academic credit is measured in semester hours. A semester hour represents the equivalent of at least one class period of 50 minutes per week for 14 weeks not including final exams.

CLASS STANDING

At registration, each student is assigned to one of the four organized classes. This classification is based upon the total number of credits earned (including physical education) as described in the following scale:

Classification	Credit Hours
Freshman	0-26
Sophomore	27-56
Junior (Baccalaureate degrees)	57-86
Senior (Baccalaureate degrees)	87 or more

ACADEMIC LOAD

The normal student load is 14-18 class hours per week. About one to two hours of study time should be allowed for each hour of class. Approval of student loads over 18 hours may be granted to students who have demonstrated superior ability. The College may limit the load of students with excessive employment or low grades.

GRADE POINT AVERAGE

Grade point average (GPA) is a numerical measure of all grades. It is calculated by dividing the total number of grade points earned by the total number of credit hours attempted (excluding courses marked I, S, U, WP, or AU). The student's GPA is based only upon courses taken at BBC.

GRADING SYSTEM

Point values are assigned to each grade to determine a student's grade point average. The following scale is used:

A	4.00	grade points per credit hour
A-	3.66	grade points per credit hour
B+	3.33	grade points per credit hour
B	3.00	grade points per credit hour
B-	2.66	grade points per credit hour
C+	2.33	grade points per credit hour
C	2.00	grade points per credit hour
C-	1.66	grade points per credit hour
D+	1.33	grade points per credit hour
D	1.00	grade point per credit hour
D-	.66	grade point per credit hour
F	0	grade points per credit hour

Other course grades include:

S	Satisfactory completion
U	Unsatisfactory performance
WP	Withdrawn Passing. This indicates that a student withdrew from a course after the first four weeks of a semester, and the student's performance was satisfactory at the time of withdrawal.
AU	Audit or a course not taken for credit

CLASS ATTENDANCE

Regular and prompt attendance at all class sessions is expected. Detailed expectations on attendance, absence, and tardiness are published in the Student Handbook.

REPEATED COURSES

When both the original and the repeated course are taken at BBC, the new grade replaces the first grade in calculating the GPA. The student's grade point average is then adjusted to reflect the last grade.

ACADEMIC HONORS

Semester Honors. Each semester, the Dean's List names full-time students whose semester grade point average is 3.75 or higher; the Merit List honors full-time students whose average is 3.50–3.74.

Alpha Gamma Epsilon. Members of this local honor society are chosen according to the following standards: 1) completion of the equivalent of four full-time semesters or 57 semester hours at Baptist Bible College with a total grade point average of 3.4 or higher; 2) sympathy toward and support of Baptist Bible College standards and ideals; 3) faculty approval. Membership certificates are presented following selection to this honor.

Delta Epsilon Chi. Baptist Bible College participates in the honor society program of the Association for Biblical Higher Education. To be eligible for election by the faculty, a student must have earned a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.3 by the beginning of the student's final semester. In addition, eligibility will depend upon Christian character and leadership ability. Certificates of membership are presented during the spring semester.

Graduation Honors. Graduation honors announced at commencement are based upon a student's cumulative grade point average at the beginning of the last semester before graduation. The following standards apply: 3.4—with honor, 3.6—with high honor, 3.8—with highest honor. Final transcript will reflect honors standing based upon completion of all academic studies.

ACADEMIC DEFICIENCIES

Students whose total grade point average falls below 2.0 are subject to certain restrictions. Details of academic restriction, probation, and dismissal are given in the Student Handbook.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF STUDENT RECORDS

Student records are maintained in compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. The information contained in the student's permanent educational record will be made available to the student but not to others without the student's written permission. Specific details are available in the Registrar's Office.

TRANSCRIPTS

Student transcripts are released only by written request of the student. No transcript will be released unless the student has paid all financial obligations to the College. Unofficial transcripts will be sent to the student, whereas all official transcripts will be sent only to agencies and institutions designated by the student.

RICHARD J. MURPHY MEMORIAL LIBRARY

From its location on the first and second floors of Jackson Hall, the Library provides students and faculty with resources for their intellectual, cultural, and spiritual development. Services are available for over 70 hours each week during the academic year. Materials are organized according to the Dewey Decimal System, and holdings are accessed through the Public Access Catalog (PAC) from the Library website (www.bbc.edu/library).

The collections reflect the quality of many years of planned growth and development in support of the institution's educational objectives. The Library specializes in the areas of biblical studies, theology, and Christian ministries, but it also maintains strong collections in history, education, literature, music, and counseling. Careful attention is given to providing a diversity of viewpoints in keeping with its purpose as an information center. Currently, the printed resources total over 100,000 volumes.

The Library also maintains a collection of scholarly journals and periodicals of practical and general interest in print, microform, and online versions. Nearly 400 print subscriptions are available on campus, and 10,000 titles may be accessed through the Library's internet vendors from the College website. The Library's curriculum area maintains teaching materials for the common subjects of elementary and secondary education for both public and Christian schools. Other holdings include music resources, juvenile books, and audiovisual materials and equipment. Areas are provided for viewing or listening to audiovisuals, as well as for working on projects. Computers are available for searching the internet and the Library's online databases.

Through the Library's memberships in the Northeastern Pennsylvania Library Network (NPLN) and the Southeastern Pennsylvania Theological Library Association (SEPTLA), students and faculty enjoy reciprocal borrowing privileges at several local and regional colleges, seminaries, and public libraries. Instruction in resource use is provided through informal encounters and through classroom visits.

MINISTRY DEVELOPMENT

The Ministry Development program is integrated with the academic program to provide a laboratory for students to test concepts, explore their giftedness, and generate questions to fuel the academic process. Practical ministry experience facilitates development of both spiritual maturity and skills for vocational ministry. Discipleship is provided through ministry coaches. Ministry Development personnel are available to counsel and to help students secure opportunities.

The Ministry Development program is designed to move students to new levels of leadership in preparation for future ministry. Seven units of ministry are required in four-year programs.

Many students become involved in local church ministries such as AWANA, youth work, teaching and facilitating groups, children's church, outreach, music, and preaching. Other organizations offer opportunities for ministry including county jails, nursing homes, hospitals, youth organizations, and schools. Traveling music ensembles minister in local churches. During the summer, opportunities include missionary and pastoral apprenticeships, camp work, and numerous local church ministries.

ACADEMIC CURRICULUM

ACADEMIC PHILOSOPHY

The overarching vision for BBC&S is excellence in biblical education for effectiveness in ministry leadership. More specifically, the primary mission of the undergraduate program at Baptist Bible College is to prepare men and women for selected ministry leadership careers through a curriculum of biblical, general, and professional studies. The College helps students think reflectively about the Bible's relationship to life and ministry, while acquiring the professional knowledge and skills that will enable them to serve in career ministry settings.

Since not all students are certain of career Christian ministry when they apply to BBC, varied academic programs are offered that enhance competency and capacity for service in local churches.

This mission is expressed in The Five C's of effective ministry leadership.

Conviction. Effective ministry leaders are rooted in the Word of God, resulting in a faith that has biblical and doctrinal support for life and ministry. These leaders have confidence in the effectiveness of the Word to change lives. They think biblically and know what they believe and why they believe it (Psalm 1:1-3; 2 Timothy 3:14-4:5).

Commitment. Effective ministry leader are committed to live as authentic followers of Jesus Christ with thoughts and actions rooted in the Scriptures, manifested in a great love for the local church, its work, and its people, and focused on fulfilling the Great Commission.

Commitment to Faith. The seed germinates (John 1:35-42).

Commitment to Growth. The roots grow down, and the tree grows up (Matthew 4:18-22).

Commitment to Ministry. Fruit-bearing begins (Matthew 9:35-10:8).

Commitment to Leadership. The tree becomes an orchard (Matthew 28:18-20; 2 Timothy 2:2).

Character. Effective ministry leaders are growing in Christ-likeness in character, causing these leaders to be persons of honesty, credibility, wisdom, integrity, maturity, and constructive relationships based on authentic love (2 Peter 1:3-9; Galatians 5:22-23; 1 Corinthians 13:4-7; Colossians 3:12-15; Matthew 5:1-16). This affects the character of leadership (1 Timothy 3:1-7; 4:12; Titus 1:5-9; Philippians 2:1-22).

Competency. Effective ministry leaders have developed general leadership competency by skills specific to their ministries.

Capacity. Effective ministry leaders have discovered how God has put them together in a unique blend of personalities, experiences, spiritual gifts, passions, and potentials (1 Corinthians 12:1-18). Our task is to help each individual student understand gifts, skills, and life experiences and then help maximize that combination for the cause of Christ.

ACADEMIC GOALS

These goals provide a basis for pursuing the academic expression of the institutional mission. Upon successful completion of the B.S. in Bible degree program, the graduate will:

- Have a general knowledge of biblical content and concepts.
- Gain an understanding of selected knowledge in the areas of the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences based upon a Christian worldview.
- Have a general knowledge, comprehension, and application of theology from the exegesis or study of biblical texts.
- Appreciate a Christian view of man, society, and culture as the graduate interacts with life and society.
- Desire to study the Bible inductively, competently using Bible study tools in a manner consistent with the historical, grammatical, and literal principles of interpretation.
- Be committed to an educational climate that will stimulate a commitment to values consistent with biblical principles.
- Understand biblical principles for thoughtful and responsible living in the family, local church, Christian community, and society.
- Be able to articulate a biblical rationale for a Baptist position: evangelization of the lost; edification of the believer; pre-tribulation, pre-millennial eschatology; and personal and ecclesiastical separation.

- Develop skills in critical thinking, value judgment, and understanding of primary/secondary sources.
- Express proper care for his/her physical body.

This is carried out in the context of four academic divisions.

ACADEMIC CONTEXT

BIBLICAL STUDIES DIVISION

These subject matters help students achieve excellence in biblical education. Faculty base their instruction upon the verbal, plenary inspiration of the Bible in the original manuscripts and upon its authority in all areas of life. The grammatical, historical, literal method of interpretation is the hermeneutic employed in the Biblical Studies Division.

The Biblical Studies Division has the following departments:

Department of Bible Exposition

This department serves students by explaining the content and doctrines of the Bible from the biblical text. Each of the following objectives is pursued:

1. Presenting the biblical truths so they become an active part of the student's life experience.
2. Acquainting the student with the historical content of the entire Bible so that insight into and knowledge of the construction, purpose, and message of the Bible are gained.
3. Assisting the student to acquire basic skills of observation, interpretation, and application of the biblical text.
4. Assisting the student to communicate the Bible to others creatively and independently.

Department of Biblical Languages

This department serves students by pursuing the following objectives:

1. Presenting and understanding the words, phrases, and local expressions of the times and culture in which those expressions are used.
2. Assisting the student of the Bible in communication (exposition) and translation.

Department of Theology

This department serves students by enabling them to understand the content and arrangement of truth as set forth in the biblical text by interpreting and defining theological truth when pursuing the following objectives:

1. Presenting the content and arrangement of truth as set forth in the Bible.
2. Assisting the student in understanding how knowledge presented in other departments is harmonized with this discipline.
3. Assisting the student to understand biblical, systematic, and historical theology.

GENERAL STUDIES DIVISION

Department of English and Communications

This department serves students by pursuing the following objectives:

1. Presenting and modeling English and communication skills for students.
2. Enabling students to develop their skills in thinking, writing, and seeking effectiveness and clarity.
3. Assisting students to develop higher level reading skills in order to enhance appreciation, critical thinking, and contextual understanding within a framework.
4. Assisting students in assessing, analyzing, and producing quality work in the aesthetic and artistic areas of writing, speech, theatre, and teaching.
5. Providing students with an instructional climate that would enable them to develop integrative skills in biblical, cultural, literary, and practical understanding.

Department of Health and Physical Education

This department believes in the importance of health education, the development of physical fitness, and a healthy Christian personality. This goal is pursued as students understand the emphasis of God's Word on the physical body, a healthy lifestyle, and sportsmanship. Since Christian education aims to develop the total student in thought, heart, and skills, physical education is an essential part of the total educational program.

To accomplish this in the baccalaureate degree, students need to take three credits of physical education. One of these courses must be HP100-Life Fitness. Additional courses are selected from PE101-111 (general physical education courses) and PE330-360 (intercollegiate sports).

The general physical education courses are selected and sports-related activities are designed to increase the student's enjoyment of and proficiency in these activities. Emphasis is placed on skill development, sportsmanship, active participation, and knowledge of the activities. Some courses may not be offered each semester.

Department of Social Studies

This department seeks to help students understand the present based upon a historical knowledge of the past. Consideration is given to ancient civilizations, and particular attention is given to those factors involved in the formation of the Judaeo-Christian and Graeco-Roman traditions. Fine arts, sociology, philosophy, geography, and economics also contribute to an understanding of our culture. It is the intent of this department to prepare students to make independent value judgments through understanding, interpretation, and application of factual material.

Department of Science and Math

This department serves students by providing an appreciation for the scientific attitude and the scientific method. This involves the presentation of the basic principles and language of science to develop the ability to logically and honestly make interpretations of scientific data. Students also become aware of the structure and functioning of God's creation, whether it be of themselves, of society, or of the physical and biological world around them.

Department of Music Ministries

This department prepares men and women as Christian musicians and for ministry in the church. Emphasis is given to voice and piano with programs for both the church musician and school music educator.

GLOBAL MINISTRIES DIVISION

The Global Ministries Division of Baptist Bible College exists to assist churches in the preparation of qualified, committed, thoughtful, spiritual leaders for church and church-related ministries worldwide. This is done in an academic environment in which the Global Ministries Division is responsible to help students build the necessary skills to apply and communicate the truth they are learning in Bible and theology courses in a manner that effectively ministers to the world about which they are learning in General Studies courses.

Department of Camping Ministries

This department endeavors to prepare men and women who are passionate about making disciples and who are empowered to serve with excellence in camping and impact ministry venues.

Department of Chaplaincy Ministries

This department prepares qualified believers to be military pastors and assistants who will reach out to a population of servicemen and women and their families. This is a missions ministry in that the people served are characterized as multicultural, multiethnic, and pluralistic in their religious beliefs and serve in countries throughout the world.

Department of Church Educational Ministries

This department trains men and women to teach in the local church. Students are helped to prepare for teaching ministries at home or abroad including Sunday school, children, youth, and adult groups, leadership training, vacation Bible schools, and camps. The department helps students understand the principles for effective teaching so they can contribute effectively to the work of the local church.

Department of Counseling Ministries

This department equips students to work in both ministerial and professional venues of counseling. Students are prepared to understand and respond biblically to the heart-felt needs of counselees and are given the necessary foundation for graduate work in the counseling field if they desire to pursue continuing education.

Department of Office Professionals

This department develops students for office careers with a ministry emphasis. Students will be taught accounting, computer applications, communication, and a variety of other office skills. An opportunity to work part time in a ministry office is also provided.

Department of Pastoral Ministries

This department prepares men for effective pastoral ministry in local Baptist churches. The department purposes to produce graduates who demonstrate a balance of expository skill, spiritual leadership, pastoral care, and evangelistic fervor—all founded upon the clear teachings of Scripture.

Supported by the Biblical Studies base and integrated with General Studies, the Pastoral Ministries programs require a minimum of 21 credits of professional training. Currently five programs are available: Pastoral Ministry, Youth Pastor, Church Music, Education Pastor, and Outreach Pastor. These are supported by the Departments of Youth Ministries and Evangelism/ Outreach and Music Ministries.

Various divisional functions throughout the year provide fellowship, input, and evaluation for pastoral students and their wives. Students are encouraged to participate whenever possible.

While primarily designed for the future pastor, the department offers courses in ministry for the cultivation of skills for the Lord's service in a variety of contexts.

Department of Sports Ministries

This department endeavors to equip students for effective sports ministries in local church, parachurch organizations, and foreign missionary agencies.

Department of World Missions

This department presents the responsibility of every Christian to fulfill the Great Commission by being a personal witness, gives a general knowledge of mission fields, and instills an awareness of missions issues today. Missions courses are designed to equip the student with the methods for establishing a New Testament church in either the United States or foreign nations, the basic principles and the ethics needed for a successful missionary program, exposure to the cultural and language differences in working with foreign peoples, and thoughtful consideration of the needs and programs in modern-day missions.

PROFESSIONAL STUDIES DIVISION

Department of Teacher Education

This department prepares students for the growing needs of Christian schools. Students in elementary education, secondary English, secondary social studies, secondary science, K-12 health & physical education, secondary Math, and K-12 music may also apply for state certification from Pennsylvania. The department seeks to familiarize all students with issues related to education and to contemporary educational theory and practice. Most programs are designed to help students achieve Pennsylvania teacher certification and certification from the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI). Further details are in the undergraduate curriculum section for Teacher Education.

ACADEMIC DEGREES AND PROGRAMS

DEGREES AND CERTIFICATE

1. Bachelor of Science in Bible (B.S. in Bible)—The professional programs, four years in length, result in this degree.
2. Bachelor of Sacred Music (B.S.M.)—The professional degree is awarded upon completion of either the five-year Church Music program or the five-year Music Education program.
3. Associate in Arts (A.A.)—Two years of study are required. Courses in the arts and sciences are distributed over at least eight academic fields in the General Education A.A. The Office Professionals A.A. focuses on office skills and ministry. The Early Childhood A.A. includes courses focusing upon ministry in preschool settings. Also included are introductory courses in biblical background studies.
4. Certificate—One year of training is required with a biblical studies emphasis.

ACADEMIC CORE

BIBLICAL STUDIES

It is our belief that knowledge of the Scriptures is essential to a proper education. For this reason, the professional programs include 36–42 credits of Bible and theology. Therefore, each student who graduates from one of these programs will have a strong major in biblical studies. The biblical studies core courses include:

- Old Testament History (3)
- Old Testament Prophets (2)
- Old Testament Poetry (2)
- Principles of Bible Study (3)
- New Testament Survey (3)
- Romans (3)
- Building a Biblical Lifestyle (2)
- Bible Exposition Electives (2 to 8)
- Theology II—God and the Bible (3)
- Theology III—Man, Sin, and Salvation (3)
- Theology IV—Baptist Distinctives (3)
- Theology V—Dispensationalism (3)
- Theology VI—Systems and Separation (3)
- Senior Theology Seminar (1)

GENERAL STUDIES

The graduate of BBC also needs to have a good foundation in general education. Therefore, general education courses comprise a meaningful and vital part of the baccalaureate degree program. The general studies core courses include:

- History of Western Civilization and Thought (6)
- Literature (3)
- General Psychology (3)
- Speech (3)
- Life Fitness and Physical Education (3)
- General Studies Electives (9–12 credits total)

English Composition (6)*
Introduction to Fine Arts (3)
Science (6)—including Understanding Science (2)

*Teacher Education students have three credits of English Composition and six credits of College Math.

GLOBAL MINISTRIES

Topics dealing with edification, education, discipleship, evangelism, and missions will be studied in order to provide each student with a biblically based local church orientation for personal and professional ministry. This ministry core includes:

The Church's Ministry (3)
Proclaiming the Gospel (2)
Defending the Faith (1)

In addition, specific leadership competency is pursued in various program requirements through practicums, apprenticeships, student teaching, and ministry development opportunities.

Students pursuing a particular program should select from one of the programs which will best equip them for their anticipated career ministry. The faculty is prepared to counsel any student who needs assistance in making this important decision.

ELECTIVE OPPORTUNITIES

A feature of the Baptist Bible College curriculum offerings is the range of electives available to students. This permits students to choose courses from a single area of the curriculum or to obtain greater breadth by selecting a variety of courses. Even within the core curriculum, course options allow for the diverse interests of students.

Communications Ministries Programs

Purpose and Objectives

The Communications Ministries programs provide training for the student preparing for entry-level positions in Christian ministries in the areas of writing and drama. Each program also provides preparation for further education in a graduate program.

Upon completion of a Communications Ministries degree program, the student should have:

1. Communication skills that will enable the student to think, write, and speak clearly and effectively.
2. Learning skills that enable the student to continue developing personally and professionally toward the goal of effective communication in ministry.
3. Training that will enable the student to enter an area of full-time ministry or have appropriate preparation for excellence in graduate school.
4. Completed an apprenticeship or senior project in a communication-related ministry, providing field experience and contacts for future ministry opportunities.

Program Description

The primary focus of this program is to develop and hone the student's skills as a communicator. Although the majority of courses in the program are specific to a chosen emphasis of drama or writing, students are also exposed to communication ministries in the areas of group communication, public speaking, and mass communication.

Perhaps the most unique aspect of the program is the senior project or communication internship experience. This opportunity allows the student to experience at a deeper level a particular area of communication ministry. Graduation from these programs requires completion of seven ministry units.

General Education Program

Purpose and Objectives

Many students are not certain of the Lord's will for their lives at the time of admission to BBC. They desire a basic program of general education, coupled with a biblical orientation, that will give them a foundation either for later pursuit of a Christian ministry career or for continued studies at another post-secondary institution.

Upon completion of the General Education program, the student will:

1. Have the necessary foundation in general education upon which to build professional training for a Christian ministry career.
2. Be able to distinguish between the Christian and non-Christian views of the world.
3. Possess the required background and tools required to engage in specialized Biblical Studies.

Program Description

The General Education program provides students a broad exposure to the arts and sciences so they can better understand the physical world, others, and themselves. The program includes courses in English composition, speech, literature, fine arts, history, natural science, psychology, and physical education. Elective opportunities in several of these areas allow the student some choices to fulfill the distribution requirement. In addition, General Studies electives permit further exploration into a specific discipline.

One-Year Bible Certificate Program

Purpose and Objectives

The one-year Bible certificate program is designed to equip students who plan to enter careers other than Christian ministries with a basic background in biblical studies so they can intelligently and effectively communicate their faith. The Christian maturity and knowledge of the Bible gained during this brief time will prove invaluable as these students move into other colleges and professions. The program is also recommended for wives of married students who desire biblical training while their husbands are in school.

Program Description

A total of 31 credits is required, all of which must be earned at Baptist Bible College.

A minimum of one ministry unit must also be completed prior to graduation.

Upon successful completion of the One-Year Bible Certificate program, the student will be awarded the Bible certificate.

Missions Programs

Purpose and Objectives

The Missions programs at BBC provide students with a background of Biblical, Professional, and General Studies to prepare them adequately for missionary service. The programs provide a sound basis for further study at the graduate level. Students who are licensed as registered nurses can complete the missionary nursing program in two years.

Upon completion of a Missions program, a student will:

1. Be sufficiently prepared to apply for missionary service to mission agencies that are of like faith and practice.
2. Understand a biblical theology of missions and biblical principles of missionary work.
3. Possess the orientation necessary to face the problems and difficulties of living and ministering cross-culturally.
4. Recognize the proper perspective of the relationship between the student, the home church, the mission board, fellow missionaries, nationals, and the national church.
5. See the necessity of maintaining a consistent, godly life.

Program Description

The program contains a core of 42 semester credits of Bible and theology with 30 credits of Professional Studies appropriate for missionary preparation. To provide balanced training, the student also completes 43 credits of General Studies in the areas of communication skills, humanities, social sciences, natural science, and physical education. Twelve credits of free electives complete the course requirements.

The practical side of missionary training will be treated through a student's regular Christian ministry involvement and an apprenticeship. Seven ministry units are required for graduation. These must include two units of evangelism, one unit of Bible teaching experience, plus four electives. A supervised missionary apprenticeship of not less than six weeks is also required, for which academic credits may be earned.

Registered nurses completing the two-year program will have appropriate adjustments in the above requirements.

The four-year program can be modified to include an overseas experience. Through the ARRIBA! Program, students are able to take courses overseas during their junior year of college where they study in an intercultural setting. The ARRIBA! program relates to missions, Latin American studies, language, and other disciplines chosen to meet specific credit requirements. The program includes aspects of church planting, evangelism, discipling, literature distribution, and several educational/recreational field trips. Additional information for this unique educational program is available upon request.

Music Ministries Programs

Purpose and Objectives

The field of music increasingly requires a great deal of versatility, adaptability, and professionalism. Each course of study, with its rigorous combination of music courses, theology, and General Studies, prepares students to successfully negotiate the demands and expectations of a career in the church or the school and to meet the requirements of graduate school. Success in these enterprises is based on our music graduates having acquired a repertoire of useful skills as well as a Christian worldview that constrains them to apply these talents in a Christ-honoring fashion.

Upon completion of a Music Ministries program, students will:

1. Be proficient as vocalists or instrumentalists.
2. Possess a working knowledge of music theory and music history.
3. Be able to articulate a biblical philosophy of music and its value to all phases of Christian endeavor: local church, missions, and education.
4. Be able to participate effectively in the practical musical ministries of church or school.
5. Be able to organize, train, and direct musical groups in church or school.

B.S. in Bible and B.S.M. Programs

The Department of Music offers three programs of study: Music Education, Church Music (5-year and 4-year programs), and the Music Minor. The Music Education and 5-year Church Music program award both a degree in Bible and a degree in music.

Music Education (Five years)

B.S. in Bible and the Bachelor of Sacred Music (B.S.M.): 168 credit hours are required for graduation.

Church Music (Five years)

B.S. in Bible and the Bachelor of Sacred Music (B.S.M.): 162 credit hours are required for graduation. The program is designed for the person who will assume every responsibility associated with a complete ministry of music platform skills, pastoral responsibilities, direction of singers and instrumentalists, teaching of both adults and children, and mentoring and supervision of other musicians.

Church Music (Four years)

B.S. in Bible: 133 credit hours are required for graduation. This program is designed for the person headed for a local church ministry in which music leadership will be an integral part. At any point in this program, students may transfer their credits to the 5-year Church Music program and earn the B.S.M. degree.

Minor in Music

This program is designed for the student who wishes to include music as a significant elective area to the major program of study such as youth, pastoral, women's, or specialized ministries, etc. Courses may be freely distributed among the student's other classes with one exception: the two ensemble credits must be earned in consecutive fall and spring semesters (see Ensembles). There is a requirement of 15 credit hours of music in addition to the student's major program.

ADMISSION

Prerequisite Abilities

In addition to meeting the general requirements for admission to Baptist Bible College, prospective music majors should possess the following skills necessary for success as a college music major:

Reading ability. Facility and confidence in reading music is fundamental to everything music majors do. Students must possess the ability to learn music independently of either the assistance of a teacher or the coaching of a fellow student who does read; the ability to study the musical examples that are a part of music theory; and the ability to study and analyze multi-layered instrumental or vocal scores.

Repertoire development. Students should have experience in the study and performance of the essential classical repertoire pertaining to their specialties.

Performance experience. Since every music major will eventually present public recitals, it is an advantage to have developed skill at memory before starting a college degree program.

Technical ability. Students should be able to demonstrate technical prowess commensurate with the demands of the repertoire they are singing or playing. Practicing a daily routine of scales, arpeggios, etudes, solfege (whatever is idiomatic to your area) is good preparation for the expectations of a college music program.

Work habits. The ability to enjoy regular, sustained periods of goal-oriented practice is characteristic of every successful college music major.

Auditions Required for Admission

Admission to any of the programs of study is by audition only.

Applicants will apply for general admission to Baptist Bible College, but actual acceptance as a music major in the department of Music will be determined by auditioning before a music faculty committee. Audition appointments may be set up through the Department of Admissions or the administrative assistant to the Music Department. It is strongly recommended that a student applying for fall admission schedule the audition prior to February 15.

Auditions must include:

Classical selection. Anything that effectively shows your current level of advancement. Performance by memory is recommended.

Sacred selection. Anything that effectively shows your current level of advancement. Performance by memory is recommended. Singers and instrumentalists: Do not bring accompaniment tracks to the audition. An accompanist will be provided. (Bring a copy of the music.)

Technical routines. It is strongly recommended that singers, pianists, and instrumentalists be prepared to demonstrate their accomplishments in a variety of standard technical methods, e.g. scales, arpeggios, etudes, solfege (whatever is idiomatic to your area). Speed is not nearly as important as rhythmic control. Therefore, experience with the metronome is time well spent.

Sightreading. Applicants will be asked to read a selection chosen by the faculty at the time of the audition.

Office Professionals Programs

Purpose and Objectives

The purpose of these programs is to prepare individuals for career ministries as office professionals in churches, Christian schools, social agencies, mission offices, or other Christian organizations.

Upon completion of the Office Professionals program, the student will:

1. Possess the necessary technical, communication, and interpersonal skills needed for today's office.
2. Possess an orientation to ministry required of those who serve God in the Christian office.

Program Description

The Office Professionals programs provide students with technical expertise emphasizing information processing with a ministry orientation. The students develop skills in keyboarding, word processing, accounting, business communication, and computer usage for the Christian office. They also develop an understanding of working with others as skilled professionals who are Christians in service to God and His church. The programs feature practical, hands-on experience in office work. These programs also provide students with relevant courses in General Studies and essential basic courses in Bible and theology.

Pastoral Programs

Purpose and Objectives

The Pastoral programs are designed to prepare men for specialized pastoral ministry. Many graduates will go directly into the ministry in local churches. For others, this curriculum may form the basis for graduate studies. The overall objective is to produce pastoral leadership with well-rounded training for essential aspects of the ministry of the local church.

Upon completion of a Pastoral programs, the student should:

1. Be able to use knowledge of the Bible and theology effectively.
2. Be able to demonstrate basic skills in expository preaching (except the Pastor of Christian Education).
3. Be prepared to administer a local church successfully.
4. Be motivated with a pastor's heart and be prepared to perform the functions of the pastoral office.
5. Have laid the groundwork to become a mature man of God— spiritually, morally, and ethically.
6. Evidence concern for winning lost people to Christ and for building them up in the Christian faith.

Program Descriptions

These programs include a core of 42 semester hours of Bible and theology. The Biblical Studies base supports a minimum of 24 credits of professional training for the pastoral ministry. The Outreach Pastor, Youth Pastor, and Education Pastor programs are specialized modifications of the pastoral curriculum. Each program includes essential courses for the appropriate ministry emphasis.

Counseling Ministries Program

Purpose and Objectives

Biblical counseling is a ministry and a profession. As such, the undergraduate program focuses on the pre-professional knowledge base and skills necessary to minister in counseling settings at this level. While ample ministry opportunities are available for the BBC graduate at the baccalaureate level, such opportunities will be pre-professional in nature, including supervision by licensed and/or certified professionals in the field.

Persons desiring to use their counseling skills in a local church context will find BBC's undergraduate preparation very well-suited to their needs. The curriculum provides both knowledge-based and skill-building courses to prepare students for effective lay-level biblical counseling in a local church.

Students interested in pursuing graduate-level training in counseling will find the Counseling Ministries program to be excellent preparation for master's degree education. Upon completion of the graduate degree, students are ready to enter counseling ministries at the professional level, including serving as licensed and/or certified counselors.

Upon completion of the Counseling Ministries program, the student will have:

1. Developed biblical philosophy of counseling.
2. Developed a biblical model of counseling.
3. The desire to help people deal biblically with problems they face in life.
4. Learned the interface between biblical principles and natural revelation.
5. Prepared for graduate work in counseling.

Program Description

Core courses in Bible/theology as well as counseling/psychology are central to the curriculum of the Counseling Ministries program. Specifically, a student completes a substantial core of courses in both domains, which equips them to blend the principles of the Word of God with learned people-helping skills in order to be spiritual encouragement to those in need. Thus, Bible college graduates with both a biblical studies and counseling background can be key persons in assisting people who experience life difficulties. The BBC Counseling Ministries program emphasizes the sufficiency of Scripture in meeting counselee needs. In addition to the core course requirements, all Counseling Ministries students may complete a counseling apprenticeship program.

Pre-Seminary Program

Purpose and Objectives

The Pre-Seminary program provides training for men and women who plan to continue education for ministry at a graduate school or seminary upon completion of undergraduate studies.

Upon completion of the Pre-Seminary program, the student will:

1. Possess a basic knowledge of the Bible and theology.
2. Be able to demonstrate an adequate mastery of biblical languages to meet the entrance requirements of most conservative seminaries.
3. Be able to articulate a Christian worldview based on the integration of the Biblical and General Studies curriculum.

Program Description

The focus of the Pre-Seminary program is the integration of the Biblical and General Studies curriculum to prepare men and women for ministries that require a graduate-level degree. In addition to 42 credits of Bible and theology courses, there are 60 credits of General Studies required. These are distributed over a wide range of academic disciplines to assure a proper and balanced program for seminary studies. Twelve hours of electives afford students the opportunity to deepen or broaden their education according to their own interests.

Chaplaincy Program

Purpose and Objectives

The Chaplaincy program provides training for students who seek to minister in one of our nation's military branches of service. Military chaplains of all branches are required to have earned a Master's degree, to have a minimum of 72 hours of graduate level credits, and to be ordained. The degree and all credits can be earned at Baptist Bible Seminary (BBS). Some credits can be earned at BBS while enrolled in the College in order to shorten the time required for the completion of education. Chaplain Assistants are not required to have a Master's degree or be ordained. The majority of principles and ministry skills learned in this program carry over to other ministries, such as hospital, prison, corporation, fire, and police chaplaincies.

Upon completion of the Chaplaincy program, the student will:

1. Possess a basic knowledge of the common issues related to chaplaincy.
2. Be able to minister in a secular environment to a diverse population.
3. Have developed the counseling skills necessary to meet the needs of those who are hurting and or may be experiencing tragic circumstances.

Program Description

The focus of the Chaplaincy program at BBC is the integration of biblical studies, Christian ministries, and biblical counseling to prepare men and women for a variety of chaplaincy ministries. In addition to the 42 credits of Bible and theology courses, there are 30 credits for the chaplaincy major itself. Some 15 credits make up a minor in counseling, which is one of the primary duties of any chaplain. This program offers the flexibility of 12 hours of chaplaincy electives and 6 hours of free electives so it can be tailored to each student's specific area of interest.

Camping Ministries Program

Purpose and Objectives

Every year in the United States, the lives of nine million children and adults are influenced by more than 12,000 camping and retreat ministries hosted by organized camps, local churches, colleges, agencies, and mission boards. In addition, almost every church and school integrates experience-based learning principles into their core curriculum through youth meetings, vacation Bible school, AWANA, Sunday school, cell groups, missions trips, or work trips. Our vision is to prepare men and women who are passionate about making disciples and who are empowered to serve with excellence in camping and impact ministry venues.

Upon completion of the Camping Ministries program, the student will:

1. Integrate the Word of God into every aspect of the camp program with skill, creativity, and excellence.
2. Create programming that is driven by a clear sense of mission and purpose.
3. Position himself/herself and the organization as servants to the local church and family unit.
4. Understand the history, trends, and challenges of organized camp ministry.
5. Evaluate existing camping programs as to their effectiveness in fulfilling the mission.
6. Develop a workable philosophy of experience-based learning and in-process discipleship.
7. Demonstrate excellence in programming, administration, and stewardship of resources.
8. Lead others towards aggressive growth with the heart of a shepherd.

Program Description

The Camping Ministries program is built around a core of 42 semester hours of Bible and theology designed to give students a solid foundation for thinking and for ministering the truth of God's Word.

The program also includes 43 semester hours of General Studies courses intended to help students think clearly about the world in which they must live and minister that truth. The balance of the program involves the student in both general and specific ministry courses that help the students build necessary skills for taking the truth to the world through the use of camping and impact ministry approaches.

Students in this program will spend their junior or senior year at a leading organized camp where they will have the opportunity to interact with their camping courses in a hands-on laboratory setting. Up to 30 hours of the program will be delivered in this internship environment. This allows students to learn the concepts and skills in an active learning environment mentored by people who are doing what the students are learning to do.

As a part of their training process, students will be engaged in a process of ministry development that will involve them in a series of ministry assignments designed to expand their basic ministry skill sets. Student's interaction with the Ministry Development Office helps to tailor a program to allow for maximum growth in this area.

Specialized Ministries Program

Purpose and Objectives

The Specialized Ministries program is designed for the student who is seeking a Bible college education in preparation for:

1. A ministry specialization that draws from multiple disciplines, or
2. A generalized set of ministry competencies to serve as a foundation for more specific graduate training.

Upon completion of the Specialized Ministries program, the student will:

1. Show competence in application of Bible and theology for continued personal growth and for the benefit of others.
2. Apply an understanding of their General Studies exposure to an understanding of the world within which they seek to minister.
3. Exercise basic ministry leadership in the context of their chosen specialization.

Program Description

The Specialized Ministries program includes a core of 42 semester hours of Bible and theology designed to help students gain a basic understanding of the truth. The program also includes 42 hours of General Studies course work designed to help students understand the world in which they will be living and ministering that truth. Six hours of foundational ministry coursework are included in the program upon which all specializations are built. The remaining 33 credit hours are available for creating a specialized program of study. This specialization is developed for the student by an academic advisor selected by the director of the program. Advisors are selected based on their familiarity with the particular specialization the student wishes to pursue.

Women's Ministries Program

Purpose and Objectives

The Women's Ministries program is designed to assist women in developing their God-given gifts, abilities, and talents so they can serve God effectively.

Upon completion of the Women's Ministries program the student will:

1. Understand the church's ministry of edification and outreach.
2. Know how to present the Gospel and teach the Bible according to the Titus 2 principle.
3. Understand the theories and practice of biblical counseling to help people in local church ministries.
4. Be prepared for ministry to and from the family setting.
5. Understand the trends and issues affecting women's ministries.
6. Have communication skills for use in ministry settings.

Program Description

This program grows out of an interdisciplinary approach designed to prepare the student to be able to understand and communicate with the world around her, especially in a ministry context. Built on a foundation of Bible and General Studies courses, the Women's Ministries program includes general ministry leadership classes as well as specific classes designed to equip women for career ministry.

Women are counseled to use their electives to further equip them with ministry skills in specific areas according to their giftedness and interests. They may select from classes in other programs such as Office Professionals, Music, Missions, Youth Ministry, or Counseling.

Teacher Education Programs

Purpose and Objectives

The purpose of the Teacher Education Department at Baptist Bible College is to develop graduates who will be effective in the classroom. The history of BBC reflects strong support for the ministry of Christian schools. BBC is committed to preparing teachers to meet the needs of the Christian school and to lead in that ministry context.

The graduates of the Teacher Education programs will have developed a strong foundation in subject matter knowledge, pedagogical knowledge, and teaching skills.

Education graduates will be able to plan and execute instruction that meets the various needs of the diverse learner in an inclusive classroom.

Through the multidivisional experiences supported by the Bible and General Studies curriculum, the graduates of the Teacher Education program will be provided with the skills necessary for life-long learning, understanding of multi-cultural perspectives, and using technology that are important to any educator. Graduation from this program requires completion of seven ministry units.

Academic Credentials

Currently, BBC offers the following programs:

Elementary Education. The Elementary Education program leads to K–8 ACSI certification and K–6 Pennsylvania certification as well as the B.S. in Bible degree.

English Education. The English Education program leads to 7–12 ACSI certification and Pennsylvania English certification as well as the B.S. in Bible degree.

Social Studies Education. The Social Studies Education program leads to 7–12 ACSI certification and Pennsylvania Social Studies certification as well as the B.S. in Bible degree.

Health and Physical Education. This program leads to K–12 ACSI certification and K–12 Pennsylvania Health and Physical Education certification as well as the B.S. in Bible degree.

Music Education. The Music Education program leads to K–12 ACSI certification and K–12 Pennsylvania Music certification as well as the B.S. in Bible and Bachelor of Sacred Music degrees.

Early Childhood Education. The two-year program leads to an Associate in Arts (A.A.) degree. The four-year education program leads to ACSI certification and Pennsylvania certification in Early Childhood as well as the B.S. in Bible degree. Graduates may obtain dual certification in Elementary and Early Childhood for Pennsylvania.

Science Education. The Science Education program leads to 7–12 ACSI certification and Pennsylvania certification in General Science as well as the B.S. in Bible degree.

Bible Education. The Bible Education program leads to 7–12 ACSI certification as well as the B.S. in Bible degree.

Math Education. The Math Education program leads to 7–12 ACSI certification and Pennsylvania Math certification as well as the B.S. in Bible degree.

Application Information

Pursuant to the newest Pennsylvania state certification requirements, students may matriculate into BBC but must apply for entrance into a teacher education program in the sophomore year. Students may be accepted when:

- At least 48 credits have been completed
- The cumulative GPA is 3.0 or above
- Appropriate Praxis tests have been passed
- Appropriate clearances (Child Abuse History Clearance, Criminal Background Record Check, and a current Tuberculin test) have been secured.

This information is found in the education handbooks that are distributed in the initial education course called Introduction to Education (ED201) taken by all freshmen and transfer students upon entrance to Baptist Bible College.

Student Teaching

Students will apply for student teaching as a culmination of their programs. Successful applications will include the following:

- Completion of all core subject and pedagogy courses with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0.
- At least 90 hours of evaluated pre-student teaching classroom experience.
- Teaching competencies specific to your program.
- Passing all required Praxis tests.
- Satisfactory evaluation by the program advisor.

See the appropriate program handbook for information specific to your program.

Early Childhood Education Program

Purpose and Objectives

The purpose of this program is to prepare individuals for career ministries as early childhood educators in churches, Christian schools, social agencies, homes, pre-school programs, and day care programs with Christian orientation. Students desiring Pennsylvania state certification can move from this program into the four-year Early Childhood Education program.

Upon successful completion of this program, the student will:

1. Be aware of social, cultural, historical, and legal issues associated with early childhood education.
2. Appreciate the importance of active learning in the content of guided play and direct instructional techniques.
3. Know how to provide optimum, developmentally appropriate experiences for children in the early years.
4. Be involved in field experiences related to early childhood education.

Program Description

The Early Childhood Education A.A. degree is designed to be a two-year program that requires 60 hours for graduation. This program provides special courses in both human development and education which are used to integrate understanding of daycare and pre-school programs with relevant theories of child development. Thirteen hours are devoted to professional development, and the four credits of field experience provide practical observation, aiding, and teaching experience. With thoughtful choice of electives, the student may tailor the program to meet particular needs and interests. This program also provides students with relevant courses in General Studies and essential basic courses in Bible and Theology.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

COURSE NUMBERING

Each course in the curriculum is identified by a course number which is comprised of two letters and three numerals. The letters specify the department (or academic area), while the numerals distinguish the courses offered by that department.

The first numeral indicates the classification of students for whom a course is normally intended:

- 100s—for freshman students
- 200s—for sophomore students
- 300s—for junior students
- 400s—for senior students

The third numeral is an indicator of the semester in which a course is normally offered:

- Odd numbers—fall semester
- Even numbers—spring semester
- Zero (0)—either (or both) semesters

The middle numeral provides the necessary flexibility to distinguish courses in departments that have used all the available third digits. Thus BI101 represents the number of a Bible course that is prescribed in the freshman year, fall semester. Similarly, PA312 identifies a pastoral studies course that is required in the junior year, spring semester. PS100 indicates a freshman psychology course that is offered both semesters.

COURSE CREDIT VALUES

The credit value of each course is identified in bold type following the course title.

A student who is granted transfer credit for part of a course may be permitted by the appropriate faculty member to complete the requirement of that course by enrolling for the portion for which he/she has no transferable credit. In each case, the faculty member and the registrar will arrange the credit value assigned and an appropriate course title.

COURSE PREREQUISITES

The requirements, if any, for admission to a particular course, follow the course description. For example, under LA401 Greek III, the prerequisite given is LA302 Greek II, which must be completed before the student may enroll in LA401.

COURSE CANCELLATIONS

The College reserves the right to cancel any scheduled course for which low enrollment does not justify organization of a class.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Arts

AR200 Introduction to Fine Arts 3 credits

This course is a survey of Western culture focusing on the great painters from the Middle Ages to the twentieth century and the great composers from J.S. Bach through Igor Stravinsky. The meaning and significance of artistic expressions will be examined from historical, philosophical, and theological points of view.

Bible

BI100 Principles of Bible Study 3 credits

This course is an introduction to various tools of Bible study and a methodical and inductive approach to study of the Scriptures, basic laws, and principles of interpretation. This course includes opportunities to practice using the tools, methods, and principles.

BI101 Old Testament History 3 credits

This course surveys the history of the Old Testament. Israel's special place in the plan of redemption is emphasized. The class stresses the essential nature of gaining a knowledge of Old Testament history to an understanding of the Old Testament's message.

BI102 New Testament Survey 3 credits

This course is a study of the New Testament books with attention to their historical background, contribution to the Bible, and themes. It also surveys the development of those themes.

BI201 Old Testament Prophets 2 credits

This course is a study of the major themes of the prophetic books of the Old Testament. Each book is placed in its historical context, and its major themes are developed in light of this context. Selected passages are studied in detail to provide examples of the use of good principles of interpretation.

BI202 Old Testament Poetry 2 credits

This course is an introduction to the poetic books of the Old Testament. It includes an introduction to the nature and interpretation of Hebrew poetry, presenting the major themes of the books of Job, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and Song of Solomon. Selected Psalms are studied to illustrate the various types of Psalms.

BI210 Romans 3 credits

This course is a methodical and inductive study of Romans with emphasis upon the argument of the book, its doctrinal themes, and its demands upon the believer.

Prerequisite: BI100

BI301 Genesis 2 credits

This course examines the historical, theological, and prophetic themes of Genesis, matters relating to the origins of the human race and of Israel, a section-by-section exposition, including close analysis of selected passages and themes, and application of principles to contemporary life.

- BI344 Kings and Chronicles 2 credits
 This course examines the major movements of the records of the kings of Judah and Israel and the context of historical, geographical, and contextual settings, together with personal applications for today.
- BI345 Early Pauline Epistles 2 credits
 This course is a study of the three earliest Pauline Epistles: Galatians, I and 2 Thessalonians. This will involve the authorship, date, historical context, and a detailed exposition of each epistle.
- BI348 Exposition of Biblical Themes 2 credits
 This course will focus on the proper understanding of the Scriptures as progressive revelation through the exposition of biblical themes in the context of biblical theology. Because the themes and Scriptures discussed will vary from semester to semester, students may take this course more than once.
- BI431 Old Testament Law: Case Studies 2 credits
 This course examines selected Old Testament laws to interpret them within their context. After a basis of knowledge has been established by lectures and assigned reading, students will work in teams arguing case studies before an Appellate Court forum. The intent of the course is to give students increased skill in biblical exegesis and a healthy respect for the difficulty of making wise judgments based upon that skill.
- BI441 Joshua 2 credits
 This course studies the major movements of Joshua in the context of its historical, geographical, and archeological setting, with personal applications for today.
- BI444 Post-Exilic Prophets 2 credits
 This course examines the divine origin and functions of the Old Testament prophets. Careful analysis is given to selected portions of the Post-Exilic Prophets and the religious and political conditions of the times in which the prophets ministered is reconstructed.
- BI445 Matthew 2 credits
 This course is a careful analysis of the book in light of its use of many Old Testament prophecies of Israel's Messiah and His Kingdom as well as how Matthew presents Jesus Christ as the literal fulfillment of those prophecies.
- BI446 Hebrews 2 credits
 This course makes an analysis of the epistle to the Hebrews in light of the people to whom it was written and the reason for which it was written. Contrasts between Christianity and Judaism are emphasized.
- BI447 Daniel and Revelation 2 credits
 This course is a practical exposition of selected portions of the books of Daniel and Revelation. Presentation of the prophetic Scriptures and the person of Jesus Christ with doctrinal and eschatological features are emphasized.
- BI450 Bible Lands Seminar 3 credits
 This course is designed to give the student an in-depth exposure to the Bible by studying in the land of Israel. A rich international exposure is provided by studying for ten days in the Ancient Near East. Emphasis is placed on the historical, geographical, and cultural backgrounds of the Bible. Additional cost.

BI490 Independent Study in Bible 1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is a program of independent research open to qualified students interested in areas of biblical study not covered by current courses. Written reports are required, and it is offered upon application to department. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor.

Camping

CA400 Learning Activities, Games, and Events 3 credits

This course is an introduction to skills and competencies necessary for planning and leading learning activities. Students will learn how to introduce truth, illustrate truth, or illuminate a lack of truth through the use and modification of known activities or by introducing new activities, games, and initiatives.

CA401 Foundations of Camping and Outdoor Education 3 credits

This course is designed to familiarize the student with the history, philosophies, and current trends within the outdoor education and organized camping movement. Major topics addressed are centralized vs. de-centralized programming, residential and wilderness environments, and needs-based and age-graded programming.

CA403 Introduction to Impact Ministry Leadership 3 credits

This course trains individuals in the effective use of impact ministry environments and dynamics as tools for introducing others to a growing, intimate relationship with God. While the focus is on the camping and wilderness laboratory, this is a leadership course.

CA405 Counseling in Active Learning Environments 3 credits

This course is designed to help students understand principles and acquire competencies necessary to move participants toward growth in the context of short-term impact ministry environments such as retreats, resident camps, mission trips, and wilderness trips. Subjects include group dynamics, relationship building, camper discipline, facilitation, framing, debriefing, processing, and Bible study.

CA407 Foundations of Experience-Based Learning 3 credits

This course is designed to introduce the student to current experience-based learning theories, models, and tools. Students will investigate, evaluate, and adapt theories in order to develop skills for facilitating learning in a variety of environments and experiences.

Prerequisite: Permission of instructor and approval of department chair

EN490 Independent Study in Journalism 1, 2, or 3 credit (s)

This course of independent study is open to students who wish to pursue research and writing that would enhance journalism skills. Prerequisite: EN336, permission of instructor, and approval of department chair

Economics

ES301 Economic Concepts 3 credits

This course constitutes an inductive exploration of fundamental economic concepts through the close reading of seminal texts in the light of biblical revelation. The primary purpose of the course is for students to read difficult and unfamiliar economic texts with increasing skill and pleasure and to converse with each other so as to better understand and embrace the Christian worldview in light of competing systems of economic thought. Secondary purposes include the development of those intellectual and interpersonal skills necessary for articulating one's own thought clearly and cogently.

Ethics

ET455 Studies in Ethical Thought 3 credits

This course is intended as an introduction to several ethical philosophies spanning the Classical, Medieval, Modern and Post-modern world. Through a sustained interaction with primary sources, students will be led to grapple with and assess key ethical formulations from a Christian perspective. The chief ends of this course will be two-fold: 1) for students to work out the core of their theology of sanctification and 2) for students to understand the core theological/philosophical consequences of formulation ethics in non-biblical terms. Also listed as PH455

Evangelism

EV100 Proclaiming the Gospel 2 credits

This course is a study of relational evangelism through consideration of the Becoming a Contagious Christian evangelism course, followed by an introduction to basic discipleship for new believers. Also considered are the evangelistic methods of tract distribution, questionnaires, and personal correspondence. Students will be required to report on outreach activities to the unsaved. Fulfills one ministry development unit.

EV300 Defending the Faith 1 credit

This course is an apologetics course offered to prepare the student to answer the most common objections to the Gospel. Special emphasis is placed on the study of the message of salvation as compared with the false teachings of three major religions—Roman Catholicism, Judaism, and Islam—and two cults—Mormonism and the Jehovah's Witnesses. Students will report on outreach activities to the unsaved and will be involved in training and leading underclassmen in personal evangelism activities.

EV312 Church Evangelism Strategies 3 credits

This course is designed to introduce the student to a variety of options open to them for local church evangelism. Strategies will be analyzed with regard to their effectiveness with different cultural groups and with regard to their contemporary relevance. Stress will also be placed on presenting the Gospel accurately and clearly.

EV480 Apprenticeship in Evangelism 3 credits

This course requires a minimum of six weeks full-time summer apprenticeship. The qualified student is placed under the supervision of an experienced outreach pastor or evangelist for training and experience in the evangelistic work of the church. Open to men who have completed the junior year in any Pastoral Ministries program. May or may not be taken for credit. Interested students should consult with the department chair early in the junior year.

EV482 Apprenticeship in Evangelism 3 credits

This course requires a minimum of thirty weeks part-time apprenticeship during the fall and spring semesters of the same academic year. Qualified students will be placed under the supervision of an experienced outreach pastor or evangelist for training and experience in the evangelistic work of the church. Open to men who have completed the junior year in any Pastoral Ministries program. May or may not be taken for credit. Interested students should consult with the department chair early in the junior year.

EV490 Independent Study in Evangelism 1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is designed to help the student study areas of evangelism not included in other courses. Areas of concentration and other details are worked out between the student and the instructor.

General StudiesGS101 Orientation to Academic Life 1 credit

This course is designed to prepare the student for the academic rigors of college. Students will learn how to manage time, read, study, take notes and tests effectively as well as explore the resources and procedures required for academic success.

GeographyGE402 World Geography 2 credits

This course is designed to provide the student with the general knowledge base necessary for teaching geography in the elementary school. It emphasizes an overview of world geography, focusing upon political, physical, cultural, and economic geography.

HistoryHI101 American History I 3 credits

This course is a survey from pre-Colonial times to the period of 1877. Special attention is focused on the social, spiritual, intellectual, and cultural threads of American history.

HI102 American History II 3 credits

This course is a survey of United States history from the end of the Reconstruction Era (1877) to the present. Attention is focused on the social, spiritual, intellectual, and cultural threads of the nation's history.

HI111 History of Western Civilization and Thought I 3 credits

This course is an introduction to the seminal events, ideas, thinkers, and works of our Western civilization. The primary means of investigation will be direct interaction with poetic, political, and philosophic texts in the light of Divine revelation granted in Scripture. Underlying ideas, which influence deeds, will be the focus as the flow of history and thought from the creation account in Genesis through the Greco-Roman World to the beginning of the Modern Era is examined.

HI112 History of Western Civilization and Thought II 3 credits

This course is an introduction to the seminal events, ideas, thinkers, and works of our Western civilization. The primary means of investigation will consist of sustained interaction with poetic, political, and philosophic texts in the light of Divine revelation granted us in Scripture. Ideas, which influence deeds, will be our focus as we examine our Western heritage from A.D. 1500 to our present century.

HI204 Introduction to African History 3 credits

This course is a basic survey of the continent of Africa, noting the influence of religion, geography, colonialism, and other cultural features on the various people groups. Attention is also given to contemporary challenges facing the nations of the continent.

HI302 American Regime 3 credits

This course constitutes an inductive exploration of the fundamental principles of American political life through the close reading of seminal texts in the light of biblical revelation. The primary purpose of the course is for students to read difficult and unfamiliar texts that pertain to American political life with increasing skill and pleasure and to converse with each other so as to better understand and embrace the Christian worldview in light of competing systems of political thought. Of particular concern will be the meaning of the United States Constitution, the government that has emerged from it, the virtues and principles underlying democratic republican government in general, and the particular demands it places upon citizens and statesmen. Secondary purposes include the development of those intellectual and interpersonal skills necessary for articulating one's own thought clearly and cogently.

HI305 Philosophy of History 3 credits

This course constitutes an inductive exploration of the philosophy of history through the close reading of seminal texts in the light of biblical revelation. The primary purpose of the course is for students to read difficult and unfamiliar philosophic texts with increasing skill and pleasure and to converse with each other so as to better understand and embrace the Christian worldview in light of competing systems of philosophic thought regarding the meaning, motion, and study of history. Secondary purposes include the development of those intellectual and interpersonal skills necessary for articulating one's own thoughts clearly and cogently. Also listed as PH305

HI307 Introduction to Eastern Thought 3 credits

This course is an introductory examination of Eastern thought with particular emphasis on primary sources and their historical context. We will examine primarily the religious and philosophic texts of China and India with a view to hearing carefully what they say and juxtaposing them with the thought of Western philosophy and of the Biblical Near East. Also listed as PH307

HI341 History of the Church 3 credits

This course is a study of the origin of the Church as recorded in the Book of Acts, followed by a study of the Apostolic, Ante-Nicene, and Post-Nicene periods of the growth and development of the Church, traced through the Middle Ages and Reformation period to the rise of modern denominations.

HI401 Politics and Society 3 credits

This course constitutes an inductive exploration of politics and society through the close reading of seminal texts in the light of biblical revelation. The primary purpose of the course is for students to read difficult and unfamiliar political texts with increasing skill and pleasure and to converse with each other so as to better understand and embrace the Christian worldview in light of competing systems of political and sociological thought. In this regard, particular attention will be paid to the study of how political systems and governments emerge, how they maintain themselves (both internally and with respect to foreign powers), and how they deal with questions of injustice leading to reform or revolution. Secondary purposes include the development of those intellectual and interpersonal skills necessary for articulating one's own thought clearly and cogently.

HI402 Historic Christian Responses 3 credits

This course is an exploration of historic attacks upon Christianity launched by Enlightenment freethinkers and Christian responses written in its defense. Two specific purposes are served: to acquaint students with the principal attacks on the credibility of Christianity, and to give them a deep familiarity with selected classic works of those who rose to the challenge presented by their contemporaries and offered a brilliant case in defense of the Gospel. The overarching objective of the course is to form a biblically sound and historically informed response to anti-Christian skepticism with the good conscience that Scripture commends to all believers.

HI490 Independent Study in History 1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is open to students interested in reading in areas not covered by current course offerings. Areas of concentration and other details are worked out between the student and the instructor. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor

Health & Physical Education

HP100 Life Fitness 1 credit

This course teaches that the goal in Christian Education is to develop total or whole persons so that they may exemplify Christ and set examples in all areas of life. Life Fitness provides students with a better understanding of the mechanics and components of fitness and wellness. The intent of this course is to help students realize the value and role of physical activity on a philosophical, physiological, and personal level.

HP102 Outdoor Living Skills 1 credit

This course provide students with a better practical knowledge of the outdoors and the activities in which they can participate outdoors. The concept of the outdoors as a lifetime fitness activity will be discussed.

HP202 Foundations of Health and Physical Education 3 credits

This course is designed to help students develop a foundational understanding and a Christian philosophical perspective of health, physical education, and sports. The students are introduced to the relationships between physical education and health, fitness, recreation, dance, and other sub disciplines of the HPERD alliance. Special attention will be given to related history, philosophy, professional organizations, and publications as well as organizational and administrative problems, duties, and issues related to health and physical education.

HP203 Coaching Techniques 2 credits

This course is designed to provide the student with an overview of the philosophy, psychology, organization, general responsibilities, and methodology of an athletic coach. Class content and assignments will involve theory as well as practice.

HP206 Personal & Community Health 3 credits

This course is designed to help individuals incorporate and integrate the themes of health, wellness, and disease prevention into everyday life. Topics will include, yet not be limited to, consumer health, family and social health, environmental health, nutrition, weight management, mental and emotional health, communicable and chronic diseases, and substance use/abuse.

HP301 Individual, Dual, and Rhythmic Sports 3 credits

This course is designed to aid the pre-service teacher develop both knowledge and skill in a variety of sport activities such as badminton, racquetball, golf, tennis, weight training, tumbling, and rhythmic activities. Attention will be given to skill proficiency and assessment as well as rules, scoring, terminology, strategy, safety, and etiquette. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor

HP302 Adaptive Physical Education 2 credits

This course is designed to assist the student in understanding the mental, emotional, social, and physical conditions that require special considerations in an Adapted Physical Education program. This includes both improved understanding and practical application of curriculum issues, instructional strategies, and assessment needed for inclusion in an Adapted Physical Education setting. Aiding, observing, and teaching experiences will be arranged with special populations to reinforce what students have learned. Also listed as ED318.

HP303 Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries 3 credits

This course serves as an introduction to prevention, evaluation, care, and rehabilitation of sport-related injuries. Conditioning, training programs, nutrition, taping, and care of common injuries are analyzed and synthesized. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor

HP304 Team Sports 3 credits

This course is designed to aid the pre-service health and physical education K–12 teacher in developing knowledge, skill, and strategies for a variety of team sports. The following sports will be addressed: soccer, volleyball, basketball, baseball/softball, lacrosse, and/or street hockey.

HP305 Kinesiology 2 credits

This course is dedicated to the analysis of human movements as it relates to body mechanics, basic skills, and athletic performance. Individual muscles (position and purpose), levers, and laws of nature as they relate to movement will be discussed. Prerequisites: SC206 and permission of instructor

HP306 Exercise Physiology 2 credits

This course will study the effects of exercise on the human body and will include discussion of the scientific and spiritual needs for health and fitness maintenance as well as the principles related to various exercise needs and conditions. Prerequisite: SC206

HP308 Motor Learning and Skill Analysis 2 credits

This course is designed to help students understand how humans learn to move and how motor learning and movement is influenced and affected by the life span developmental processes. Emphasis is placed on critical element motor skill proficiency and assessment with appropriate sequential progressions for achievement in motor learning experiences.

HP310 First Aid, CPR, Aquatics, and Fitness Testing 0 credits

This course requires each student to successfully complete four (4) competencies: a basic first aid/first responder's course, CPR for adult and child, an aquatics class covering the basic strokes, progressions, aquatic activities, and water safety, and finally, health-related fitness testing, which will be administered to health and physical education majors during this course and in other designated courses throughout their undergraduate program.

HP313, HP314, HP315 Sport Skills Proficiency and Assessment Exam 0 credits

This course requires each student to demonstrate adequate proficiency and demonstrated ability to assess each of the movement and sports skills covered in HP301 Individual, Dual, and Rhythmic Sports, HP304 Team Sports, and HP308 Motor Learning and Skill Analysis classes. The instructor will verify the proficiency and assessment of the student in each movement and sports skills.

HP403 Senior Health & Physical Education Seminar 1 credit

This course is designed to enhance students' knowledge of and ability to participate in student teaching and future teaching in the areas of health and K–12 physical education. The seminar involves reading and discussions dealing with current health and physical education issues. Attention will also be given to the integration of a Christian worldview.

HP405 Health Education Concepts & Strategies 3 credits

This course provides an overview of the teacher's role in comprehensive school health education including an introduction to the health status of youth, at-risk students, components of the coordinated school health program, National Health Education Standards and PA General Standards. Information is provided on school health services, a healthful and safe school environment, the comprehensive school health education curriculum, instructional strategies and assessment. An important focus of this course is on the skills needed to teach health in a new and different way. Also listed as ED425. Prerequisite: HP206

HP419 Methods of Teaching Physical Education 3 credits

This course is designed to help students understand and demonstrate the various dimensions of effective teaching in K–12 physical education settings. The students will learn to functionally organize and develop a physical education curriculum and program implementation philosophy in accordance with NASPE and PA recommended standards. The students will prepare and teach educationally sound unit and managerial (routines and rules) principles, appropriate assessment, safety, game modifications, sequential progressions, and other effective teaching strategies and programming issues. Also listed as ED419. Prerequisites: HP301 and HP304

LanguageLA101 Elementary Spanish I 3 credits

This course is the beginning study of the Spanish language and is designed to introduce the student to the basic skills of conversation, pronunciation, reading, and grammar.

LA102 Elementary Spanish II 3 credits

This course continues to develop the student's conversation, pronunciation, reading, and grammar skills. Prerequisite: LA101 or Spanish placement exam.

LA301/LA302 Greek I and II 4 credits

These courses are designed to begin teaching the fundamentals of biblical (koine) Greek to students desiring to be able to read from the Greek New Testament. Prerequisite for LA302 is LA301

LA400 Linguistics and Language Learning 3 credits

This course is an introduction to the study of linguistics, the human language, and principles and methods for learning a second language. The first part of the course will deal with the nature of human language and the nature of grammar, linguistic creativity, language universals, and non-human communication. The course will include detailed analysis of phonetics, phonology, morphology, syntax, and semantics. The second part of the course will deal with the learning of a language through the "Language Acquisition Made Possible" (LAMP) method.

LA401 Greek III 3 credits

This course will build upon the skills developed in LA301 and LA302. Students will be introduced to Greek syntax and will expand their Greek vocabulary. Passages from the New Testament will be used to increase students' translation and parsing speed. Prerequisite: LA302

LA402 New Testament Greek Exegesis 3 credits

This course builds upon the skills developed from LA301, LA302, and LA401 as students translate, parse, and exegete their way through a Pauline Epistle. Online and hard copy Greek word study tools will be employed as students complete an exegetical paper of a passage from this epistle. This course is designed to prepare students for Greek on a seminary level or for the entry-level pastorate. Prerequisite: LA401

LA441 Introduction to Biblical Hebrew 3 credits

This course uses the study of biblical Hebrew to make the learners better students and teachers and to broaden their understanding of the Old Testament while helping them learn how to teach themselves a subject (in this case, a language).

LA442 Hebrew Readings 3 credits

This course uses the study of biblical Hebrew to make the learner better students and teachers, to broaden their understanding of the Old Testament, and to help them learn how to teach themselves a subject (in this case, a language). The language objectives being pursued build upon LA441 Introduction to Biblical Hebrew. Prerequisite: LA441

LA445 Hebrew Exegetical Principles 3 credits

This course builds upon the basic skills in grammar and translation gained in first-year Hebrew. Exegetical principles are taught by the preparation of text editions from a wide selection of biblical genres. Prerequisite: LA442

LA446 Aramaic and Comparative Semitics 3 credits

This course presents the basic grammar and syntax of biblical Aramaic as an introduction to the field of comparative Semitics. The Aramaic texts in Daniel and Ezra will be translated and analyzed with a view toward understanding the relationship of Hebrew and Aramaic within the family of Semitic languages. Translations, text editions, and a research paper will be required.

LA470 Independent Study in Semitic Languages 1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is designed for students who are already proficient in biblical Hebrew to learn how to work with other Semitic languages such as Ugaritic, Aramaic, or Akkadian. The course will present the grammar and syntax of the language and introduce the student to translation of basic texts. A text edition and research paper will be required.

LA480 Independent Study in the Hebrew Bible 3 credits

This course is designed for advanced students in biblical Hebrew. One book of the Old Testament will be studied in-depth in Hebrew through readings, translations, text-editions, and class lectures.

LA490 Independent Study in New Testament Greek 1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is an independent study in New Testament Greek designed to give the student practice in translation, parsing, syntax, and exegesis. Paper required. Offered in accordance with demand. Prerequisite: LA401

Literature

LI201 World Literature I: Classics—Renaissance 3 credits

This course presents a chronological study of great literary works of Western culture from the ancient classics through the Renaissance. This is a writing-intensive course that requires reading, discussion, writing, and critical thinking. It will include analysis of literary techniques, themes, and literary genre presented by great authors. Prerequisite: EN102, EN103, or EN105

LI202 World Literature II: 17th Century—Modern Period 3 credits

This course includes the study of great masterpieces of world literature from the seventeenth century through the Post-modern period. It examines literary approaches included within Neoclassicism, Romanticism, Realism, Naturalism, Modernism, and Post-modernism. This is a writing intensive course that requires reading, discussion, writing, and critical thinking. Prerequisite: EN102, EN103, or EN105

LI203 Survey of Biblical Themes in Literature 3 credits

This course is designed to trace biblical themes, motifs, and allusions in the literature of Western Civilization as they emerged after the Reformation. Specific attention will be given to the authors whose works reflect themes found in Scripture regarding the fall, salvation, and sanctification of man. This is a writing-intensive course that requires reading, discussion, writing, and critical thinking. Prerequisite: EN102, EN103, or EN105

LI204 Introduction to Poetry 3 credits

This course is an introduction to the language and craft of the poet. It will examine the ability of poetry to appeal to the reader's intelligence, imagination, and senses. This writing-intensive course will help students look at a poem closely, offer vocabulary with which to express what poems mean, and provide students with opportunities for critical analysis and creative expression. Prerequisite: EN102, EN103, or EN105

LI211 British Literature I: Medieval Period—18th Century 3 credits

This course presents a chronological survey of literature and primary sources presented through the historical contexts of Medieval England through the Restoration and early eighteenth-century periods. This course will enable students to examine and evaluate the historical and contemporary significance of the major works of each era. This is a writing-intensive course that requires reading, discussion and critical thinking. The influence of British literature upon Modern thought will be explored. Prerequisite: EN102, EN103, or EN105

LI212 British Literature II: Romantic—Modern Period 3 credits

This course presents a chronological survey of nineteenth-century through mid/late twentieth-century British literature emphasizing the cultural values, moral standards, and philosophies of life during the Romantic, Victorian, and Modern periods of history and therefore of literary and cultural development. Examination and evaluation of literary criticism for works and genres of these eras will be explored. The writing component will deal with literary analysis and criticism of works studied. Prerequisite: EN102, EN103, or EN105

LI221 American Literature I: Puritan Times—Civil War 3 credits

This course provides a chronological, historically relevant, thematic study of the social, political, philosophical, and religious ideas that sparked the poetic imagination of the early American writer. This is a writing-intensive course that requires reading, discussion, writing, and critical thinking. It reviews the development of American thought as it is revealed in the great works of American literature from the Puritan period to the Civil War (1600–1850). Prerequisite: EN102, EN103, or EN105

LI222 American Literature II: Civil War—Present 3 credits

This course provides a thematic survey of the three major literary movements that have occurred since the Civil War: Realism, Modernism, Postmodernism. This is a writing-intensive course that requires reading, discussion, and critical thinking. We will review the development of American thought as it is revealed in the Great Works of American literature from the Civil War to the present. Readings will center on primary works, and writings will predominantly consist of literary analysis. Prerequisite: EN102, EN103, or EN105

LI301 Contemporary Christian Writers 3 credits

This course presents a survey of prominent contemporary writers who have explored the Christian faith in essay, allegory, biography, and novel. This is a writing-intensive course that requires reading, discussion, writing, and critical thinking. Prerequisite: EN102, EN103, or EN105

LI302 Studies in the Novel 3 credits

This course traces the development of the novel as a literary genre from its 17th-18th century inception to the present. This reading intensive course will track the changes in the areas of plot structure, characterization, and ethical appeal. The position of the novel in literary tradition, the purpose of the novel as a genre, and the power of the novel form will be discussed. Prerequisite: EN102, EN103, or EN105

LI303 Studies in Dramatic Literature 3 credits

This course traces the development of dramatic literature from the classical Greek period through contemporary times. This reading-intensive course requires discussion, writing, and project work. Also listed as DR303. Prerequisite: EN102, EN103, or EN105

LI304 The Short Story 3 credits

This course is designed to study the characteristics and influence of the short story as a modern literary genre. The emphasis will be on the five elements: conflict, plot, characterization, theme, and symbolism/irony. Modern short stories will be studied, and the historical development of this genre in America and Europe will be traced. This is a writing-intensive course that requires reading, discussion, writing, and critical thinking. Prerequisite: EN102, EN103, or EN105

LI331 Selected Works of Shakespeare 3 credits

This course will present selected Shakespearean drama and poetry. This writing-intensive course will emphasize the interpretation of Shakespeare's content, style, and characterization. Writings will consist predominantly of literary analysis. The course will seek to help the student develop an understanding of the themes and applications of these classics. Also listed as DR331. Prerequisite: EN102, EN103, or EN105

LI341 Foundations of Literary Criticism 3 credits

This course in literary criticism deals with the philosophy, systems, and patterns by which literature is studied. The focus of the course is to understand how to work with literary text within its literal, grammatical, cultural/historical context in order to determine authorial intent. Works that lay the foundation for literary criticism will be examined and several stellar literary texts will be evaluated.

LI342 Classical Epic 3 credits

This course serves as an introduction to the two epics of Homer, the Iliad and the Odyssey, as well as Virgil's historical epic, the Aeneid. The study will approach these seminal works as a foundation for understanding the classical Graeco-Roman world. The aim will be to experience their respective dramas so as to uncover the fundamental political and philosophic understanding embedded in them. Prerequisite: EN102, EN103, or EN105

LI401 Themes in Adolescent Literature 3 credits

This reading-intensive course is designed to acquaint prospective teachers of English, potential writers, and others who work with youth with a survey and range of literature appropriate for the needs and capabilities of junior and early high school students. This course is designed to trace the literary themes of books written for and about adolescents. Prerequisite: EN102, EN103, or EN105

LI490 Independent Study in Literature 1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is a program of independent study is open to students interested in areas not covered by current course offerings. Areas of concentration and other details may be worked out between the student and the instructor. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor and the department chair

Math

MA102 College Math I 3 credits

This course is designed to develop the concepts and skills of mathematics, beginning with a comparison of number systems and bases, working through number theory and calculations with whole numbers and fractions, and applying these ideas and skills to applications of percentage, problem solving, and beginning algebra. Students will be required to construct a spreadsheet that calculates a weighted grade.

MA127 Freshman Mathematics Seminar 0 credit

This course is an introduction to the Secondary Mathematics program. The student will become acquainted with the basic requirements of the program. The student will also be given a chance to view websites and other materials relevant to teaching secondary school mathematics. Additionally, the student will practice solving some challenging problems using only high school mathematics.

MA201 College Math II 3 credits

This course is designed to extend the concepts and skills of mathematics, applying the ideas and skills of College Math I to algebra, geometry, basic trigonometry, probability, and statistics. Emphasis is placed on educational statistics required for assessment of learning. Students will be required to construct a spreadsheet that calculates educational statistics. Prerequisite: MA102

MA204 Discrete Mathematics 3 credits

This course is an introduction to discrete mathematics. The students will demonstrate an understanding of topics such as basic logic and mathematical reasoning, proof techniques in mathematics, elementary set theory, relations and functions, permutations and combinations, and elementary graph theory.

MA206 Linear Algebra 3 credits

This course is an introduction to basic ideas of linear algebra. The student will develop an understanding of topics including but not limited to systems of linear equations, matrices and determinants, vector spaces, linear transformations, connections with secondary mathematics and use of technology in visualizing and solving linear algebra problems. Prerequisite: MA212 (May be taken concurrently with MA212)

MA212 Calculus I 3 credits

This course is an introduction to basic concepts of calculus. The student will develop an understanding of topics such as limits, continuity, and differentiation, applications of derivatives, and use of technology in solving calculus problems. Prerequisite: Demonstrated skills of algebra and trigonometry

MA213 Calculus II 3 credits

This course is a continuation and extension of the concepts studied in MA212. The student will show an understanding of topics such as techniques of integration, applications of the definite integral to geometry and physics, logarithms and exponential functions and use of technology. Prerequisite: MA212

- MA303 College Geometry 3 credits
This course is an introduction to geometry. The student will develop an understanding of topics including but limited to Euclidean Geometry, constructions, proof in geometry, non-Euclidean geometries and use of technology. Prerequisite: MA212 and MA204
- MA312 Calculus III 3 credits
This course is a continuation of MA212 and MA213. The student will develop an understanding of topics such as improper integrals, indeterminate forms, infinite series and power series, polar coordinates, and use of technology. Prerequisite: MA213
- MA313 Calculus IV 3 credits
This course is the final course in the calculus sequence. The student will demonstrate an understanding of topics such as three-dimensional geometry, vector-valued functions, partial derivatives, multiple integrals, and use of technology. Prerequisite: MA312
- MA316 Probability and Statistics 3 credits
This course is an introduction to the basic ideas of probability. The student will show an understanding of topics such as computing probabilities of events, probability distributions, Bayes' Theorem, measures of central tendency, linear regression, and correlation. Use of technology is integrated with instruction. Prerequisite: MA213
- MA322 Number Theory 3 credits
This course is an introduction to number theory. The student will develop an understanding of topics including but not limited to divisibility, greatest common divisor and least common multiple, the Euclidean Algorithm, congruences, Fundamental theorem of Arithmetic, rational and irrational numbers, and connections with secondary mathematics. Prerequisite: MA204
- MA401 Introductory Analysis 3 credits
This course is an introduction to real analysis. The student will demonstrate an understanding of topics such as the topology of the real numbers, proofs of various limit theorems, continuity and differentiation of functions of a real variable, the Riemann Integral, and sequences and series. Prerequisite: MA204
- MA402 Abstract Algebra 3 credits
This course is an introduction to algebraic structures. The student will develop an understanding of topics such as the rings, integral domains, fields, ideals, groups, and connections with secondary mathematics. Prerequisites: MA204
- MA404 Mathematical Seminar 2 credits
This course is an introductory examination of some of the important episodes in the history of mathematics. The student will become acquainted with topics such as the leading historical and contemporary figures in mathematics, some of the Great Proofs in mathematics, the development of certain ideas in mathematics, and the influence of mathematics on the culture and society from ancient to modern times. Prerequisite: MA313

MA490 Independent Study in Math 1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is a semi-independent study of a topic of interest to the student which is not covered in the regular courses. Prerequisite: Senior standing and consent of the department

MissionsMI240 Understanding Islam 2 credits

This introductory course is designed to provide the basic information about Islam. It will cover Islamic beliefs and practices, social and political issues as set forth in the Qur'an and the saying of the prophet Muhammad Hadith.

MI301 Missionary Anthropology 3 credits

This course is a study of man's cultures, customs, moral codes, social institutions, languages, arts, and industries. It gives future missionaries a better understanding of and attraction to the people with whom they will labor. Open to juniors and seniors in all ministry programs.

MI302 Cross-Cultural Communication 3 credits

This course is a study of problems of spoken and written communication where cultural and/or linguistic boundaries must be crossed.

MI304 World Religions 3 credits

This course is a survey of world religions and cults with special attention given to their contemporary influence on stateside and global ministries. Additional emphasis will be placed on the false teachings of the religions.

MI306 The Dynamics of Discipleship 2 credits

This course teaches that at the core of ministry leadership is the business of shepherding individuals toward God, helping them grow in their faith, and mobilizing them as productive parts of the body of Christ. This course is designed to introduce students to concepts of spiritual development, a biblical understanding of what it takes to be a shepherd, and approaches for growing people of various age groups through each stage of growth.

MI401 Church Planting and Church Growth 3 credits

This course is an in-depth study of the theology, theory, and practice of worldwide church planting and church growth. Biblical principles of church growth along with illustrations of the dynamics of church growth.

MI402 Missions Seminar 3 credits

This course is a study of the relationships and ministry of the missionary as well as research into current trends in missionary work.

MI403 Cross-Cultural Evangelism 3 credits

This course is a study of the theology, principles, and procedures of communicating Christ across culture. This course will also include a study of the diverse cultural patterns of establishing and recognizing authority, legitimacy, and leadership as they affect the promotion of worldwide evangelism.

MI442 Contemporary Religious Movements 3 credits

This course is a survey of world religions and cults with special attention being given to their contemporary influence on home and foreign mission fields and how individuals in these groups can be won to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

MI480 Missionary Apprenticeship 4 credits

This course is an approximate six-week period of continuing educational experiences on the field under the supervision of an experienced missionary. This is open to students from any ministry program following the completion of their junior year. May or may not be taken for credit. Assignment to a site will be at the discretion of the director of this program. Interested students should apply at the beginning of their junior year.

MI490 Independent Study in Missions 1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is designed to help the student study areas of missions not included in other missions courses. Areas to be studied and other details are developed between the student and the instructor. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor

MusicMU101 Musicianship I 3 credits

This course approaches the fundamentals of music systematically—corroborating theoretical implications with experience. Basics of notation are reviewed and simple models for understanding melodic and harmonic elements are introduced. A survey of motives, phrase structures, period construction, cadences, and textural analysis underscores the relationship between melody and harmony.

MU102 Musicianship II 3 credits

This course continues the systematic approach to musical concepts begun in Musicianship I. Subjects covered include: voice-leading in four voices, common diatonic harmonic progressions, dominant & non-dominant 7th chords, leading-tone 7th chords, modulation, secondary dominants, and binary & ternary forms. Functional keyboard skills are developed. Students will compose a four-part choral piece and a sacred piece in ternary form, and they will analyze great works from the Anthology for Musical Analysis. Prerequisite: MU101

MU104 Aural Skills I 1 credit

This course partners with Musicianship II to develop basic sight-reading and keyboard skills, necessary for perceptive, fluent performance of major/minor scale forms and melodies that use 2nds, 3rds, 5ths, and 6ths. Prerequisite: MU101 or permission of instructor

MU110 Music Performance Seminar 0 credits

This course is a weekly plenary session required of all music majors. It provides a public forum for music appreciation, performance, and career development. Recitals and guest lectures are featured each semester. All interested in the experience of music are welcome to attend.

MU201 Musicianship III 3 credits

This course takes a historical approach to musical analysis. Late Renaissance vocal and early Baroque instrumental composition styles are covered. Techniques of invention and fugue are studied with special emphasis on the works of J.S. Bach. Theme and variation, sonata and rondo are analyzed through works from the Classical period. Students will compose an invention, fugue exposition, and an original theme and variation sequence employing standard variation techniques and new harmonic progressions. Prerequisite: MU102

MU202 Musicianship IV 3 credits

This course combines a continued historical approach to musical analysis with a systematization of compositional procedures and styles from the Romantic era through the first half of the twentieth century. Remaining aspects of Western music that are covered include chromatic harmony, extended tertian and quartal harmony, especially as used in twentieth century jazz idioms, impressionism, and modern theoretical analysis, including serial composition and other twentieth century trends. Students will compose and analyze pieces in all styles studied. Prerequisite: MU201 or permission of instructor

MU209 Aural Skills II 1 credit

This course partners with Musicianship III to continue the development of basic musicianship skills. Use of chromatic intervals, triads and dominant 7th chords, minor scales and compound rhythmic meters are covered. Prerequisite: MU102

MU301 Survey of Music History I 3 credits

This course is a summary of the major movements, genres, and forms in Western music from Ancient Greece through the early eighteenth century. By reading, listening, score reading, and class discussion, the student will establish a foundation for musical analysis, performance evaluation, and aesthetic discrimination. Prerequisite: MU202

MU302 Survey of Music History II 3 credits

This course is a summary of the major movements, genres, and forms in Western music from J. S. Bach through twentieth century European and American composers. Reading, listening, score reading, and class discussion will be organized around representative masterworks from each period. Prerequisite: MU301

MU306 Group Vocal Technique 2 credits

This course is a survey of successful methods of teaching vocal technique in the choral rehearsal. Students will learn how to develop a beautiful choral sound by knowing how to apply appropriate exercises to particular vocal problems: breathing, support, diaphragm activity, resonance, range extension, register consistency, vowel modification, etc. The class will function as a workshop in which students will develop their rehearsal/teaching skills in front of the rest of the class. Prerequisite: MU202

MU314 Instrumental Methods I 2 credits

This course is designed to develop an understanding of the fundamentals of playing and teaching brass and percussion instruments: tone production, intonation, technical problems, selection and care of instruments. The objective is the preparation of the student to teach beginning instrumentalists in a church or school setting and to develop a sensitive, intelligent approach to rehearsing instrumental ensembles. Prerequisite: MU202

MU315 Vocal Composition and Arranging 2 credits

This course teaches that students should be able to meet any reasonable choral arranging request after completing this course. While art music is studied for exposure to vocal polyphony and counterpoint, the application is broader. Prerequisite: MU102

MU316 Instrumental Composition and Arranging 2 credits

This course is concerned with the distinctive, particular sound each instrument makes alone and in combination with other instruments, the techniques used to produce these sounds, and the translation of any musical texture to an instrument medium. Emphasis is on traditional orchestral instruments with secondary emphasis on scoring for band and instrumental ensemble. Prerequisite: MU201

MU335 Instrumental Ensemble 1 credit

This course is an ensemble of 25-35 members, including woodwinds, brass, percussion, and strings which participates in BBC special events and weekend ministry concerts. Repertoire covers standard sacred and secular orchestra pieces as well as small instrumental ensemble numbers. Three hours of rehearsal weekly.

MU360 Chamber Singers 1 credit

This course is a 16-voice, selected mixed ensemble which participates in BBC&S special events, weekend concerts, and a tour during spring break. Three hours of rehearsal weekly.

MU370 Concert Chorale 1 credit

This course is a mixed ensemble of 40-45 voices which participates in BBC&S special events, weekend concerts, and a tour during spring break. Three hours of rehearsal weekly.

MU401 Conducting 3 credits

This course instructs the student in techniques and procedures of conducting choral music. Basic patterns are developed from the standpoint of clarity and appropriateness of gesture to tempo, dynamics, articulation, and interpretation. Prerequisite: MU202

MU402 Advanced Conducting 3 credits

This course is designed to further develop basic conducting skills and apply them to instrumental ensemble music. Attention will be given to the complexities and subtleties inherent in the wide variety of instrumental color and articulation. Prerequisite: MU401

MU404 Foundations and Issues in Worship 2 credits

This course is a study of the biblical and historical foundations of Christian worship as an antidote to the errors that can easily dominate it: anthropocentric rather than God-centered attitudes toward worship; methodological approaches to worship, and the performance-based approach. Scripture will be the primary source in examining the responsibility faced by the twenty-first century Church as it attempts to worship in spirit and in truth in the face of many challenges. Prerequisite: MU202

MU413 Instrumental Methods II 2 credits

This course is designed to develop an understanding of the fundamentals of playing and teaching woodwind and string instruments: tone production, intonation, technical problems, selection and care of instruments. The objective is the preparation of the student to teach beginning instrumentalists in a church or school setting and to develop a sensitive, intelligent approach to rehearsing instrumental ensembles. Prerequisite: MU202

MU423 Church Music Administration 3 credits

This course for church music majors will continue to refine a philosophy of church music growing out of Foundation and Issues in Worship (MU404). Students will develop platform skills while learning to develop and implement multiple-choir and instrumental programs. Special units of study will focus on rehearsal techniques, record keeping, financial administration, resources (choral, instrumental, worship), and facility.

MU426 Hymnology 3 credits

This course is a systematic, historical study of the origins and purposes of the hymns of the church, including examination of hymns as literature, theological expression, devotional material, and musical expression. Special emphasis will be given to the importance and viability of hymn singing in the twenty-first century. Prerequisite: MU302

MU429 Church Music Apprenticeship 2 credits

This course consists of involvement in regular weekend music ministry in a church within a reasonable distance from the College. It is designed to provide practical opportunities for 5th-year Church Music majors under the mentorship of a qualified music pastor in the areas of platform experience, administrative responsibility, and actual direction of musicians in the church. Parameters of this project will be determined from the outset through the cooperative effort of the instructor, the sponsoring church, and the student. Students will journal the experience and receive evaluation from the host church.

Office ProfessionalsOP101 Keyboarding 1 credit

This course teaches the computer keyboard with emphasis on developing speed, accuracy, and proper technique. Students with at least one year of keyboarding or typing instruction may test out of keyboarding.

OP104 Business Communication 3 credits

This course involves the integration of the principles of grammar, spelling, and punctuation with the composition of business/church letters, reports, memoranda, and other media of communication. Oral communication in business and intercultural communication will be included.

OP110 Word Processing 3 credits

This course emphasizes the theory and practice of word processing with the use of Microsoft Word for Windows. Training in the computer's operating system is also included. The Microsoft Office Specialist (MOS) exam in Word will be given. Prerequisite: Keyboarding competency

OP200 Document Production/ Machine Transcription 3 credits

This course is designed to build both accuracy and speed. Emphasis will be placed on the production of business letters, interoffice memos, reports, tables, and other business documents using Microsoft Word. Training will include development of skills in machine transcription and speech recognition. Prerequisite: OP110

OP205 Introduction to Web Design 3 credits

This course is designed to train students to create basic web sites using Dreamweaver®, to learn design fundamentals using Photoshop®, and to learn basic HTML. Prerequisites: Basic knowledge of computer and Internet use

OP206 Computer Applications 3 credits

This course trains students in Microsoft Excel and Access. The Microsoft Office Specialist (MOS) exam in Excel will be given.

OP208 Desktop Publishing 3 credits

This course teaches concepts of desktop publishing and graphic design by using Adobe InDesign and through producing forms, documents, newsletters, brochures, and other publications. The course surveys the concepts, hardware, software, and processes used in design. The format is lecture, demonstration, discussion, and lab work. Also included is a section dealing with Microsoft PowerPoint.

OP211 Accounting 3 credits

This course is designed to familiarize the student with double-entry accounting procedures involving the fundamental accounting cycle, special journals and subsidiary ledgers, payroll records and procedures, banking transactions, reporting the results of operations, accounting and office technology, and accounting for the Christian organization.

OP215 Human Relations in the Office 3 credits

This course is designed to give the students an understanding of themselves and their personal, social, and vocational relationships. Topics include work adjustments and human relations, the role of motivation, leadership, and group participation, dealing with conflicts, handling situations relative to the Christian office, developing social skills, improving personal appearance and grooming.

OP218 Office Procedures 3 credits

This course is designed to introduce a wide variety of office practices. Some topics that will be covered include records management, telecommunications, mail processing, telephone procedures, and reprographics. Students will prepare resumes and practice job interviews. Students are encouraged to develop an attitude of professionalism and responsibility in the area of Christian service. Prerequisite: OP110

OP220 Office Practicum 1 credit

This experiential course emphasizes definite training in office duties and procedures and developing resourcefulness through the solution of actual business problems encountered in the office. Students will be assigned to offices in the college, local churches, and Christian schools. The instructor will meet with the students to discuss their progress and evaluation. Assignments will be individually designed to meet the interests of the student.

Prerequisite: OP110

OP230 Readings in Office Administration 1 credit

This course involves the reading and reporting of articles in current Christian and business periodicals covering those areas which may not be given thorough coverage in other classes but which may be beneficial to the individual working in a Christian office setting. Suggested subjects for reading and reporting will be given at the beginning of each semester with consideration given to current advancements in the business office and to individual student needs.

Pastoral

PA311 Personal Life of the Ministry Leader 2 credits

This course is based on the fact that those who would be ministry leaders within the church of Jesus Christ are called upon to be examples of the believers in all aspects of life. This course is intended to help students explore God's expectations for leaders in relation to personal discipline, integrity, relationships, financial prudence, and family responsibilities. Students will be given opportunity to evaluate themselves and to develop a plan for personal character development.

PA404 Pastoral Ministries Seminar 3 credits

This course is designed to familiarize the student with concepts, skills, and competencies necessary for effective pastoral ministry. It will involve the student in exploring characteristic of a healthy church and staff relationships, exposing them to various responsibilities of the pastoral function, and demonstrating numerous practices expected of pastors.

PA412 Expository Preaching 3 credits

This course focuses on expository preaching, a method of sermon development which expounds a biblical text in an accurate and effective manner. This course is designed to equip the student in the preparation of expository sermons. To develop proficiency as an expositor, the student will learn the process of moving from analysis of the text through exegesis to a sermon structure which communicates truth to contemporary minds.

PA421 Advanced Expository Preaching 3 credits

This course is designed to enhance the skills learned in PA412 Expository Preaching through the strategy of group sermon development, class interaction, and local church presentation of the messages which have been developed. Prerequisite: PA412

PA442 Pastoral Counseling 3 credits

This course is a review of the latest principles of good counseling and various techniques of guidance. Applications of these principles and techniques are made for the practical needs of the ministry. Premarital counseling, marriage counseling, crisis counseling, and vocational guidance are covered.

PA480 Pastoral Apprenticeship 3 credits

This course is a minimum of six weeks summer apprenticeship. Qualified students are placed under the supervision of an experienced pastor for training and experience in the work of a church. This course is open to men who have completed the junior year in any pastoral curriculum. May or may not be taken for credit. Interested students should consult with the department chair early in the junior year.

PA482 Pastoral Apprenticeship 3 credits

This course is a minimum of thirty weeks part-time apprenticeship during the fall and spring semester of the same academic year. Qualified students are placed under the supervision of an experienced pastor for training and experience in the work of a church. This course is open to men who have completed the junior year in any pastoral curriculum. May or may not be taken for credit. Interested students should consult with the department chair early in the junior year.

PA490 Independent Study in Pastoral Ministries 1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is designed to help the student study areas of pastoral ministry not included in other pastoral studies courses. Areas of concentration and other details are worked out between the student and the instructor.

Philosophy

PH305 Philosophy of History 3 credits

This course constitutes an inductive exploration of the philosophy of history through the close reading of seminal texts in the light of biblical revelation. The primary purpose of the course is for students to read difficult and unfamiliar philosophic texts with increasing skill and pleasure and to converse with each other so as to better understand and embrace the Christian worldview in light of competing systems of philosophic thought regarding the meaning, motion and study of history. Secondary purposes include the development of those intellectual and interpersonal skills necessary of articulating one's own thought clearly and cogently. Also listed as HI305

PH307 Introduction to Eastern Thought 3 credits

This course is an introductory examination of Eastern thought with particular emphasis on primary sources and their historical context. Students will examine primarily the religious and philosophic texts of China and India with a view to hearing carefully what they say and then juxtaposing them with the thought of Western philosophy and of the Biblical Near East. Students will attempt to draw a clear line of demarcation between Eastern thought and the biblical worldview while acknowledging the insights and possible contributions afforded by looking at the world from this perspective. Also listed as HI307

PH311/PH312 Microexegesis: Edwards I and II 3/3 credits

This carefully examines Edward's Dissertation on the Nature of True Virtue and his Freedom of the Will. In the former Edwards unfolds his understanding of human nature and the crucial difference between true holiness and the seeming "virtuous" actions of unbelievers. This account is useful for students in their efforts to understand the moral man of the unbelieving community around him. In his Freedom of the Will Edwards carefully examines and defends the meaning of human freedom in light of the biblical doctrine of divine sovereignty and against Arminian libertarian understanding. The text offers an extraordinary defense of Calvinism which is useful for students who need to live and minister within a contemporary context that evidences a growing affinity for Open Theism.

PH313/PH314 Microexegesis: Aquinas I and II 3/3 credits

This course is a study of Thomas Aquinas's Summa Theologica which offers the most authoritative understanding of Roman Catholic theology and philosophy. It is arguably the most influential work of systematic theology. In it Thomas offers an extraordinary articulation of the world as grounded in certain aspects of the metaphysical thought of Aristotle, modified so as to be congruent with Roman Catholic theology. Any number of theological issues will confront students in the Summa, but they will also come to better understand the thought of the High Middle Ages and so much of the current arguments in politics and ethics grounded in natural law.

PH315/PH316 Microexegesis: Hebrew I and II 3/3 credits

This course constitutes a language tutorial for the analysis of grammar, logic, and rhetoric in unusually challenging seminal texts. The primary purpose of the course is for students to engage in a line-by-line exegesis, articulating their interpretation of a text in the presence of their classmates and under the tutelage of their professor. It also includes the careful articulation of students' thought in written composition. The introductory nature of this course implies that the texts analyzed are the least difficult of the microexegesis courses and that the contents are most likely to resonate with underclassmen. Secondary purposes include an increased familiarity with the history and thought of Western civilization and the student's own theological understanding of topics raised through the text.

PH317/PH318 Microexegesis: Epistemology I and II 3/3 credits

This course constitutes a language tutorial for the analysis of grammar, logic and rhetoric in unusually challenging seminal texts pertaining to epistemology. The primary purpose of the course is for students to engage in a line-by-line exegesis, articulating their interpretation of a text in the presence of their classmates and under the tutelage of their professor. It also includes the careful articulation of students' thought in written composition and collateral reading in formal deductive reasoning. This course is the second in a series of gradually more difficult courses and is appropriate for underclassmen. Secondary purposes include an increased familiarity with the history and thought of Western civilization and the student's own theological understanding of topics raised through the text, especially as it pertains to the study of epistemology.

PH401 Ancient and Medieval Philosophy 3 credits

This course constitutes an inductive exploration of ancient and medieval philosophy through the close reading of select seminal texts in the light of biblical revelation. The primary purpose of the course is for students to read difficult and unfamiliar philosophic texts with increasing skill and pleasure and to converse with each other so as to better understand and embrace the Christian worldview in light of competing systems of philosophic thought. Secondary purposes include the development of those intellectual and interpersonal skills necessary for articulating one's thought clearly and cogently.

PH402 Modern Western Philosophy 3 credits

This course constitutes an inductive exploration of modern philosophy through the close reading of seminal texts in the light of biblical revelation. The primary purpose of the course is for students to read difficult and unfamiliar philosophic texts with increasing skill and pleasure and to converse with each other so as to better understand and embrace the Christian worldview in light of competing systems of philosophic thought. Secondary purposes include the development of those intellectual and interpersonal skills necessary for articulating one's own thought clearly and cogently.

PH411/PH412 Microexegesis: Kierkegaard I and II 3/3 credits

This course is a study of Kierkegaard who has been criticized by many for corrupting Christian doctrine with existentialism, while others have defended him for successfully "sneaking Christ" back into the cold, Hegelian Christendom of Europe. These competing accounts will be examined through the reading of his Christian apologetic, Concluding Unscientific Postscripts. Kierkegaard's thought sheds light on existentialism in general and certain aspects of neo-orthodox theology in particular.

PH415/PH416 *Microexegesis: Theology I and II3/3 credits

This course constitutes an upper level language tutorial for the analysis of grammar, logic and rhetoric in unusually challenging seminal texts pertaining to theology. The primary purpose of the course is for students to engage in a line-by-line exegesis, articulating their interpretation of a text in the presence of their classmates and under the tutelage of their professor. It also includes the careful articulation of students' thought in written composition and collateral reading on figures of speech. This course is the third in a series of gradually more difficult courses and is appropriate for upperclassmen. Secondary purposes include an increased familiarity with the history and thought of Western civilization and the student's own theological understanding of topics raised throughout the text.

PH417/PH418 *Microexegesis: Philosophy I and II3/3 credits

This course constitutes an upper level language tutorial for the analysis of grammar, logic and rhetoric in unusually challenging seminal texts pertaining to philosophy. The primary purpose of the course is for students to engage in a line-by-line exegesis, articulating their interpretation of text in the presence of their classmates and under the tutelage of their professor. It also includes the careful articulation of students' thought in written composition. This course is the fourth and final in a series of gradually more difficult courses and is appropriate for upperclassmen. Secondary purposes include an increased familiarity with the history and thought of Western civilization and the student's own theological understanding of topics raised through the text, especially as it pertains to the study of philosophy.

PH455 *Studies in Ethical Thought3 credits

This course is intended as an introduction to several ethical philosophies, spanning the classical, Medieval, Modern and post-modern world. Through a sustained interaction with primary sources, students will be led to grapple with and assess key ethical formulations from a Christian perspective. The chief ends of this course will be two-fold: 1) for students to work out the core of their theology of sanctification and 2) for students to understand the core theological/philosophical consequences of formulation ethics in non-biblical terms. Also listed as ET455

PsychologyPS100 *General Psychology3 credits

This course is an introduction to the field of psychology as a scientific discipline concerned with the study of behavior and cognitive processes. Included is a survey of fields such as biological bases of behavior, sensation and perception, learning, motivation and emotion, cognition, development, personality, intelligence, social behavior, abnormal behavior, and counseling.

 This course is a part-time apprenticeship. Qualified students are placed in a community setting under an approved leader. Consult with department chair.

Sociology

- SO402 Global Cultures & Geography 3 credits
 This course exposes the student to introductory material dealing with culture and geography especially designed for teaching geography in the secondary school. Geographical thinking about spatial relations, natural resources, human geographic processes, and key geographic topics provide the tools for examining worldwide cultures.
- SO454 Introduction to Sociological Concepts 3 credits
 This course is an inductive investigation and evaluation of the fundamental concepts and assumptions of sociology. Through a sustained interaction with primary sources spanning the Classical, Medieval, Modern, and Post-modern worlds, students will grapple with the fundamental assumptions and categories of sociological thought from a biblical perspective. Students will be able to articulate a biblical conception of culture and the believer's relationship to it.

Speech

- SP100 Speech Communication 3 credits
 This course is designed to aid the student in developing the fundamental tools necessary to become an effective communicator. Emphasis will be placed on the process of speech preparation and precise delivery.
- SP301 Oral Interpretation 3 credits
 This course introduces the student to the use of oral reading as a skill that can be used to minister to an audience. Training is given in the selection, analysis, vocal and physical techniques needed for effective presentation of meaningful pieces.
- SP305 Group Communication 3 credits
 This course will help the student develop an understanding of the principles behind team formation, cohesion, interaction, dynamics, and closure. Theory will be applied to practical application to professional life.
- SP306 Mass Communication 3 credits
 This course provides a foundation for understanding the mass media by examining the form, content, influence, and problems of books, periodicals, newspaper, music, film, radio, television, and the Internet.

SP490 Independent Study in Speech 1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is open to students interested in areas not covered by current course offerings. Advanced study and practice in public speaking, special voice and diction problems, as well as other communication skills, are options for the student. Prerequisites: SP100 and permission of instructor and department chair

TheologyTH102 Theology I—Survey of Doctrine 3 credits

This course is designed to direct the student in a survey of Bible doctrine. Major doctrinal themes will be introduced, defined, and supported from central Scripture passages.

TH110 Building a Biblical Lifestyle 2 credits

This course covers foundational concepts for successful Christian living including Bible study, prayer, determining God's will, developing biblical ethics, and patterns of behavior. This course helps the student develop a philosophy of godly living that will be a guide for a lifetime.

TH201 Theology II—God and the Bible 3 credits

This course is a study of the revelation, inspiration, and canonicity of the Bible. Divine attributes, divine decree, trinitarianism, the Person of the Father, and the Person and work of Christ are also covered.

TH202 Theology III—Man, Sin, and Salvation 3 credits

This course is a study of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit in both the Old and New Testaments, the creation, fall and death of man, the doctrine of salvation considered from man's need, God's methods in reaching man, and the application of the work of the Holy Spirit.

TH302 Theology IV—Baptist Distinctives 3 credits

This course presents the distinctively Baptist beliefs concerning the New Testament Church (ecclesiology) and ministry during the Church Age. The Baptist Distinctives are presented as a single, coherent theology of the Church, beginning with the doctrine of biblical authority. The doctrines of angelology and demonology are also presented.

TH401 Theology V—Dispensationalism 3 credits

This course presents the biblical, hermeneutical, and historical basis of premillennialism and pretribulationism while contrasting it with other millennial views. The major eschatological events are studied with special emphasis given to the doctrine of pretribulational premillennialism. Hermeneutical presuppositions of each eschatological system are discussed. The hermeneutics of the premillennial system are then related to an overall approach to Bible study.

TH402 Theology VI—Systems and Separation 3 credits

This course compares the doctrine and practices of various theological movements with the teachings of the Scriptures. This course includes fundamental, evangelical, liberal, charismatic, feminist, liberation, dominion, and new-age theologies. There will also be a careful examination of the various applications of the biblical doctrine of separation.

TH410 Senior Theology Seminar 1 credit

This course is designed to assist students in reviewing the ten major doctrines of theology. Students will be responsible to communicate orally what has been learned in their theological studies at BBC. At the conclusion of this course, students will participate in an oral comprehensive theological examination.

TH490 Independent Study in Theology 1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is a program of independent study open to qualified students interested in areas of theological study not covered by current courses. Written reports are required. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor

Youth MinistriesYM301 Youth Ministry Philosophy 3 credits

This course is designed to introduce students to skills and competencies necessary for successful youth ministry. It will involve students in an exploration of characteristics unique to youth and youth culture; educational principles as they apply to youth; and a biblical philosophy and direction for the discipling of youth.

YM302 Youth Ministry Strategy 2 credits

This course is designed to introduce students to practical competencies and skills for the effective development and use of a wide range of programming as tools for accomplishing biblical ministry objectives.

YM402 Youth Ministry Seminar 2 credits

This course provides students with a grid for integrating the various pieces of their youth ministry education into a useable foundation for effectiveness as a Youth Pastor.

YM407 Youth Evangelism 2 credits

This course is designed to help students develop necessary skills and competencies for leading outreach ministries that are effective in reaching adolescents with the Gospel of Jesus Christ and for developing plans for outreach ministries aimed at adolescents.

YM480 Youth Ministries Apprenticeship 3 credits

This course is a minimum of ten weeks full-time summer apprenticeship. Qualified students are placed under the supervision of an experienced youth worker for training and experience in a youth ministry environment. Open to students who have completed the junior year. May or may not be taken for credit. Interested students should consult with the department chair early in the junior year.

YM490 Independent Study in Youth Ministry 1, 2, or 3 credits

This course is designed to help the student study areas of youth ministry not included in other courses. Areas of concentration and other details are worked out between the student and the instructor.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Each year, the Lord brings to BBC a group of dedicated men and women preparing to be the next generation of Christian leaders. The College desires to prepare students for God’s calling in life through classroom training, practical experience, and financial responsibility. Baptist Bible College offers a wide range of financial counseling to students through the Office of Student Financial Services. In addition, the College seeks to develop financial policies that are fair and equitable for all students.

Details are available in the Business Office.

TEXTBOOKS

New textbooks may be purchased in the College Bookstore at an average cost of $300 per semester.

FINANCIAL/REGISTRATION POLICY

By registering for classes, a student assumes an obligation to care for charges incurred in an expeditious manner. All student accounts are to be cared for at the time of registration.

The College offers two options to care for the personal portion (total semester charges less any financial aid) of your student account:

Single Payment Options

Pay the entire semester personal portion (total semester charges less any financial aid) by July 1st. and receive a discount of 2% if the payment method is by credit card, or 3% if the payment method is by check or cash. The deadline for the single payment option for the spring semester is December 1.

Monthly Payment Plan

You may also choose to make monthly payments which spread costs over manageable increments. For the fall semester, the first payment is due July 15th and monthly payments would continue through November 15th. For the spring semester, the first payment is due December 15th and monthly payments would continue through April 15th. A $100.00 per semester fee is charged for the monthly payment option. A $25 late charge will be assessed for each month an account is in delinquent status.

The monthly payment amount each semester will be determined by subtracting total funds available, i.e. scholarships, grants and loans, from the total semester charges divided by 5 months.

No student will be allowed to register for a new semester, receive transcripts from a prior semester, or take final examinations until all unpaid balances have been cared for.

Refund Policies

The Financial Aid Office is required by federal statute to determine how much financial aid was earned by students who withdraw, drop out, are dismissed, or take a leave of absence prior to completing 60% of a payment period or term.

For a student who withdraws after the 60% point-in-time, there are no unearned funds. However, a school must still complete a Return calculation in order to determine whether the student is eligible for a post-withdrawal disbursement.

The calculation is based on the percentage of earned aid using the following Federal Return of Title IV funds formula:

Percentage of payment period or term completed = the number of days completed up to the withdrawal date divided by the total days in the payment period or term. (Any break of five days or more is not counted as part of the days in the term.) This percentage is also the percentage of earned aid.

Funds are returned to the appropriate federal program based on the percentage of unearned aid using the following formula:

Aid to be returned = (100% of the aid that could be disbursed minus the percentage of earned aid) multiplied by the total amount of aid that could have been disbursed during the payment period or term.

If a student earned less aid than was disbursed, the institution would be required to return a portion of the funds and the student would be required to return a portion of the funds. Keep in mind that when Title IV funds are returned, the student borrower may owe a debit balance to the institution.

If a student earned more aid than was disbursed to him/her, the institution would owe the student a post-withdrawal disbursement which must be paid within 120 days of the student's withdrawal.

The institution must return the amount of Title IV funds for which it is responsible no later than 45 days after the date of the determination of the date of the student's withdrawal.

Refunds are allocated in the following order:

- Unsubsidized Federal Stafford Loans
- Subsidized Federal Stafford Loans
- Federal Pell Grants for which a Return of funds is required
- Academic Competitiveness Grant
- Other assistance under this Title for which a Return of funds is required (e.g., LEAP)
- Non-Title IV Aid Programs

When a student withdraws during the institution's refund period and the student did not receive any Title IV aid, the financial aid received by the student will be reduced in proportion to the adjustment of the student's charges.

Credit Balances

Credit balances in student accounts will not be refunded unless requested from the Business Office. If a student receiving aid withdraws from the College with money in the student's account, those funds are restored to the financial aid sources according to the appropriate program requirements.

FINANCIAL AID

The Office of Student Financial Services provides a vital function in the students' educational experience. The staff is available to counsel and advise students concerning their financial needs allowing students to complete their education with a minimum of outstanding debt.

Baptist Bible College maintains a diverse range of financial aid programs, which include grants, scholarships, and loans. Grants are defined as aid awarded based upon need and do not need to be repaid. Scholarships are awards based on merit or achievement and also do not need to be repaid. Loans are borrowed funds that are repaid with interest.

The College is approved by the Federal Pell Grant program, the Federal Family Education Loan program, the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency, and other programs which are listed in the following sections. More detailed information is available in the BBC&S Guide to Costs and Financial Aid. Additional information can also be obtained by contacting:

ACADEMIC PROGRESSSatisfactory Academic Progress Requirements

The Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended by Congress in 1980 and 1986, mandates institutions of higher education to establish minimum standards of satisfactory progress for students receiving financial aid. These standards apply to all Federal Aid programs including Pell Grants, Stafford Loans, and PLUS Loans.

In order to receive Title IV aid, any student who is otherwise eligible must meet the standards used by the institution to determine if a Title IV recipient is maintaining satisfactory progress in his or her course of study, regardless of whether the student has previously received Title IV aid.

Enrollment Status

Credits attempted each semester

Full-Time = 12+ credits

3/4 time = 9–11 credits

Half-time = 6–8 credits

Satisfactory Progress

Credits successfully completed each year

Full-Time = 24+ credits

3/4 time = 18–23 credits

Half-time = 12–17 credits

Students who have not met the credit requirement are not eligible for financial aid until the credit deficiency is satisfied. In addition, students must meet the following minimum grade point average requirements:

1. At the end of the first year of undergraduate study—1.60
2. All subsequent years of study—2.00

Procedure for Checking Academic Progress

At the end of each fall semester, aid recipients are reviewed to determine the number of credits completed. If a student has not completed at least half of the total credits required for the year, a warning letter is sent indicating the number of credits required for satisfactory progress, the number of credits completed, and the number of credits required to meet the satisfactory progress requirement.

At the end of the spring semester, aid recipients are again reviewed to determine if they have met the minimum credit requirement. If they have not, a letter is sent informing them that they are not eligible for continued financial aid until the credit deficiency is satisfied. The same procedure is followed regarding the minimum grade point average requirement.

Academic progress for first-time students in the spring semester is checked at the end of the spring semester. If an undergraduate student completed at least 12 credits for full-time study, nine credits for three-quarter-time, or six credits for half-time, and meets the minimum grade point average requirement, that student is considered to have made progress and will then be checked on the fall-spring basis indicated above. If the student did not complete sufficient credits or has not maintained the required grade point average, a warning letter will be sent, and aid will be continued for the fall. At the end of the fall semester, the student's academic progress will be checked again for the required credits and grade point average. Aid will be continued for those students who have met both requirements; students not making progress will be notified of their ineligibility to receive continued financial aid and informed of what needs to be done to again become eligible.

Maximum Semesters of Financial Aid

Undergraduate 2-year Program

1. Full-time students may receive financial aid for a maximum of 5 semesters.
2. Three-quarter-time students may receive financial aid for a maximum of 7 semesters.
3. Half-time students may receive financial aid for a maximum of 10 semesters.

Undergraduate 4-year Program

1. Full-time students may receive financial aid for a maximum of 10 semesters.
2. Three-quarter-time students may receive financial aid for a maximum of 14 semesters.
3. Half-time students may receive financial aid for a maximum of 20 semesters.

Students pursuing a double degree may be eligible for an extension of the time on an individual review basis.

Transfer Students

All transfer students will be treated as new students for the purpose of this policy.

Grade of Incomplete

Credits for a course in which a student has received a grade of incomplete are considered as not successfully completed. When the incomplete grade becomes a letter grade, a reevaluation of the number of credits earned is conducted to test for successful completion of the required number of credits. It is the student's responsibility to inform the Office of Student Financial Services of such a change of grade.

Course Withdrawal

Aid is granted to students according to the enrollment status at the beginning of each term. If a student has not earned the minimum required credits due to withdrawal, the student is considered as not having made satisfactory progress.

Repeated Courses

Aid is granted for repeated course work, and the credits earned are counted toward academic progress.

REESTABLISHING ELIGIBILITY FOR FINANCIAL AID

Students may make up credit deficiency by attending May sessions (for undergraduate students), summer sessions (for graduate students), other sessions without aid, or may take credits at another accredited institution as long as they will be accepted toward the student's degree objective. Once a student has made up the credit deficiency, it is the student's responsibility to notify the Office of Student Financial Services and request that aid be reinstated.

Students may make up a grade point average deficiency by attending May sessions for undergraduate, summer sessions for graduate, or other sessions without aid at Baptist Bible College, Graduate School, or Seminary. Once a student has reached the required GPA, it is the student's responsibility to notify the Office of Student Financial Services and request that aid be reinstated.

Financial Aid Appeals

Any student who has been terminated from Financial Aid has the opportunity to appeal such action. A letter must be written to the Director of Student Financial Services, explaining the appeal with the student's signature, date, and special circumstances to be considered. All appeals must be submitted 30 days prior to the last day of classes during the award period in question.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Some work is available for students in the College cafeteria, Maintenance Department, library, and general offices. There are also numerous job opportunities in and around the Clarks Summit area. Interested students should write to the College personnel director concerning on-campus jobs or to the Office for Student Development for information about off-campus employment.

PERSONAL MONEY

Students are responsible for their personal money and its safekeeping. They may cash checks at the College Business Office or the College bookstore.

CREDIT BALANCES

A credit balance on a student account caused by Title IV aid will be refunded to the student within 15 days. All other credit balances will be refunded only if requested by the student.

CONFESSION OF FAITH

We believe . . .

In the verbal and plenary inspiration of the original manuscripts of the Old and New Testaments, which constitute the inerrant Word of God.

In the Trinity of the Godhead: one God eternally existing in three equal Persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

In the deity, virgin birth, sinless life, substitutionary death, bodily resurrection, and imminent, premillennial coming of Christ.

In the personality of the Holy Spirit by Whom believers are called, regenerated, baptized into Christ, indwelt, sealed, and filled for service.

In the direct creation of the universe and man by God apart from any process of evolution.

In the fall, total depravity, and guilt of the race in Adam which for man's salvation necessitates the sovereign, divinely initiated deliverance of the sinner by the grace of God in Christ.

In God's sovereign election whereby in eternity past He chose some to be recipients of His grace in Christ.

In the eternal salvation of all individuals who put their faith in Christ, Whose blood was shed for the remission of sins.

In the unity of all true believers in the Church, which is the Body of Christ of which He is the sole Head.

In the local church as a company of baptized believers, independent and self-governing, which should fellowship with other churches of like faith and order. It is the responsibility of the local church to observe the ordinances of baptism and the Lord's Supper, edify itself, and evangelize the world. We believe that the only biblical mode of believer's baptism is that of immersion, and that it is to be administered in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The ordinance of baptism is for believers only, and it is a prerequisite for church membership. The offices of a New Testament church are pastors and deacons.

In the priesthood of all believers and the right of every individual to have direct dealings with God.

In the obedience to the biblical command to separate entirely from worldliness and ecclesiastical apostasy unto God.

In the separation of church and state with each believer having responsibilities to both.

In the personal existence of angels, demons, and Satan.

In the bodily resurrection, immortality, and pre-tribulation rapture of all believers at Christ's imminent coming.

In the sovereign selection of Israel as God's eternal covenant people, now dispersed because of her rejection of Christ and later to be regathered in the Holy Land and saved as a nation at the second advent of Christ.

In the distinction between the nation Israel as God's earthly, covenant people and the Church as the spiritual Body of Christ.

In the bodily resurrection and judgment of unbelievers after the millennial reign of Christ.

In the eternal life and blessedness of all believers in heaven and the eternal existence and punishment of all unbelievers in the Lake of Fire.

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

Personal Separation

Baptist Bible College & Seminary believes that it has a responsibility to aid students in their spiritual, moral, and intellectual development so they will be most profitable ministers for Christ. Consistent with this conviction, the College asks that trustees, administrators, faculty, staff, and student body refrain from those practices which would result in wasting of time and talents or might be damaging to the testimony of the individual or the school.

The use of alcoholic beverages, tobacco, or non-medicinal drugs is considered out of harmony with the above standard, as is participation in occult practices, gambling, dancing, excessive use of cosmetics, extremes of fashion, and immodest dress. It is expected that each individual will use the radio, television, VCR, DVD, computer, and literature in a way that is consistent with a Christ-honoring testimony.

Those who do not abide by the regulations, or whose spirit is evidently unsympathetic toward the standards and ideals of the College, or who seem to be exerting any negative or harmful influence upon the school may be asked to leave. Dismissal does not necessarily imply a reflection on moral character.

Ecclesiastical Separation

The spiritual unity of all true believers in the Lord Jesus Christ, regardless of denominational alignment, is a great and blessed teaching of Scripture. Tragically, however, unbelief in many organized fellowships has developed to the point where apostasy, recognizable and indisputable, exists. Wherever this condition occurs, loyalty to the plain injunctions of the Bible makes it obligatory for the child of God to withdraw from and repudiate all connections with such apostasy.

We most emphatically disavow the position of and are not part of the National Council of Churches in America or the World Council of Churches. While in nowise impugning the orthodoxy of all Christian brethren in the National Association of Evangelicals, the College expresses its convinced disagreement with the Association's position in its lack of complete separation from apostasy.

One of the greatest dangers to the effectiveness of the separatist program lies in the direction of “being tolerant of those who are tolerant of unbelief.” While recognizing the liberty of its personnel to minister as and where the Spirit of God directs, the College declares that as an institution it is in sympathy with, and will have fellowship with, only those Christian movements and organizations whose leaders and sponsors are not connected with the apostasy.

Baptist Bible College & Seminary does not believe that the modern charismatic movement is biblical. Any persons connected with the institution who are found claiming to exercise the gift of tongues, encouraging others to seek it, or promoting its practice will be asked to remove themselves from association with the College.

BAPTIST BIBLE GRADUATE SCHOOL

Baptist Bible College offers graduate preparation for ministry.

The Graduate division of the College began in 1989 with the inception of the Master of Science in Christian School Education (MSCSE) degree. In 1996, BBC instituted the Master of Science in Counseling Ministries (MSCM) degree. Both degree programs are built upon the College's undergraduate Bible major and respective programs of study. In 2007, the Graduate School added an online Master of Science degree in Biblical Ministries (MSBM). The M.S. programs have the same accreditation as the College's undergraduate degrees (Middle States Association and Association for Biblical Higher Education).

The Master of Science in Christian School Education degree is designed to meet the needs of teachers, coaches, and administrators who serve or are preparing to serve in Christian schools. Professors from various parts of the country serve as adjunct faculty for summer modules. The benefit for the student is having some of the finest instruction available. Programs of study include Educational Administration, Curriculum & Instruction, Elementary Education, Health, Physical Education & Sport, Music Instruction, Computer Services Instruction, School Counseling, Secondary English and Communications.

The Master of Science in Counseling Ministries degree prepares students for career ministry opportunities in professional, entry-level positions. The MSCM program emphasizes biblical counseling and the Scripture's sufficiency in overcoming life's problems.

The Master of Science in Biblical Ministries degree prepares a student to engage in effective ministry. The program is structured in the areas of theological formation and ministry leadership. The MSBM program is an online program for adult learners involved in their local church and other ministry vocations.

Baptist Bible College has long held a reputation for educating men and women to think biblically. The M.S. programs continue this great heritage. True Christian education builds upon a foundation of Bible knowledge and application. All courses offered in the programs are taught from a biblical perspective.

BAPTIST BIBLE SEMINARY

Advanced Preparation for Global Ministry.

The Seminary, which began in 1972 as the School of Theology, is a graduate-level division of Baptist Bible College of Pennsylvania. It shares the campus with the College and is characterized by a balance of academic excellence and passion for ministry.

The curriculum and schedule are structured to give each student ample opportunity to study at his own pace and schedule. Personal contact with faculty members of the Seminary and warm Christian fellowship with other students are daily occurrences.

The Seminary offers five graduate degree programs. The Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree is a 94-credit-hour professional program designed primarily to train men for worldwide Christian ministry. The Master of Theology (Th.M.) degree is a 38-credit-hour program that is designed to allow qualified men to develop a greater proficiency in a selected area of Bible knowledge. The Master of Ministry (M.Min.) degree is a 33-credit-hour program that is designed to sharpen the skills of pastors and missionaries already involved in full-time Gospel ministries. The Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) degree is a 34-credit-hour advanced professional education program for full-time ministry professionals who want to develop further and excel in biblical leadership ministry. The Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) degree is a 60-credit-hour degree program. Its majors are in Hebrew, NT Greek, Systematic Theology, and Bible Exposition. The BBS Ph.D. is designed to blend and balance rigorous scholarship with pastoral passion for all students regardless of career orientation. The BBS doctoral degrees are sought after by professors and educational leaders from around the world.

Baptist Bible Seminary is the ideal next step for men graduating from Bible college. The BBS curriculum is designed to take students to the next level rather than repeating undergraduate studies. Scholarship aid and advance standing make the transition to graduate study a logical step.
